CELEBRATINGVITAL CONGREGATIONS <=> FAITHFUL DISCIPLES

Growing Communities of Compassion

The Committee for the Annual Conference Program felt that the 1990 Conference theme should be a continuation of the 1989 theme. We are continuing a program of local church vitalization. The North Carolina Annual Conference's focus on this vitalization is an extension of the Episcopal Initiative, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples. The theme Growing Communities of Compassion is continued.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

Section I: Rules of Order

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak out only once on any one motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him/her) shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to ten (10) minutes except by consent of the Conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.
6. The Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the Annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the Conference.

Section II: Voting

1. Voting shall be by "yes or no" or by a "show of hands" or by "standing" at the discretion of the chair.
2. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting. The results of a count vote shall be printed in the Journal. The chair may call for a count vote if he/she is in doubt as to the outcome of the vote.
3. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the Conference. The bar of the Conference shall be determined by the Conference at the beginning of the first session.

Section III: Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

1. The election of clerical delegates shall be by secret ballot. (Each person eligible to vote shall indicate his/her choice of names for the places ordered by the chair on the secret ballot without prior nomination, with balloting to continue until a majority is received by sufficient persons to fulfill the needed number of delegates.)
 - a. Any lay person who is a member of the United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Conference who wishes to be a nominee may submit a resume, not to exceed 200 words. Resumes may also be submitted on behalf of a prospective nominee.
 - b. Consent of the nominee should be obtained after the nominee has been informed of the duties of a delegate.
 - c. Any lay member of the Church may be voted for whether a resume is submitted or not.
 - d. Resumes should be mailed to the Conference lay leader by April 1 of the year prior to the upcoming General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 - e. The list of nominees and their resumes will be prepared and distributed by the Conference Board of Lay Life and Work at the District Briefings or be mailed with the Book of Reports.
 - f. The election of lay delegates shall be by secret ballot as above. Electors may vote for any eligible person, whether nominated as above or not.
3. All votes shall be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the Conference.
4. Ballots shall be numbered consecutively and only ballots with the number announced by the chair shall be valid. Defaced ballots will not be valid. (If a member defaces a ballot, he/she may exchange it for a new one at the secretary's desk.)
5. Each member will place his/her own ballot in the ballot box held by a teller.
6. Different colored ballots will be provided for lay and clerical members.
7. The names of persons receiving less than ten votes shall not be reported to the Conference.

8. Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.
9. A ballot will be considered invalid in the following cases:
 - a. Any electronic ballot which is not marked clearly and darkly with a number 2 lead pencil. (Any the scanner will not read.)
 - b. More or less than the maximum number of votes permitted on that particular ballot.
 - c. Voting for a person already elected.
 - d. Voting for someone not eligible.
 - e. Voting twice for the same person.

Section IV: Conference Structure

1. The Bishop and Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Conference, except in those cases where the Discipline or the Annual Conference directs otherwise.
2. Near the end of each quadrennium, the heads of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall submit a list of qualified, suggested nominees to the Bishop and the Cabinet for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees.
3. Recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.
 - a. At the beginning of each quadrennium all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall elect their officers only after all their members have been notified of the organizational meeting. A member of the Cabinet or the Conference Staff (designated by the Cabinet) shall serve as the convening officer for the organizational meeting.
 - b. All elections in the Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by written, secret ballot of those present and eligible to vote. Nominations from the floor may be made.
 - c. The presiding Bishop shall be requested to announce the Cabinet assignments to the various Boards and Agencies at some point during the Annual Conference.
 - d. Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, commissions, and committees shall be eight years, with one exception: the Board of Laity where tenure shall be six years for members and four years for the Conference lay leader. (The Conference lay leader may serve also the unexpired term of his/her predecessor.)
5. The membership is to be as outlined in the complete Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan found in the 1990 Journal.
6. The Conference structure shall be as determined by the charter of the Conference Council on Ministries. In addition there shall be a coordinator of ministerial relations/administrative assistant to the bishop with such duties and responsibilities as determined by the Annual Conference or assigned by the residing bishop.
7. The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
 - a. The position of Conference Secretary shall be continued on a part-time basis with adequate funding provided.
 - b. The responsibilities of the Conference Secretary shall be defined as follows:
 - 1) To fulfill the duties and functions of the Conference Secretary as adopted by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
 - 2) To edit the Conference Journal.
 - 3) And such other duties as are stipulated by the Annual Conference.

- a) Provides for the Local Entertainment Committee any necessary information pertinent to Conference entertainment, and to provide the names and addresses of all persons (guests, delegates, and reserves) to be invited and entertained, including early arrivals.
 - b) Provides delegate registration cards with complete information, by districts,
 - c) Serves as a member of the Annual Conference Program Committee and responsible for the printing and the distribution of the Conference Program as planned by the Bishop and the Program Committee, also the Book of Recommendations,
 - d) Serves as chairman of the Annual Conference Committee on Memoirs and is responsible for the compiling and the printing of the memoirs and the Memorial Service as prepared by the Bishop and the Memoirs Committee,
 - e) Arranges with the Local Entertainment Committee plans for all special luncheons or banquets,
 - f) Provides a packet for each delegate with necessary materials, including name tags,
 - g) Responsible for proper preparation of ordination credentials and other documents, and securing the class photos,
 - h) Provides necessary office equipment and supplies during Annual Conference for the following offices: Bishop, Conference Secretary, Cabinet, Cabinet Secretary, Conference Statistician, Treasurer, and United Methodist information,
 - i) Nominates secretarial staff, assigns and supervises their work,
 - j) Compiles list of lay delegates and reserves for Journal,
 - k) Serves as editor of Conference Journal with responsibility for printing and distribution,
 - l) Keeps accurate alphabetical and chronological rolls of ministers, including career records, widows and children of ministers,
 - m) Provides required statistical information for General Church Agencies,
 - n) Serves as Conference archivist and custodian of historical artifacts and information of antecedent conferences,
 - o) Receives and retains surrendered credentials.
- c. The position of Conference Secretary shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.
- d. Proper provision shall be made in The United Methodist Building in Raleigh for the protection and the preservation of all records, historical data, etc. of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and (and any antecedent conferences) dating prior to the Union of 1939 now being held by the Conference Secretary and the Conference Statistician.
- e. Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his/her assistants and the Conference shall elect.
- f. Conference Stenographers: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference stenographers.
8. The Conference Statistician:
- a. The position of Conference Statistician shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, with adequate funding provided.
 - b. The position of Conference Statistician shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.

9. Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also, the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.
10. The Conference Lay Leader: The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Annual Conference following General Conference on nomination by the Bishop and Cabinet and the Executive Committee of the Board of Laity. Should the vacancy occur at any other time it would be filled by the same procedure. The Conference Lay Leader shall serve as the chairperson of the Board of Laity.
11. Committees and Boards:
 - a. The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
 - b. There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference secretary, the host district superintendent, the chairperson of Local Committee on Entertainment, the Conference lay leader, the Conference president of the UMW, the UMY, and the director of the Conference Council on Ministries. They shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
 - c. There shall be an Entertainment Committee composed of three ministers and three laypersons. The Committee shall be elected at the session of the Annual Conference after the meeting of the General Conference. The Committee shall receive invitations and recommend to the Annual Conference the place and method of entertaining the Annual Conference. A local church or other institution may host the Annual Conference upon acceptance of the invitation of the Annual Conference.
 - 1) When no invitation has come from the local church or other institution, the Annual Conference will be held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College on alternating years (held at Methodist College until Wesleyan has an auditorium).
 - 2) The Cabinet will designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district (when the Conference is held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College) which will be responsible for ushers, flowers, and other related items of hospitality.
 - d. There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the Conference secretary, and the district superintendents. They are charged with the responsibility of providing for all details of the memorial service. The Conference secretary shall serve as its chairperson.
 - e. There shall be a Committee on Daily Minutes elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
 - f. There shall be a Committee on Appeals appointed quadrennially, composed of five members whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Buildings, or any other questions that may properly come before it.
 - g. There shall be a Committee of Rules which shall provide to the Conference a document of Rules of Order and Procedure and the policies and standing rules and structure that the Conference from time to time shall adopt for its functioning. This document shall be presented to each Annual Conference.
 - h. There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually, at the first session of the Conference.

- i. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Reference which shall schedule all resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference, including resolutions from boards and agencies printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports. This scheduling will not constitute a recommendation for approval, disapproval or referral of such a resolution. Any resolution not in Conference publications will be reviewed by this committee, which shall recommend to the Annual Conference approval, disapproval, or referral to another board or agency. With each report the committee shall state the rationale for the recommendation.
12. No person may serve on more than one board of trustees of an institution to which trustees are elected by the Conference.

Section V: Financial Administration

1. The Conference treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present its report to the Annual Conference only after all other committees, commissions, boards, and agencies having claims on the budget have presented their report.
3. Each district superintendent shall furnish the Conference treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the amounts budgeted by each local church for Conference apportionments; and a schedule of salaries of clergy as budgeted shall be sent to the presiding bishop.

Section VI: Reports, Resolutions, Motions, and Amendments to Report

1. All reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the Book of Recommendations shall be sent to the Conference secretary, typewritten or in some other form acceptable to the Conference secretary, on or before the date approved for such by the Council on Ministries and published in the Conference calendar.
2. Resolutions presented to the Annual Conference, other than those printed in conference publications, shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary with copies for all members of the Annual Conference. Such resolutions shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. A resolution is considered "presented" to the Annual Conference when it is distributed in Conference publications or distributed to members on the floor of the Annual Conference after authorization by the Conference secretary and chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference. All copies distributed shall indicate the source of the resolution. No resolution shall be distributed later than the second night of the Annual Conference session. All resolutions shall be referred to the Conference Committee on Resolutions and Reference. The committee shall report to the Annual Conference daily.
3. Motions presented to the Annual Conference and amendments to motions shall be in writing and placed in the hands of the Conference secretary prior to or when presented or immediately following.
4. Any report, recommendation, resolution, or motion requiring funding over and beyond the Conference budget as presented by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary with copies for all the lay and clergy members of the Conference. Such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. No such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be distributed later than the second night of the Conference. All such reports, recommendations, resolutions, or motions shall be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Section VII: Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference - Statistics

1. Final remittances for the current calendar year shall be made to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches.
3. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
4. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

Section VIII: The Conference Journal

1. The Conference secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: the Conference claimants, lay members of the Conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference, and lay members of the Annual Conference. The Conference secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he/she may deem advisable. Three copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $10.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference treasurer and credited to the Journal Account.
3. That the Conference shall publish a one volume Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.

Section IX: Districts

1. The number of districts shall be twelve.
2. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one Annual Conference to take effect at the next Annual Conference. A majority may change the number of districts.
3. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
4. The district president, sub-district presidents, and the local church presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference, in addition to those named by the 1972 Discipline.
5. The district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendent and the Conference lay leader.

Section X: Displays at the Annual Conference

Display tables and similar matters shall be allocated by the Conference secretary only to those agencies directly related to or a part of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Section XI: Amendments

These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day a proposed amendment has been presented in writing, providing that the rule governing the manner in which the number of districts may be changed cannot be amended until the next Annual Conference.

Section XII: When the Rules Become Effective

These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

1990-1991 CONFERENCE MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

OF THE 1990 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Wednesday, June 13, 1990

Announcements: Bishop Minnick called on Conference Secretary James Coile for the following announcements: First, it was announced that Julia Webb-Bowden was in an automobile accident but was present this morning. This news was greeted with applause. Second, it was announced that Allen Wentz had suffered a heart attack and was being treated in a Greensboro Hospital. Bishop Minnick led in prayer for both.

Worship: The session was opened with Psalm 148 and Hymn 569, We've a Story to Tell to the Nations.

The Executive Session for All Ministers in Full Connection: Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presiding, called the Executive Session to order in Reeves Auditorium at Methodist College in Fayetteville at 10:30 a.m.

Passing of the Character of Clergy: Bishop Minnick called the District Superintendents to the stage where they were asked to respond to Question 17, "Are all the clergy members of the Conference blameless in their life and official administration?" Eleven of the twelve district superintendents responded in the affirmative. The Goldsboro District Superintendent responded, "No written grievance has been presented against the character of any ministers in the Goldsboro District." The Bishop explained that "there is at least one situation in his district where inquiry is being continued in regards to one pastor, but at this point, as he said, there are no written grievances against any of them."

Report of Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Minnick called upon Woodrow W. Wells, Jr., Board of Ordained Ministry chairperson, to present the report of the board.

Wells made several necessary corrections, then moved adoption of the entire report, including the corrections. A question was raised by Hugo Lopez who pointed out that the spelling of his middle name under question 24 was incorrect. It was corrected. Questions 19 - 54 were answered as necessary in the affirmative. Candidates for Probationary Membership and Deacons Orders were presented. Candidates for Elders Orders and Full Connection were presented. The historic questions were asked by the Bishop and answered by the candidates. All were elected. (All answers to the disciplinary questions will be found in the business of the Annual Conference in this session of the Journal with portions of it also in Section II and Section V.)

Robert Christian and Kirk Oldham, transfers from other annual conferences, were asked to stand and were received, as were Leon Fowler and Richard Jackson, transfers from other Methodist denominations.

The names of those retiring this year were read. Bishop Minnick asked each to come to the front to receive the Conference's appreciation for their years of service. Such appreciation was expressed in a heart-felt round of applause.

The names of the deceased were read and the Bishop called for the ministers to stand for silent prayer. He named the spouses of ministers who have died during the previous year, as the session stood in respect and remembrance.

This concluded the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Bishop Minnick called for the adoption of the entire report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. It was adopted. The Board was given a round of applause in appreciation of its work.

Miscellaneous Matters: Conference Secretary James Coile made announcements.

Hymn: No. 156, I Love to tell the Story, was sung.

Benediction: The benediction was given by Bishop Minnick and the executive session was adjourned.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Wednesday, June 13, 1990

General Session for all Lay and Clergy Members: At 1:25 p.m., following the prelude by Mark Pace of First UMC in Wilson, the Conference organist for the business sessions of the Annual Conference, the general session of all lay and clergy members was called. The session began with the traditional singing of And Are We Yet Alive. This was followed by a service of Word and Table with Holy Communion for the Annual Conference members and visitors. The celebrant was Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., assisted by members of the cabinet and other clergy. Communion was received by the entire Conference assembled with special music and singing with great dignity and meaning. Reeves Auditorium was completely filled. Bishop Minnick preached the Communion sermon leaving all in a pensive mood as they received the elements.

Recess: Following the Communion Service, the Bishop declared ten minutes be given to clear the stage and prepare for the convening of the Conference for business.

Conference Convened: Bishop Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., called the Conference to order, recognizing President Elton P. Hendricks of Methodist College for words of greeting. President Hendricks noted that the temperature and humidity are not up to the normal Fayetteville standards, but promised to work on getting both up for the weekend. This was greeted with warm laughter. The Honorable J. L. Dawkins, mayor of the City of Fayetteville, as well as the Reverend J. Malloy Owen III, superintendent of the Host Goldsboro District, also brought greetings and welcome.

State of the Church Address: Bishop Minnick focused attention on areas in the church's life which call forth rejoicing, as well as areas which call for greater effort and greater resources to be devoted in the service of God. He began by lifting up the Vitalization Program, led by the Reverend Steve Compton, which he noted would serve 78 congregations in our Conference this year, though over three times that number had applied to take part. Next year, he said, another 80 would be chosen to take part. A second area for rejoicing was the Capital Funds Campaign, to which, he noted, over 8.2 million dollars had been pledged, and over 2.2 million had already been paid. He lifted up capital improvements being made at the camps, and new congregations being started with the help of Capital Campaign Funds. Further gifts are needed if the campaign is to reach its goal of 8 million dollars. A third area of rejoicing is that of Per-Capita Stewardship, where he noted a $13 increase in giving in 1989 over 1988. He also urged that we continue to press all United Methodists to tithe, thus meeting the biblical call to stewardship. In the same area, he noted that while an increase in pledges of Outreach Ministries giving had increased in the previous year, that the actual amount paid to Outreach Ministries was 92% of what was pledged, and urged churches to do better. The fourth area for rejoicing in the area of Mission Interpretation, where the Bishop noted that over 500 pastors have entered into covenant with him to do a better job in bringing the mission of the church in all its various facets before our congregations, in the hope of stimulating to them to greater support of our denominational and Conference efforts in missions. The Bishop also spoke of his great concern in the area of Evangelism noting that over 3,000 professions of faith are reasons for rejoicing, but also noted the need to seek those who are lost, whose numbers are ever increasing in our midst. Finally, the Bishop informed the Conference that he had appointed a special committee, made up of both clergy and laity, to further examine the broad range of the Conference's mission in the 1990's. He concluded by sharing the prayer that Christ's grace would enable us to continue to grow as communities of compassion. The Conference responded with warm applause. (For complete text, see Section V of the Journal.)

Organization of the Conference: The Bishop recognized Conference Secretary James Coile for motions concerning the organization of the Conference. Mr. Coile presented the following motions, which were approved:

"Mr. President, I move that the bar of the Conference be the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium." This was approved.

"I move that the registration kept by the registrars at the registration tables be designated and declared the official roll of the Conference." This was approved.

"I move that the program contained in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1990, (as it may be amended from time to time by the President of the Conference) be the official program of the Conference." This was approved.

"I move that persons appearing on the program who are not members of the Conference be granted the privilege of the floor." This was approved.

"I move that the committees and persons printed on pages 7 & 8 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1990, be elected; with the following changes. Under Conference Secretary's Office, delete the name Patricia Fairley and add the name Sara Coile. Under floor managers, add the name of Dennis Levin. The Committee on Investigation is deleted from consideration. It is the present committee and a new committee will be elected when the nominations for other agencies are presented and elected. The Program Committee is made up of representatives from various agencies as stated in the rules of the Conference." This change was approved along with the election of these persons to the positions indicated.

Coile also noted the presence of the Reverend Suzanna Ross Helms as agenda person for this year's Conference.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: Bishop Minnick presented Charles Cook to present the report.

Cooke indicated a number of changes, particularly with regard to the voting cards, which will not be used this year. Several other changes were brought for the Conference, all of which were approved. The rules were adopted. (Complete corrected Conference Rules are found Section I of the Journal.)

Conference Committee on Nominations: Bishop Minnick called on CCOM Executive Director G. Robert McKenzie, Jr., for the report. McKenzie proceeded to explain the booklet containing the nominations and various procedures which went into the replacement of various members of Conference boards and agencies. He noted several corrections and told the Conference that the report of the Committee on Nominations would lay on the table overnight and be voted on tomorrow morning. (See board and agency members listed in Section II of the Journal.)

Composite Report of the District Superintendents: The Bishop called on Wallace H. Kirby to offer the report. Kirby noted that items traditionally included in the District Superintendents' Report, such as membership gains, buildings built, and special Capital Funds Campaign, are included in the report which will appear in the Journal in the Fall. His oral report focused on guidelines for open itineracy which would be distributed to the Conference. Kirby lifted up several specifics out of the guidelines within each of the six sections. Bishop Minnick pointed out that these guidelines are a response to last year's resolution on open itineracy, and as such do not require Conference action. They will simply be implemented by the Cabinet. The Bishop opened the floor for discussion on the guidelines, seeking endorsements and/or suggestions for implementing them.

George McGill spoke of his experience in cross-racial appointments and integrated churches in Brazil as a missionary with General Board of Global Ministries.

Motion: Ernie Wendell moved "that the Annual Conference officially endorse the Cabinet's guidelines for open itineracy". The endorsement was given unanimously. This concluded the District Superintendents' Report, which was greatly received by the Conference. (For further details see the Composite Report of District Superintendents found in Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry: Bishop Minnick called on Carol D. Strange to give the report. Strange lifted up several elements of the report, and offered words of appreciation to Gail Walker for 20 years of service. She is retiring this year. She then called upon Sue Ellen Nicholson, Susan Parker, and Cynthia Powell to come forward, stand before the Conference as those who are being consecrated on Wednesday Evening as Diaconal Ministers. Strange moved that they be accepted for consecration, and they were unanimously. The report was placed before the Conference and accepted unanimously. (For further details see the complete report in Section V of the Journal.)

Reports of the Laity: Bishop Minnick called upon Conference Lay Leader Robert C. Frazier, Sr., to begin the Laity reports.

Report of the Conference Lay Leader: Dr. Frazier lifted up the work of a variety of individual Methodists in their ministries in their local communities - volunteers in painting church buildings, visitors to nursing homes, prisons and hospitals, those who lent willing ears to those suffering from different kinds of pain. By way of pointing out that our service to Christ is a large part service to our neighbors, Frazier offered a beautiful reading from Tolstoy's fable, Papa Panov's Special Christmas. Frazier concluded his remarks with a moment of personal privilege, which he used to thank the Reverend Cliff Shoaf for five years of excellent work with the Conference Board of Laity as an associate director of the Conference Council on Ministries. He also presented Shoaf with a plaque in appreciation for his work. (For further details of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the United Methodist Men: R. B. Goforth, Conference president of the United Methodist Men, brought the report. Goforth lifted up the work of four committees of the Conference UMM including those working with the St. Andrews Potato Project, the Heifer Project, those working with 4-H and Scouting, and Disaster Preparedness and Response. (For further details, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the United Methodist Women: Jane Johnson, Conference president of the United Methodist Women, brought the report. She told the Conference that this year's UMW Theme is "Living Our Faith." A variety of means were employed to make this theme a reality. She cited funds sent to the Women's Division, to the Methodist Preschool in South Africa, to the Methodist Mission at Ganta, Liberia, and other examples. She further cited a number of programs undertaken by Conference UMW, including the 39 and Under Retreat, Christian Personhood Retreat, and efforts made toward educating, sensitizing, and changing attitudes toward race and racism among women throughout the Conference. (For further details, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship: The report was brought by Jennifer Jones, president of the UMYF. She spoke of the struggles the Conference Youth Ministries had in the past year, including the loss of the Conference Youth Coordinator in January. She rejoiced, however, that the Reverend Ray Warren has recently been named as the new Conference Youth Coordinator. She spoke of the Youth Service Fund and its continued role in supporting youth ministries in the Conference as well as throughout the denomination. She spoke with sadness at the decrease in the participation of several summer youth events, and especially at the cancellation of the Summer Music Workshop, due to lack of registration. She urged the members of the Conference to "provide the wind for the sails on our boat," in order that Conference Youth Ministry may be strengthened throughout the coming year. (For the complete report, see Section V of the Journal.)

The Annual Conference then unanimously accepted the reports of the Conference Lay Leader, UMM Conference president, UMW Conference president, and UMY Conference president.

Report of the Council on Finance and Administration: Bishop Minnick called on Cashar W. Evans to bring the report. Evans began by introducing every member of CF&A. He then expressed gratitude to the 613 churches which paid 100% of their Outreach Ministries Apportionment in 1989. He then turned to the report for CF&A, which he noted contained only a 3.89% increase for next year. He then directed the Conference's attention to the report on Financial Policies found on pages 80-85 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1990. Evans then moved the acceptance of sections II, III, & IV, Financial Policies Statement. Quinton Covington asked if under II.1.b. Black Colleges could not be changed to Colleges. The Bishop said, "no".

Motion: Barton Baldwin of First United Methodist Church, Mt. Olive, moved "that in future years, the Recommended Conference Budget as reported in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports include THREE ADDITIONAL COLUMNS AS FOLLOWS: (most recent) Budget (Y/E 12/31/00), Actual (Y/E 12/31/00), and Variance (Y/E 12/31/00)." Baldwin then presented the rationale for his motion.

Conference Treasurer, Herb Stout spoke to the motion, noting that the requested information is available, published in the Journal, though in an unaudited form. Baldwin pointed out that the information found in the Journal is already a year old by the time we come to consider a budget for two years following. Dale Coston of Warsaw spoke in favor of the amendment. The Bishop called for a vote, and the motion was approved.

Stan Smith requested information on the reason for the separation of the Episcopal Fund from other apportionments. Evans replied that this was a disciplinary requirement.

Sections II, III & IV of the CF&A report were then approved by the Conference by show of hands. The CF&A Report was then accepted in its entirety except for the budget, which will be dealt with on Friday.

Report No. 1 of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: Chairperson Gwen Henderson presented the report of the committee.

Resolution on Clean Air and Clean Water: This resolution was brought before the Conference. Quinton Covington attempted rewording of "Mother Earth".

Amendment: Jennifer Blake of Epworth UMC in Durham rose to substitute "God's Creation" for "Mother Earth", this was approved by a hand vote overwhelmingly.

Resolution on the Death Penalty: This resolution was approved in a close hand vote.

Resolution on Drug Trafficking and Covert Operations: This was placed before the Conference and was approved.

Resolution on "Our Environment and the Christian Life Style": This was approved without dissent by the Conference.

Resolution on Reforestation: This was also approved unanimously.

Resolution on Using At Least 5% Recycled Paper: This resolution was placed before the Conference. Robert McKenzie pointed out that the Conference is already in the process of beginning to respond to this resolution, by using recycled paper for the Book of Handouts. Bill Norton came to the microphone to inform the Conference that there is no extra cost in using recycled paper as opposed to any other kind of paper.

Amendment: Jennifer Blake offered an amendment to the first section following Therefore, "1)...with recycled content for at least 10% by 1991 and with a goal of 33% by 1995". Steve Hickle, chairperson of the Board of Church and Society, indicated that the Board would gather and supply information to local churches about recycling. The amendment was approved by the Conference.

The entire resolution, as amended, was then approved unanimously. This concluded report No. 1 of the Committee on Resolutions.

Announcements: The Bishop called on Secretary Coile for announcements.

Resolution on Child Pornography: A resolution on Child Pornography was laid before the Conference in order to be dealt with by the Committee on Resolutions. The Conference granted the request of the presenter, Matt Brookshire of First UMC in Washington, for that consideration.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick then dismissed the Conference until the ordination service at 7:30.

FIRST DAY EVENING SESSION: Wednesday, June 13, 1990

A Service of Worship for Ordination and Consecration: At 7:30 p.m., an ordination and consecration service was held in Reeves Auditorium. Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presided and Bishop Peter Storey was the preacher. The Haymount United Methodist Church Choir rendered special music. Carol D. Strange presented the diaconal ministers for consecration and they were duly consecrated. Woody Wells presented the deacons and elders for ordination. They were duly ordained. (For a synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Worship for Consecration and Ordination, Wednesday, June 13, 1990.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION, Thursday, June 14, 1990

Holy Communion: The sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m., in Hensdale Chapel, led by the Reverend Carrie W. Parrish.

Conference Called to Order: Bishop Minnick called the Conference to order at 8:30 a.m. and called for the singing of hymn 369, Blessed Assurance, and hymn 174, His Name is Wonderful. He then led the Conference in prayer.

Bible Study: Bishop Minnick began his study of Paul's letters to the Corinthians by connecting them to our Conference theme, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples. After offering some background on the history of Corinth and of Paul's journeys which resulted in the founding of the church in Corinth, he described the problems which were tearing that church apart - sexual immorality, confusion about idols, paganism seeping into the church, theological divisions, divisions based on personalities, etc. He discussed certain of these problems and other questions raised by the Corinthian correspondence, and its relationship to the Church in our day. His study was received by a full auditorium of members and visitors with great appreciation for both his teaching and his humor.

Report of the Committee on Minutes: Stan Smith brought the Committee's report. The minutes of the first day's session were found to be satisfactory. They were approved.

Report of the Methodist Board of Publication: Bishop Minnick called on C. Alison Simonton, Jr., to bring the report. Simonton thanked the Conference for its efforts on behalf of the recent subscription campaign for the North Carolina Christian Advocate. The report was moved and adopted. (For the complete text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Black College Fund: The Bishop introduced Dina Nero of Greenwood, Mississippi, a student at one of our Black colleges, to bring the report. She spoke of the history of Rust College, the school she is presently attending, and of the role which it has played in the education of Black students among United Methodists. As part of her testimony to what Rust has done for her, she also praised the role of the Black College Fund in helping to "provide a heritage worth preserving." She listed the historically Black colleges supported by the Black College Fund, and commended the Conference for its support of the fund.

Resolution on the Lottery: William Jeffries rose to offer "a resolution on the lottery in North Carolina to be received and referred to the Committee on Resolutions for action" at a later session. With the Conference's consent, it was so referred.

Resolution on Evangelism: Mark Kennedy moved "a resolution on evangelism be presented to the Committee on Resolutions and Reference, Conference secretary, and distributed to the members of the NC Annual Conference" to support making evangelism a higher priority in the Conference's mission. Unanimously, it was agreed to do so.

Denman Award: The Bishop called on David J. Goehring to present the Denman Award. The award seeks to recognize individuals for their efforts in the area of evangelism, in terms of life-style, witness, and adherence to the United Methodist tradition. The recipient of this year's award is the Reverend M. Eugene Tyson, Jr., pastor of Faith United Methodist Church in New Bern. Tyson gratefully accepted the award.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bernice Johnson was recognized. She hailed the work of the Reverend Albert Shuler, associate director of the Conference Council on Ministries, concentrating on the area of Ethnic Minority Local Church concerns. She presented a plaque to Shuler from the Commission on the Status and Roll of Women in appreciation for his work with that board.

Testimonial: Committee on Disaster Preparedness - "Response to Hugo": The Bishop recognized Dennis P. Levin to present the testimonial. Levin began by noting ironically, "it's been a good year for disasters!" He named a number of the grants which have been given to victims of natural disasters in areas of our Conference such as Lemon Springs, Raleigh, and Rocky Mount. He spoke also of the resourcefulness of local churches in dealing with disasters, such as John Wesley Church which served as an over-night shelter to nursing home patients following a tornado. He lauded the efforts of Conference churches in responding to Hurricane Hugo, noting that the total amount of the aid is incalculable because so much of it was spontaneous and directed through sources other than the Disaster Preparedness Committee. While appreciating such aid, not only financial but also in terms of time and effort, Levin also cautioned that such aid can involve us in dangerous situations, given the nature of damage which is inflicted by natural disasters. Training, he said, has also been provided to a variety of volunteer teams seeking to respond to several different disasters. In his committee's work, Levin noted that a plan has been developed for response to disasters which is oriented to action taken by local churches. With pride he indicated that the plan developed by his committee has been requested by other conferences and other denominations as a model for local church response. The testimonial was greeted with warm applause.

Lay Person of the Year Award: Dr. Robert C. Frazier, Sr., rose to present the award. After explaining the procedure by which lay persons of the year are chosen, Frazier proceeded to introduce the 1989 District Lay Persons of the Year. These are: O. Hulon Briggs of First UMC in Graham; Eleanor Browning Walker of Pleasant Green UMC near Durham; Martha Edwards Capps of Riverside UMC in Elizabeth City; Daniel H. Brown of Christ UMC in Fayetteville; Susan Townsend Carter of Wallace UMC; Richard Walker of First UMC in Washington; Ellen MacFarland of Broad Creek UMC in Newport; Elizabeth M. And Allen Norris of Louisburg UMC; Ira P. Lowry of First UMC in Pembroke, and Bryant Stevens of Laural Hill UMC; Walter C. Cooke of Nashville UMC; William F. and Catherine B. Poad of Siler City; Arvel Heafner of Trinity UMC in Wilmington.

The 1990 Conference Lay People of the Year are Elizabeth and Allen Norris. Frazier extolled their joint ministry on behalf of the Conference. In the biography of the two of them found in the Book of Handouts, it was noted that "Beth gave merited service as chairperson for the Committee on Camping and the Spirit of Tomorrow fund raising campaign. Allen's comprehensive work as chair of the Board of Laity enlarged its ministry, but even more he is honored for his leadership in election of Joseph Bethea as bishop and his service on the SEJ Committee on the Episcopacy." Frazier stressed that the Norrises are "a true Christian husband and wife team," whose ministries have been intimately entwined even as they accomplished what might seem to be individual achievements. A plaque was presented to the Norrises on behalf of the Conference by Dr. Frazier, and the award was greeted with a standing ovation.

Recommendations of the Conference Council on Ministries: G. Robert McKenzie, Jr., executive director of the CCOM, came to the podium to deliver the recommendations for 1990. McKenzie went briefly through the report, found on pages 32-50 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1990, hitting on a number of highlights of the report.

Amendment: Eric Lindblade moved "that L52 of the report be moved to the priority consideration list", found on page 33 of the Conference Program. The amendment was accepted by McKenzie. The priority considerations as well as the recommendations for considerations by local churches were then accepted by the Conference.

The 1990 Program Recommendations for District Consideration were then placed before the Conference and were accepted without opposition. The 1991 Program Recommendations for Annual Conference were then placed before us. They were accepted without discussion.

The 1991 Program Recommendation Referred to Other Agencies were then placed before and approved by the Conference, as were the 1991 Policy Recommendations.

Recommendation on CCOM Staff Tenure: McKenzie then called on Roger Elliott to present a recommendation from the CCOM. The recommendation would allow Paul Phillips to be considered to be reappointed as associate director of Camping Ministries, despite the fact that he had reached the limit of his staff tenure which is six years.

Point of Order: Milton Gilbert asked a question with regard to the various tenures granted to clergy and lay employees of the CCOM. Bishop Minnick deferred the point of order until the recommendation was dealt with.

Question: Floyd Evans raised a question as to whether the recommendation was for a one year suspension or for a further period of time. Elliott responded that the intention was for the suspension to last for the duration of the Capital Campaign for supporting Camping Ministries. He pointed out, however, that it will need to be reviewed annually.

The recommendation for the waiver of the limited tenure for Paul Phillips was unanimously accepted.

Point of Order: Milton Gilbert again rose to ask for a ruling on the legality of our limited tenure for clergy and no limited tenure for laity on the CCOM staff in light of a Judicial Council ruling on limited clergy tenure for the General Church Agency staff. The Bishop ruled that the Judicial Council ruling in question left the Annual Conference free to take whatever action it desires with regard to tenure. The Judicial Council ruling, to which Gilbert referred had to do only with General Conference boards and agencies. The Bishop then offered to submit the ruling he had just made to Judicial Council for review. Elliott then followed the Bishop's remarks by indicating that the CCOM Personnel Committee feels that a limit on clergy tenure in serving on the CCOM is unnecessary and eventually should be eliminated. The Bishop called for a vote on the entire CCOM report, which was accepted unanimously. (The reports of each of the Conference's agencies, see Section V of the Journal.)

Point of Personal Privilege: William Cummings asked permission to come to the platform to make a presentation. Cummings, on behalf of the Conference Board of Education, presented the Reverend Cliff Shoaf with a "gift," the nature of which was left unspecified, but which was apparently too heavy to bring into the auditorium! The presentation was greeted with both laughter and applause for the job that Shoaf has done.

Motion: Sam Brown moved "that the Annual Conference install pew racks on the back of the seats in Reeves Auditorium of Methodist College". The Bishop asked for Conference approval to refer the motion to Council on Finance and Administration to obtain estimate of cost. He made clear that after CF&A made their report about the cost, final action would then be taken on the motion.

Report of the Board of Managers, North Carolina Pastor's School: James E. Creech brought the report. Creech lauded the joint efforts of our Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference in promoting both Continuing Education and the development of collegiality through the Pastor's School. He offered several details on this Fall's Duke Convocation. (For further details of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Announcements: Secretary Coile made several announcements of interest.

Recess: The Bishop called a five minute recess to prepare for the 11:00 service.

Worship Service: A service of worship was held with Bishop Peter Storey of the Methodist Church in South Africa preaching and George Speake and Lisa Blackwell as liturgists. (For details of worship service, see A Service of Worship bulletin, Thursday Morning, June 14, 1990.)

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Thursday, June 14, 1990

Session Called to Order: At 1:25 p.m., Bishop Minnick called the Conference back into session for the business of the afternoon. He called for singing of hymn 144, This is Ours Father's World.

North Carolina Brother-Sisterhood: After an opening prayer, J. K. Bostick led in the business session of the Brother-Sisterhood. The operation of the Brother-Sisterhood was explained and the information about taking care of calls and responding to beneficiaries was presented. Both Bostick and Jerry Smith, secretary-treasurer of the organization, appealed for new members, both beneficiaries and non-beneficiaries. Smith thanked non-beneficiaries (lay people who contribute toward the fund even though they do not receive benefits from it) for their dedication to and love for the clergy members which is expressed through their contributions. (For further details of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Recess: In light of the fact that the next order of the day is to be at 2:00 p.m., Bishop Minnick called for a 10 minute recess until that time.

Session Called to Order: At 2:00 Bishop Minnick called the Conference back into session for the business of the afternoon. He called for the singing of hymn 310, He Lives.

Point of Personal Privilege: John Crowe rose for the point. Crowe introduced Bob Bridges, vice president for Academic Development at Asbury Theological Seminary, to bring words of greeting from the seminary community.

Report of the Board of Pensions: J. Donald Phillips rose to give the report. Phillips made several changes in the report, which are reflected in the report as it appears in the Journal. Report A of the Report of the Board of Pensions was moved for adoption, and was adopted. Report B was moved, and a question was raised about how the unfunded liability of 24 million dollars is to be funded. Phillips spoke of a variety of sources from which the unfunded liability would come. Report B was then adopted. Report C was then moved and approved. Report D was then moved, and several changes were made and/or pointed out. Report D was then adopted unanimously, followed by adoption of the full report. (For complete details of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Recommendations for Pastors' Total Years of Pension Credit: Kermit Braswell of the Conference Board of Pensions spoke to the report, which was given in handout form to the members. Substance of the report is an attempt to determine the number of years of service for which pension credit has been given to each clergy member of the Annual Conference. It was noted that those pastors whose names do not appear in the report either have provided the information requested, but still need to have their status cleared up as far as the full number of years, or have not yet provided the information. When the research is complete on each pastor, a further report will be made to the Conference by the Board of Pensions, which will include all pastors. In addition, each pastor will be informed when research has been completed on his or her record, informing them about the number of years for which they are to be credited. The report was then approved. (See full report included in Pensions Report in Section V of the Journal.)

Recognition of Retirees: The pastors who are retiring this year addressed the Conference. Each shared various humorous, heartfelt, and appreciative remarks. They spoke of their years of service to the Conference and of the dedication with which others had served them.

Report of the United Methodist Publishing House: Lou Braswell Jennings was asked by the Bishop to come to the podium to present the report of the Publishing House. Braswell told of two events of the previous year about which she was particularly excited, the introduction of the new United Methodist Hymnal, and the beginning of sales of the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. She presented Bishop Minnick with one of the new Revised Standard Version Bibles from the Cokesbury Store in Raleigh, as well as a check for $16,463.29 to be contributed to the Pension Fund of the Annual Conference, which the Bishop joyfully accepted on behalf of the Conference.

Recognition of Conference Treasurer's Staff: Conference Treasurer Herb Stout took the podium to introduce the support staff working in the Treasurer's Office in the United Methodist Building in Raleigh. First was the new assistant treasurer of the Conference, Sharon Strother. Others include Caroline Buckland, office manager; Alison Smith, administrative secretary; Kelley Farthing, bookkeeper; Meredith Henderson, accounts receivable; and Teresa Barber, the switchboard operator at the Methodist Building. All were recognized and received with a warm round of applause.

Greetings: Malloy Owen, chairman of the Conference Courtesies Committee, introduced the Reverend John Buckley, president of Educational Opportunities, who brought greetings to the Conference on behalf of his company. He spoke briefly about the opportunities which are available through his organization for continuing education abroad.

Motion: Gayla Estes moved "that the mandate from the 1988 General Conference on Prison Reform be referred to the Council on Ministries to be implemented by the Annual Conference - and the Council on Ministries report back to the Annual Conference on its progress". The 1988 resolution on prison ministry in question was referred to the Committee on Resolutions to be reported back at tomorrow's session.

Announcement: Hugh Cameron, Chairperson of the Conference Board Stewardship, announced a workshop to be held this fall on "stewardship in the local church". A brochure was distributed to the Conference on this workshop.

Report of the Duke Endowment: Al Fisher of the Duke Endowment brought the report. Fisher described the work of the Endowment as well as its goals, telling the Conference that in 1989, 26 churches in the NC Conference were recipients of grants totaling over $409,000. Fisher pointed out that because the Duke Endowment is restricted in its grant making to churches in communities of fewer than 1500 residents, the soon to be released 1990 census may push many communities up over that limit. He urged churches in communities which are presently under that limit to submit funding requests before the census comes out. (For full details of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Testimonial: Appointments Beyond the Local Church: Mark Wethington came to the pulpit to lead a testimonial on appointments beyond the local church. Wethington began by noting the General Conference's desire in changing the nomenclature of the appointments in question to "appointments beyond local church" to affirm the equal status and importance of all episcopal appointments within the connectional system. He introduced persons who gave one-minute testimonies about serving appointments beyond the local church, which included appointments in such diverse situations as the editorship of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, Duke Divinity School professors as well as the dean of the Divinity School, the president of Methodist College, and the other Methodist related institutions, military and hospital chaplaincies, pastoral counseling, campus ministries, etc. Wethington concluded the testimonial by asking that all those serving in appointments beyond the local church to stand. They received a warm round of applause for their work.

Report of the Insurance Committee: E. M. Thompson, Jr., came to the podium to present the report. Thompson stressed the Insurance Committee's commitment both to cost containment and to improved health care for members of the Conference. He then introduced Candy Holtsman, a medical care economist, who explained to the Conference what is causing rising health care costs and what can be done to contain them. She pointed out that the average charge per admission to a hospital has risen by over twice as much since 1981. There are several reasons for this, including the fact that most patients now admitted and cared for in hospitals are "sicker" than has been the case in the past years. The average hospitalization today, she said, now costs over $7400. She summarized the situation in which Blue Cross/Blue Shield finds itself by presenting a series of slides that showed per-capita payments for health care increasing from $550 in 1986 to $1,027 in 1990. She informed the Conference that the best way to decrease health care costs are, first, to be a smart consumer of health care services, and to be healthier, through such means as better diet, exercise, etc.

Thompson returned to the podium to explain and highlight several aspects of the report. He noted particularly the options before the Conference with regard to rates, which can only be held at the same level next year as they have been for this year by reducing benefits (e.g., increasing deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses).

Thompson put before the Conference the Group Term Life Insurance statement. This portion of the report was approved without discussion. Thompson then put before the Conference the question of 1991 health insurance rates. James Reed raised a question about the possibility of self insurance seeking rates in the market. Thompson replied that such exploration will be undertaken at the direction of the Annual Conference when the Conference so directs. Malloy Owen raised a possibility of cutting the life-time benefit for mental disorders, and asked what benefit would be accrued. Thompson replied that approximately a 6% decrease would be attained.

J. Malloy Owen moved cutting life-time maximum for mental and nervous disorders from $100,000 to $50,000.

John Jay Jansen rose and spoke in opposition to the Owen amendment. Jansen spoke from his family's personal experience in relating the need for the extra coverage. Sam Mc-Millan asked Thompson how many people within our Conference have gone beyond the $50,000 limit that the Owen amendment proposed. Herb Stout replied that the information was not available from the Conference computer data base. He did know of three specific cases. Bob Morgan asked what the best dollar for benefit package is. No answer from the podium was given. Tony Collier asked where the 6% percent reduction would take place. Thompson replied that it would be in the rates. Rodney Hamm spoke on behalf of the Pastoral Care Committee, and stated that his committee would be disappointed in a cut in this particular benefit. Rufus Butner asked a question about what would happen to individuals who exceeded the limit in the system. Herb Stout indicated that those who went over the $50,000 limit would no longer receive benefits. Butner asked about the availability of systems other than that found through insurance. Kermit Braswell expressed his opposition to the amendment by virtue of the fact that claims experienced in the future cannot be projected, meaning that we cannot know for certain whether the benefit will actually be needed or not.

Discussion being concluded, the vote was taken on the Owen amendment. The amendment was defeated.

Question: Eddie Jo Jarrett asked a question about a recommendation of hers that was passed by last year's Annual Conference seeking an option for a higher premium combined with a lower deductible. Thompson reported that the option she sought was not available in the market place. He explained the reason being the diversity of care available in the Eastern 56 counties of North Carolina. Paul Brewer indicated that while Thompson was correct that this policy was not possible this year, that such a policy may be possible next year.

Question: Floyd Evans asked what companies were contacted for the possibility of receiving competitive bids on our insurance. Paul Brewer replied that Guardian Life and several "third party administrators" were contacted.

Question: Larry Williamson, Lake Waccamaw UMC, asked if a fourth option under eligibility policies would be possible, allowing spouses to purchase individual coverage rather than being part of the family coverage. Herb Stout responded that this structure is pro-family rate structure, and other kinds of rates to date were either unnecessary or unfeasible.

Question: The question was raised about the possibility of dropping the minimum of 25 hours weekly found under Eligibility Policies III for lay employees to 20 hours weekly. Herb Stout replied that the intention was to cover full-time employees under the coverage.

Amendment: Howard Harrell of Wilmington moved to replace minimum of 25 hours weekly to 20 hours weekly.

Substitute Amendment: Joe Mann moved "that the Insurance Committee study changing 25 hours to 20 hours for lay participation". The motion was accepted for referral and Harrell accepted Mann's replacement amendment.

Question: James Evans asked about the possibility, which had been raised at last year's Annual Conference, of combining with the Western North Carolina Annual Conference to form a larger group. Herb Stout said that the Western Conference's benefits are not as good as ours, which would mean a change in benefits would be necessary. He also noted that ours is already a fairly large group as far as Blue Cross/Blue Shield is concerned. Finally, he noted that the General Board of Pensions is investigating the possibility of a church wide insurance plan which we would not want to hamper by changes in our own policy at this time.

Question: Bill Jeffries asked whether the committee had looked at the option of health-maintenance organizations (HMO's). Herb Stout replied that HMO's are not as attractive a possibility given the nature of health care in Eastern North Carolina.

Question: A.J. Eure asked whether we are not voting on two different plans which are found in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1990, under Blue Cross/Blue Shield Insurance. Thompson replied that we are voting on one plan and that the Insurance Committee has simply included for information the possibility of retaining and lowering benefits.

Sam McMillan pointed out that if we vote for the Insurance Committee's recommendations, rates will go up approximately $17 a month per church under the family plan.

Jerry Lowry moved that we go with the substitute plan to reduce the benefits of our health insurance plan. Thompson pointed out that with the substitution that Lowry suggests the rates would be kept the same if the benefits are reduced. John Jansen rose to speak, asking whether in fact the out of pocket expense would be reduced for families under the Lowry substitute. Thompson replied that it would.

Ross Wingo of White Plains in Cary spoke in favor of the Lowry substitute. Luther High spoke against the Lowry substitute, pointing out that the increase in premiums would only be about $300 a year, while the increase in deductibles would impose a hardship for pastors, especially those at the lower end of the salary scale. Sam Dixon pointed out that for those on minimum salary, their expenses even before benefits begin to accrue would be close to $2,000, or approximately 10% of their salary. The Bishop called for a vote on Lowry's substitute. The amendment was defeated.

Question: Quinton Covington asked whether the need for pre-admission medical review applied to the matter under discussion. Herb Stout replied that we are moving to a system of "managed care" and that the change will hopefully be reflected in either lower rates or savings in rate increases in the future.

The previous question was called, debate was stopped and a vote was taken on the Blue Cross/Blue Shield rates. The section of the report that was before the Conference was accepted.

Motion: James Evans from Mt. Gilead UMC moved that "the Insurance Committee contact five major Health Insurance Companies for bids on Major Health Insurance Programs for the NC Annual Conference. Results to be furnished to the Annual Conference in 1991 in writing to the membership of the Conference." The motion was passed.

Thompson moved the adoption of the section of the report entitled "Policy and Rules." It was adopted without discussion. He then moved the section entitled "Eligibility Policies," which was approved without dissent. The sections on health screening and committee membership were likewise moved and accepted by the Conference.

Following the Bishop's commendation of the Committee's work, the report as a whole was presented for adoption. It was adopted overwhelmingly. (For complete report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Return to Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Kermit Braswell came to bring the remainder of the Board's report. Those new members of the Annual Conference who have transferred into the Conference were recognized, including those who have transferred from other Methodist denominations.

Announcements: Secretary Coile made several announcements.

Adjournment: Conference adjourned until the 8:00 p.m. worship service.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION, Thursday, June 14, 1990

A worship service for UMCOR's 50th Anniversary Celebration, "Fifty years of Love in Action" was presented by the Board of Missions at 8:00 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium. Special music was provided by the UMCOR Chorus, Prospect United Methodist Church Children's Choir, and the Fayetteville Korean United Methodist Church Choir. Dr. Norma Kehrberg, Associate General Secretary for UMCOR was the speaker. (For complete synopsis of the entire service, see the worship bulletin, UMCOR 50th Anniversary Celebration, Fifty Years of Love in Action, June 14, 1990.)

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION, Friday, June 15, 1990

Holy Communion: The sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated in Hensdale Chapel at 7:30 a.m. under the leadership of the Reverend James A. Starnes.

Bible Study: Bishop Minnick continued his study of the Corinthian letters of St. Paul, following singing of the opening hymns and prayer.

Calling the Conference to Order: Bishop Minnick gavelled the Conference to order for the business of the day at 9:30 a.m.

Report of the Committee on Minutes: Stan Smith moved the approval of the minutes of yesterday's session. Approval was unanimously granted. He went on to laud the work of Evelyn Lane and Jennie Taylor in putting together the minutes of the Annual Conference. He asked the Conference to authorize the Committee on Minutes to approve the remainder of the minutes. The Conference approved his request.

Motion: Randall Baker moved that "tapes of Bishop Storey's sermons and other services be made available". The motion was adopted unanimously.

Report on Global Covenant Community: Mark W. Wethington brought the report. Wethington directed the Conference's attention to the report on page 115 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1990. He expressed the hope that the covenant declaration into which our Annual Conference has entered with the Methodist Church in Peru might serve as a model for pastors, lay persons, local churches, districts, and the Annual Conference as a whole for entering into similar covenants and relationships with the church in other parts of the world. He further emphasized the "world parish" to which we have been called to minister, especially among those seeking peace and justice in conditions of oppression, abuse, and war. The Conference endorsed the covenant unanimously. (For further details of the report, see section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Committee on Episcopacy: Ruth L. Cade was asked by Bishop Minnick to come to the podium to present the report. Cade wrote down the word "episcopacy," assigning a word to each letter (e.g., "every" for the E) by way of explaining both what the committee does and the nature of the committee's relationship to both the Annual Conference and the Bishop. She then did the same thing with the word "bishop" (e.g., "busy" for the B) by way of explaining who the Bishop is, something of his duties, and his relationship to both the Annual Conference and the general church. She expressed appreciation for Bishop and Mrs. Minnick's ministry within the Conference. (For the written report, see section V of the Journal.)

Return to Report of the Committee on Nominations: G. Robert McKenzie came to the podium to complete the report of the committee. McKenzie offered several more changes in the report. Bishop Minnick called for a vote on the report as a whole, and it was adopted unanimously.

Election of Chancellor: Bishop Minnick called on James Coile to offer the name of J. Phil Carlton as the chancellor of the NC Annual Conference. The Honorable Judge Carlton was elected unanimously. Quinton Covington asked what the duties of the chancellor are. Coile responded that he served as legal advisor to the Conference.

Report of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries: Ann Collins came to the podium to introduce Dr. Robert Pitzer for the purpose of explaining and leading the discussion on the articles of incorporation for the Asbury Homes, which are being incorporated by the Annual Conference for the purpose of serving persons with handicapping conditions.

Dr. Pitzer described the needs which the Asbury Homes are meant to try to serve - needs such as the provision of a spiritual climate, a loving environment, and a setting in which the full potentialities of persons with handicapping conditions can be developed. He described the work of the committee on the Asbury Homes which has taken place over the last four years, and the process of receiving information, education, etc., which led up to the proposal being made today. He described the nature of the homes, the vision upon which they are based, which would be as small residentially based homes consisting of no more than four to six residents as well as a house manager. He also described the process by which houses would be obtained for the homes, and mentioned the possibility that there were those sitting in the auditorium this morning who might have such a house that they would be willing to donate for this ministry. He said that the cost of operating one of the homes would be approximately $100,000 per year, plus $1400 to $1500 per resident per month (though at least some of the money to support each resident would come from sources such as supplemental security income.). He said that apportionment would not be asked of local churches to support the ministry, but rather that voluntary contributions, as well as contributions to the Advance Special program would be sought.

In describing the need for the homes, he said that in the Western NC Annual Conference several homes are already in operation through UMAR (United Methodist Agency for the Retarded), but that over 200 names are still on a waiting list for places in a facility such as he has described. He assured the Conference that, given the great responsibility involved in treating those with handicapping conditions, no homes would be developed or opened unless the financial resources were already in place. He concluded by asking for the Conference's approval to incorporate the Asbury Homes, Inc.

Question: Floyd Evans asked if there would be any age requirements for those in the homes. Pitzer replied that patients would need to be 18 years of age and older.

John Whited asked if $10,000 has been budgeted for 1991 to the Asbury Homes. Herb Stout replied that the answer was yes.

Question: The question was raised by Patricia Edwards about whether people would be served regardless of gender, and whether each home would be single sex or co-ed. Pitzer replied that both men and women would be served, and that both single sex and co-ed homes would be used. In reply to a further question, Pitzer also noted that the vision was eventually to serve those with both mental and physical handicaps, but that the current focus was on mental handicaps.

Question: John Harwood raised a question about the reception of Federal dollars for a church related institution. Pitzer replied that the church-state separation question would not be a problem because we would not be receiving a grant from the government, but rather would be providing a service which the government would purchase.

Question: Wendall Guthrie asked whether there are any limitations on the severity of the handicap which could be served in the homes. Pitzer replied that the initial target would be moderate to mild retardation, but eventually those with severe and profound handicaps would also be served.

James Evans of Mt. Gilead, a rest home operator, brought to light certain facts about the way indigent health care is financed in North Carolina. He also spoke against the proposal. A member from Burlington District asked if United Methodists would be given preference in the admissions process. Pitzer indicated that Methodists would be given some preference, but not exclusive preference.

Question: Bob Harris asked whether the $10,000 start up money was per home or per year and whether it would be a continuing appropriation. Pitzer replied that it would be per year, and that no projections have been made beyond the first year.

Ann Collins came to the podium to make a number of typographical and other minor changes. (For the corrected report, see section V of the Journal.)

Question: Van Haywood of Orange UMC in Chapel Hill asked whether it was possible to insure that employees were Christians if Federal funds were accepted. Ann Collins expressed confidence in the Board of Trustees that Christians would be employed to serve the homes. Riley Hamilton suggested that the per case cost was excessive. Pitzer noted that the cost is high but is such because the attempt is to provide "normalization," and a loving environment, rather than a strictly institutional one, for those who are served.

Eric Lindblade rose to speak against the proposal, noting cost as the primary reason for his opposition. Ernie Wendell spoke in favor of the proposal, basing his support on the Christian responsibility to seek out need and to serve it. Hugh Cameron expressed concern about the long term liability that the homes would incur for the Conference. Pitzer replied that long term liability should not be a problem, because the State of North Carolina has an indemnification fund insuring non-profit organizations in liability situations.

Bishop Minnick halted discussion, deferring the vote and the continued discussion until the afternoon session.

Recognition of Clergy Partners Association: Bishop Minnick asked the members of the Clergy Partners Association to stand and be recognized, which they were with a warm round of applause.

Announcements: Secretary Coile made announcements.

Recess: The Conference stood in recess until the 11:00 a.m. Memorial Service.

Memorial Service: The Memorial Service was held at 11:00 a.m. in Reeves Auditorium with Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presiding, and the Rev. Jimmy F. Cummings preaching. (See synopsis of the entire service and memorials of the honored deceased in section IV of the Journal.)

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Friday, June 15, 1990

Calling the Conference to Order: The Bishop called for singing of hymn 474, Precious Lord, Take My Hand. He then asked for requests from the congregation. No. 593, Here I Am Lord, was suggested and sung.

Continuation of Report of Board of Health and Welfare Ministries: Sam Brown spoke against the proposed establishment of the Homes and reminded the Conference about the deficits of the various retirement homes, and the financial obligation which that places upon the Conference. Stan Smith spoke in favor of the proposal, reminding the Conference that the previous two days preaching had urged the church to be a caring and compassionate community. John Whitehead, opposing the proposal, emphasized the extra burden placed upon small churches by a financial outlay such as that proposed. Vassar Jones, one of those who helped in development of the proposal, spoke in favor of it and expressed confidence that money is present in the Conference.

Kendall Guthrie rose to move to table the proposal. His motion was defeated.

John Andrews spoke in favor of the proposal, citing his personal experience of raising a mentally handicapped child, and his hope that his child will someday be able to enter the kind of group home represented by the Asbury Homes.

Ed Privette offered an amendment that the denominational relationship shall not include, at this time, any financial responsibility upon the North Carolina Conference. Privette then spoke to his motion, indicating his support for the concept, but saying that his desire is to deal with the financial concern that has been expressed by members, and to avoid placing any more burden on an already over-burdened Conference budget. Keith Letchworth of Avent Ferry in Raleigh opposed Privette's amendment as he had worked with group homes of the sort that have been proposed, and said that start up money of the type proposed in this year's budget was necessary at some point, regardless of where it comes from. He also noted that government funds are not available for start-up purposes. There being no further discussion, the amendment was voted upon, and defeated.

Charles M. Smith moved the previous question. The previous question was called.

Motion: A motion to "table the proposal for clarification of an inconsistency in Par. 25.01" in the matter of amending the by-laws was made by Rene Bideaux. The motion was passed. The proposal to incorporate the Asbury Homes was tabled until later in the Conference.

Recognition: The present and newly elected chancellors of the North Carolina Annual Conference, Marshall B. Hartsfield and J. Phil Carlton, were recognized. The Bishop presented Hartsfield to the Conference, and he was welcomed with a warm round of applause upon the presentation of the plaque commemorating his eleven years of service to the Annual Conference. Judge Carlton was similarly greeted with a round of applause.

Report of the Methodist Retirement Home: Mokie Stancil brought the report. He offered brief details about the work of the retirement homes across the Conference, and progress of various kinds which have been made, particularly at Wesley Pines and Cypress Glen. He also explained some aspects of the functioning of the homes, and particularly the financial arrangement which can be made by those wishing to enter the home. (For full report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Greetings: President Bill Likens of Greensboro College brought greetings from the college community and his office to the Annual Conference.

Amendment: Returning to the Asbury Homes, Ann Collins, by way of clarifying the by-law amendment issue, brought the following amendment to the report: add "with the approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference". This amendment was accepted into the report as a friendly amendment without vote.

A final vote on the proposal was taken, and the proposal was approved overwhelmingly.

Report of the Methodist Foundation: Thomas E. Chandler was invited to the podium by Bishop Minnick to deliver the report. Chandler noted that this year marks the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Foundation. He also stated that our Annual Conference ranked third among all annual conferences in the value of its assets held through the Methodist Foundation. With pride, he told the Conference that for the first time, dividends distributed from Foundation funds totaled over 2 million dollars.

The Charter restatement and amendment found on pages 67-71 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1990, was placed before the Conference. It was approved unanimously. (For full report of the Foundation, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report No 2 of the Committee on Resolutions: Gwen Henderson came to the podium to present the report.

Resolution on Child Pornography: The resolution on child pornography was placed before the Conference.

Amendment: Quinton Covington offered the following amendment: Add: "Be it further resolved: that each UM in the NC Conference identify those businesses which sell such pornographic materials. After identifying these businesses, take the following actions: 1) Write letters of objection to owners of such businesses of both the display and sale of such material, 2) Boycott such businesses until pornographic material is removed from stores, 3) Ask the city council of our local municipalities to pass ordinances which will prohibit the operation of adult book stores, and 4) Write to our representatives in State government to pass laws with enough bite to discourage adult book stores from operating in the State of NC. Be it further resolved that this program be included as a permanent priority of the Board of Church and Society of the NC Annual Conference and included in the Book of Recommendations of each Annual Conference." The amendment was approved.

The resolution was then overwhelmingly adopted.

Resolution on the Lottery: The resolution on the lottery was placed before the Conference. The resolution was approved.

Resolution on Evangelism: The resolution on evangelism was recommended for referral to the Conference Board of Evangelism. Mark Kennedy, the author of the resolution, rose to speak to the resolution, in order to clarify questions raised by the Committee on Resolutions. He stated that the intention of the resolution was that we become intentional in our evangelism of those outside the local church, that we may bring to them the Good News of Jesus Christ and the opportunity for discipleship. The recommendation to refer the resolution was rejected.

Stan Smith offered an amendment in rewording. The amendment was rejected.

Sam McMillan offered an amendment in rewording. His amendment was rejected.

The resolution then was overwhelmingly adopted.

Resolution on Wesley Foundation: The resolution regarding the Wesley Foundation of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro was placed before the Conference. The resolution was adopted.

Gwen Henderson thanked the Annual Conference for its work on these resolutions.

Gayla Estes asked about the 1988 General Conference's mandate on Prison Reforms, a document distributed earlier and referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Motion: Estes repeated her motion "that we refer the document on Prison Reforms to the CCOM for implementation and to report back to the next Annual Conference on the progress." The motion was adopted.

Motion: Milton Gilbert moved the following: "In reference to Section II, Article IV, Par. 14, of the Constitution of The United Methodist Church, which, in specifying the authority of the General Conference, states: '14. To secure the rights and privileges of membership in all agencies, programs, and institutions, in The United Methodist Church regardless of race or status,' We ask for a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council concerning the following question: Can an Annual Conference in organizing its Conference Council of Ministries enact legislation establishing a limited tenure for clergy employed as Conference Council on Ministries staff and an unlimited tenure for laypersons employed as Conference Council on Ministries staff." The motion was adopted unanimously.

Report of the North Carolina Conference Rural Fellowship: Randy L. Wall brought the report of the Fellowship. Wall noted that this year is the 50th anniversary of the founding of the United Methodist Rural Fellowship. He described the Fellowship as an organization dedicated to giving a voice to the concerns, problems, and ministry of small churches. He described the wide variety of activities in which the fellowship is engaged, both over the years, and within the past year. Wall also offered details concerning this Fall's Bishop's Convocation on the Small Membership Church.

Key Taylor Town and County Mission Award: Charles M. Cooke and Tommy Privette presented the award. The award goes to a small membership church, dedicated to local and foreign missions. Following a description of the outstanding ministry of the local church receiving the award, it was presented to the Reverend Ron Snider and members of his charge, Warren's Grove United Methodist Church in Person County.

Report of the Committee on Conference Entertainment: Larry Robinson came to the podium to present the report. To much laughter, Robinson asked members of the Committee to stand, and was greeted with laughter when it was noted by the Bishop that none of them appeared to be present!

Recommendation no. 1 to meet at Methodist College in 1991 was placed before the Conference. Quinton Covington asked about whether a stage would be built. The Bishop replied that investigation would be undertaken before making a decision about the possible use of Riddle Center at Methodist College in 1991. The recommendation was accepted by the Conference.

Recommendation 2 to require local churches to pay cost for its lay and clergy members was then placed before the Conference. Bill Spencer spoke against it.

Rufus Carraway offered an amendment that all delegates take a weeks vacation for Annual Conference and pay their own way. He then spoke to his amendment. This was rejected. Randall Baker asked about food services here at the Conference.

Jack Harmon of First UMC in Havelock pointed out that the cost per member of Annual Conference is $46, and his church could not afford to send him by itself. Recommendation 2 was then voted upon, and rejected overwhelmingly.

Recommendation 3, following the prior vote, was not presented to the Conference. The report of the Committee was then approved as a whole. (For the complete and approved text of the Committee on Conference Entertainment, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Committee to Study Lay/Clergy Equalization: J. Malloy Owen III came to the podium to present the Committee's report. Owen explained the rationale for the Committee's work - to put together all of the rules of the Discipline and Conference proceedings designating who shall be a voting member of the Annual Conference. Drawing analogy with the compromise which resulted in the of two Houses of Congress, Owen explained the dilemma of representing each church at the same time that steps toward proportional representation in membership are taken. He then introduced the report.

Steve Hickle offered an amendment concerning selection of additional needed lay members. Hickle then spoke in favor of his amendment. The amendment was overwhelmingly rejected.

Amendment: J. B. Helms offered the following amendment: "Delete first sentence in K and delete all of L. The second K would replace the first sentence of old K." Helms then spoke to the amendment. Helms' amendment was clarified from the floor as simply deleting L as proposed by the Committee, as well as eliminating the first sentence of the old item K of the Committees 1989 report.

Mark Wethington spoke in favor of the Helms amendment. Mark Kennedy spoke against the Helms amendment, pointing out that the bulk of the membership of the Conference is found in large rather than small churches, and the amendment would have the effect of over balancing power in the direction of small churches with fewer members representing fewer people. Frances Daniel spoke in favor of the amendment, noting that members of Annual Conference represent churches, rather than individual people.

Motion: G. Robert McKenzie called for the previous question on the amendment. The previous question was called. Discussion being ended, Owen was allowed a final word on the recommendation of the Committee. The amendment was adopted.

The Report as amended was then before the Conference.

Motion: Gwen Henderson moved to table the report. The motion to table was accepted by a large majority of the Conference.

Report of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry: James E. Vann placed the report before the Conference, it was accepted overwhelmingly. (For further details of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Proposed Amendment on the North Carolina State Commission on Campus Ministry By-Laws: Joe Mann brought the report before the Conference. It was accepted unanimously. (For the amendment, see Section V of the Journal.)

Nominations: James E. Vann presented the nominations for camps, campus ministry, and other trustee positions. The report as corrected from the podium was accepted by the Conference. (For the full list of nominations, see Section V of the Journal.)

Scholarship Presentations: Tom Melvin, chairperson of the Scholarship Committee of the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, came to the podium to make scholarship presentations. Two Student Day Offering Scholarships were presented to Regina Lynn Burger of Louisburg College and David Lynch of Louisburg College, each in the amount of $500; the Blackburn Scholarship ($5,000 over four years), given to Jonathan Daniel Royall of Methodist College; and Gregg Allen Presnal, of North Carolina Wesleyan College.

Introductions: CCOM Executive Director G. Robert McKenzie introduced Sarah Brock, Linda Harris, Tijuana Jackson, Diana Hunter, Sandy Provenzano, Linda Smith, and Sandy Smith from the CCOM staff, who were greeted with a warm round of applause.

David Harvin attempted to move that the rules be suspended to allow for immediate consideration of the Council on Finance and Administration report. The motion was overwhelmingly defeated.

Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries: Charles K. Morrison brought the report before the Conference. Morrison explained the mechanism by which the figures found on the salary schedule in the report were determined. The report was passed without dissent. (For the text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Point of Order: Maness Mitchell stated, "Mr. President: I rise to a point of order pertaining to the report of the Equitable Salaries Commission in the 1989 Conference Journal, pages 196-197. I did not withdraw my motion after the explanation given by Mr. Warren and Mr. McKenzie, as reported in the last two lines of page 196. It was withdrawn after Mr. Sam McMillan, Jr. rose to a point of information as recorded at the top of page 197. Mr. McMillan did not make a clarification; rather, he made a correction to Part 2, Item 6, noting that some words had been left out. This correction is recorded in the 1989 Conference Journal, page 319, report of Equitable Salaries Commission, Part 2, Item 6. It is also reflected in this year's report as printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, page 91, Part 2, Item 6, which reads as follows: '6. Missional goals of the Church MAY NECESSITATE EQUITABLE SALARY SUPPORT for some churches for a longer period of time; however, it is hoped that all churches will fervently seek to comply with the guidelines stated above."

The Bishop asked the Conference if it would accept the changes in the Journal record suggested by Mitchell. The Conference was amenable to those changes. They will appear in the report as it appears in the 1990 Journal.

Report of the Pastoral Care Committee: Rodney G. Hamm came to the podium to give the report. Hamm pointed out several minor corrections which needed to be made in the report in order to bring it into line with the brochure published by the Pastoral Care Committee. He then moved the report for Conference consideration. It was adopted overwhelmingly. (For full text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Joint Committee on Disability: Kermit Braswell came to the podium to offer the report. One minor correction was made on the report. It was adopted without debate. (For the full report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Minister's Expense Committee: Charles K. Morrison returned to the podium to give the report to the Conference. Morrison moved the adoption of the report in its entirety after brief remarks. The report was adopted. (See Section V of the Journal for text of the report.)

Presentation of Charters to New Congregations: Tom Collins came to the podium, and invited the Reverend Camille Yorkey Edwards and the members of the Seaside UMC present at Annual Conference to come to the stage to receive the Charter for their new church, founded in July of 1989. The Charter presentation was greeted with enthusiastic applause from the Annual Conference. Collins then invited the Reverend Eul Lark Kim and members of his Raleigh Korean UMC to come to the stage to be introduced to the Conference. Collins told the audience that July 22, 1990 would see the chartering of Raleigh Korean as a United Methodist Congregation.

Wakefield Gift: Collins then introduced Mr. & Mrs. Edward Wilson, executors of the estate of Olaf Wakefield, to present to the Conference, gifts from her estate of 16.1 acres of land in North Raleigh and checks totaling $450,000, to be used for the construction of a new church in that city. The gifts and the Wilsons were greeted with extended ovation for their contributions to the new churches of the Conference.

Report of the Committee on District Conference Records: Susan C. Lindblade offered the report of the Committee. It was accepted without dissent.

Presentation of Conference Construction Coordinator: David E. Brownlee came to the podium in order to offer a slide presentation and present the new Conference construction coordinator. He explained the process by which the Board of Missions decided to hire a coordinator, and the process by which the coordinator was chosen. The coordinator is Gary Smith, a member of First United Methodist Church in Cary, as well as a general contractor and experienced builder. Brownlee then had Smith come to the microphone so that he could narrate the slide presentation, and in the process explain some of the work which is being done at Jerusalem United Methodist Church.

Introduction of New Camp Directors: H. Gray Southern introduced Dennis Tawney, the new Director of Camp Rockfish, and Bill Howington, the new Director of Camp Chestnut Ridge. They were greeted with warm applause by the Conference.

Report of the Continuation Committee of the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign: The report was brought to the Conference by Beth M. Norris. Norris listed a number of the churches newly founded to which grants have been made from the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign Funds. She stated that over $400,000 has been spent to date on new churches. She also listed several improvements which have been made or are in process at the Conference camps. She also mentioned future plans which are on the drawing board at the camps. She lauded the effort of the Conference both in its initial decision to undertake the campaign and those who are taking part with their contributions.

She invited to the stage representatives of the following churches, which have already paid 100 to 125% of their assigned goals: Bethel UMC, Burlington District; Resurrection UMC, Durham District; Mount Zion UMC, Elizabeth City District; Woodington UMC and Webb Chapel UMC, in the Greenville District; Calvary UMC, Raleigh's District; Roseland UMC, Sanford District; Genesis UMC, Raleigh District; West Robeson UMC, Rockingham District; Seaside UMC, Wilmington District; Evans UMC, Elizabeth City District; and Korean UMC, Fayetteville District.

Composite Report of the Conference Council on Ministries: G. Robert McKenzie presented the composite report. McKenzie began by introducing Clyde Dunn, Cliff Shoaf, and Albert Shuler, who are leaving the Conference Council on Ministries Staff (Shuler moving to the Durham District Superintendency, Dunn to Trinity Church in Jacksonville, and Shoaf retiring.) An appreciative round of applause was offered by the Conference for their service on the CCOM. By way of "putting faces" on our giving to the work of the Conference Council on Ministries, each of the three associate directors of the council came to the podium to offer brief descriptions and testimonies to the work which they do in each of their specialized areas.

Clyde Dunn related the story of a prisoner whom he has frequently visited, who has been helped by Yoke Fellow Ministries, which is in turn supported by our Annual Conference. Cliff Shoaf described the founding of a new and growing and vital youth group in the New Bern District which stemmed from the work of Mike Register, serving as a teacher of United Methodist Men in January Workshops. Albert Shuler told the story of the young man, seeking to enter the ministry, who was assisted in his education by the Conference. McKenzie concluded by reading a letter from Mrs. Herman Jessup from Elizabeth City, which had been included with a $10 Club contribution in response to the recent call to assist a Methodist Church in Yugoslavia.

Testimonial: The Vitalization Program: The Bishop invited Stephen C. Compton to come forward to bring the testimonial. Compton stated that the program has been blessed in its ability to increase the number of consultants used from the original projected fifteen to a total of 20, plus 2 alternates. He stated also that three of the consultants are lay people, and the rest clergy members of the Annual Conference. He described the purpose as well as the scope of the program, mentioning specifically the goal of involving 195 churches in the task of clarifying missional objectives and goals, and helping them to implement them. Compton said that a total of 81 churches have been selected and involved in the program in its first year. He also described the continuing education objectives and plan of the Mentors Program, which is involving two pastors per district in monthly meetings to learn the "12 keys" method of long range planning. Compton then invited pastors of several churches which are involved in the program to come and to bring testimonials to the effect that the program has had in their churches. Compton concluded the testimonial by asking all who have been involved in the program in any way to stand and be recognized as participants, following with the presentation of a T-shirt to Bishop Minnick to honor him for his role in getting the Vitalization Program off the ground.

Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: Myron C. Banks was asked by Bishop Minnick to come forward to present the report of the board. Banks offered details about the work of the Conference Board of Trustees over the previous year, particularly with regard to its responsibilities for property management of Conference staff parsonages in Raleigh, as well as involvement in the sale of church properties throughout the area Conference. (The report was approved by voice vote.)

Bishop Minnick then went to the podium to present him with a plaque expressing the Conference's appreciation for his services as chairperson for the Board of Trustees. The assembled members seconded the appreciation with applause.

Point of Personal Privilege: Elizabeth Watson was recognized to give credit to Rick Clayton, director of the previous night's program, and Mark Pace, music director for last night's program, for the excellent work which they did on the program. She also offered commendations to Clyde Dunn, associate director of Conference Council on Ministries who has missions as the major part of his portfolio, for the work which he has done over the last six years with the Board of Missions. Mrs. Watson also sought to "put a face on missions" by introducing Alison Hyman of Raleigh, an intern in Missions in Liberia. Finally, she introduced Herbert Zigbuo, General Board of Global Ministries missionary to Liberia, and director of the Ganta Mission Station there.

Zigbuo and his children (his wife Mary is in Indiana with the North Indiana Annual Conference) were asked by Bishop Minnick to come to the stage, where Zigbuo offered words of greetings, appreciation, and celebration for the support of the Annual Conference of his ministry. Zigbuo and his family were accorded a standing ovation on behalf of their efforts in Liberia.

Bishop Minnick then asked for the pleasure of the Conference in setting the agenda. It was decided that the report of the Council on Finance and Administration would be postponed until tomorrow morning.

Adjournment: The Bishop adjourned the Conference until Saturday morning for the conduct of the remaining business.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION, Friday, June 15, 1990

At 8:00 p.m. the Conference was convened in Reeves Auditorium for worship with Bishop Peter Storey preaching. Special music was rendered by the North Carolina Conference Mass Choir, directed by James Powers, Highland UMC. (For a synopsis of the entire service, see worship bulletin, A Service of Worship, June 15, 1990.)

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION, Saturday, June 16, 1990

The Love Feast: The Reverend Richard Blankenhorn led in the Love Feast, preaching the Word of God and leading the assembled members of the Conference in praise, prayer, singing, and testimonies to the work of the Lord in their lives, the lives of their churches, and the life of the Annual Conference. The traditional bread and water were distributed, the Spirit of The Lord was much in evidence, as is always the case at our Annual Conference Love Feast.

Recess: A recess was called in order to prepare for the business session to come.

Call to Order: Bishop Minnick called the Annual Conference to order at 9:35 a.m..

Return to Report of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration: Cashar Evans came to present the report of CF&A. Conference Treasurer Herb Stout began by walking the Conference through the process by which the budget is developed and adopted by CF&A. He also explained a handout which detailed funds requested in 1987, raised in 1988, and spent in 1989. He offered this sheet in response to the Barton Baldwin information request motion made on Wednesday.

Question: Quinton Covington rose to ask a question about the 1989 remaining balance of $288,126.

Covington moved to take $10,000 of the $288,126 reflected in the 1989 remaining balance and be paid to the Asbury Homes and the $10,000 removed from the line item reported in the budget. Covington explained that the object was to remove the $10,000 in question from the area of apportionments and take it from left-over funds. Herb Stout spoke against the amendment, basing his opposition on the nature of the budgeting process that we use. He noted that the $10,000 in question would not make a significant impact on apportions, and that since that is the case, it is important to maintain the integrity of the budgeting process. Roger Cope spoke against the Covington amendment, pointing out the minimum impact that the apportionment would have on small churches. The amendment was then voted upon, and defeated.

Evans returned to the podium and began by adding Spring UMC (on the Spring-Garysburg Charge) to the list of churches which paid 100% of their Outreach Ministries apportionment for 1989. He then directed the Conference's attention to page 78 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1990, and made a correction on line 30 of the budget, substituting $683,900 for $703,098 in the District Superintendent's Salary Fund. (For full impact of this change on other lines of the budget, see the CF&A Report in Section V of the Journal.) He went on to note that the 3.67% increase in the Conference budget for 1992 is the smallest increase in recent Conference history. He noted that because of changes in accounting procedures, certain line items have gone up significantly (e.g., the Board of Education and the Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries), while actual expenses have not gone up.

Addressing the third largest item in the budget, he pointed out that the increase in District Superintendent's salaries is 5.53%, as compared with an average Conference increase of 5.95%. He also explained the reason for the 227.27% increase in Methodist Building maintenance, saying it represented the actual cost of maintaining the Conference portion of the Methodist Building.

Evans concluded by noting that through the apportionments and the work of the Annual Conference which it supports, work is possible in the name of Christ which would be impossible if undertaken by individual churches. He then moved the adoption of the report as a whole.

John Whited of Hebron UMC attempted an amendment concerning line 15 on page 80, II-b, which was defeated.

Question: Vernon Brown raised a question about the adequacies of Equitable Salary Funds. Charles K. Morrison, Equitable Salaries Commission chairperson, assured the Conference that adequate funds are available to carry out the work of the commission.

Question: Maness Mitchell asked how much money CFEA has available to make supplementary appropriations. Cashar Evans responded that for this year, $792,000 were available for supplementary appropriations. The Bishop added that the figure changes from year to year because of the nature of the investments which the Conference makes of the funds which it receives each year.

Question: Norma Wingo raised a question about Methodist Building maintenance. Herb Stout pointed out that rentals of the portion of the building unused by the Conference will cover maintenance only if there are no large maintenance items to deal with. Other items (e.g., large repairs such as air conditioner renovation) must come from appropriation of the Conference budget.

George Megill urged better stewardship upon members of the Conference, and the local churches, in order that the Conference budget can be met. He explained that he was "in culture shock," having recently returned from Brazil as a missionary, and being amazed at how little members of the North Carolina Annual Conference give as to portions of their salary compared to the poor of Brazil.

Bill Cottingham expressed concern that the Seminary Visitation Fund is not being utilized and seminarians therefore are not being seen by their district superintendents.

The previous question on all that was before us was called. The previous question being passed, debate was ended. The vote on the CFEA Report was then taken, and it was approved overwhelmingly.

Motion: Dennis Goodwin moved that the future budgets to be presented to members at the Annual Conference include all estimated revenue (including interest earnings) and all estimated expenses (including supplemental appropriations). He explained that his purpose was to include ALL revenue as expenses for the approval of the Conference.

Herb Stout spoke in opposition to the motion. He stated that it would remove the flexibility the Conference has in both raising and spending its resources. Rufus Butner stated his belief that the motion was only asking for information, thus his support of it.

Sam Dixon spoke against the motion. He pointed particularly to the work of the Disaster Preparedness Committee and said that such rapid response to natural disasters was possible only because of the system currently in place. Mark Lykins asked whether in fact only information was requested. Dixon stated that the information requested is available in the Journal, in the Annual Audit Column and through other sources. Stout pointed out that the motion actually would mandate that only the Annual Conference itself could make supplemental appropriations. Kermit Braswell spoke against the motion, seconding the remarks of Stout and Dixon.

Substitute Motion: Kermit Braswell moved to substitute the following for the Goodwin amendment: "that the reference pages from the previous year's budget for supplementary appropriations and income for this purpose be printed on the page of the budget in the Book of Reports."

Motion: Robert Frazier moved that both the Braswell substitute and the Goodwin amendment be referred to the Conference Council on Ministries to report to the 1991 Annual Conference on both the positive and negative implications of both proposals. Herb Stout spoke against the motion to refer. Reginald Ponder raised a question about the meaning of the Goodwin amendment. Clyde Dunn spoke in favor of the motion to refer. William Simpson spoke against the motion to refer, citing disciplinary questions that can be raised about referring a financial matter to the Conference Council on Ministries.

Largill Watson called the previous question on the motion to refer. The motion failed.

Denny Wise stated his belief that "the motion to refer's purpose was to prevent the fox from guarding the hen house." Ernie Wendell spoke against the motion to refer, and in favor of Braswell's substitute.

The motion to refer was voted upon, and was rejected. The vote was then taken on the Braswell substitute, which was passed. The Braswell substitute, having taken the place of Goodwin's amendment, was then voted upon as the main motion, and was passed overwhelmingly.

Motion: Al Fisher moved "as of January 1, 1992 that the statement in the letter of management of McGladrey and Pullen, the North (Carolina) Annual Conference Auditors, noting that the work of the Conference Treasurer and the work of computer services should be separated, be implemented. I further move that CFA include in the 1992 budget sufficient funding for this program." Fisher then spoke in favor of his amendment.

Cashar Evans stated that the cost of implementing the Fisher motion would be over $50,000. Sam Dixon spoke in favor of the motion, even as he stated that he has full confidence in the employees of the treasurer's office. He also stated his belief that the cost of implementing the motion would be closer to $150,000, but believed it to be a prudent and necessary expense. William Simpson, chairperson of the Data Processing Committee of the CFA, echoed Dixon's remarks, doing so from the standpoint of opposing the amendment on the basis of cost. Charles M. Smith spoke in favor of the motion, stating that "without casting aspersion on the integrity of the treasurer's office, it is necessary that we have more checks and balances than are presently in place". He also stated that one of the auditors of our accounts believes that the cost would be $75,000 for two people to do the work in question.

Jimmy Cummings moved the previous question. The motion passed. The Fisher motion was read to the Conference again. A vote was taken and the motion was approved.

Report of the General Council on Ministries: Robby Lowry brought the report. (For the text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the SEJ Administrative Council: Dr. Reginald W. Ponder brought the report. He stated with pride that 1989 saw the largest number of participants in SEJ programs in the 1980s. He also told the Conference that, unlike some past years, the SEJ program agency is now on completely sound financial footing. (For the full report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Hymn: Bishop Minnick called on Caswell Shaw to come forward and lead the congregation in the singing of hymn 469, Jesus Is All the World to Me.

Camping Trustee Elections: H. Gray Southern moved the election of nominations for trustees of our Conference camps found on pages 54 and 55 of The Conference Program. The vote was to accept the nominations.

Election of Trustees of the Methodist Children's Home and Methodist Retirement Homes: Anne Collins moved the election for trustees found on page 67 of The Conference Program. The nominations were accepted by the Conference.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Wallace H. Kirby brought the report on behalf of Kimsey King. The report was moved and adopted by the Conference. (For the text of the report see Section VI of the Journal.) Bishop Minnick ordered that greetings and best wishes be sent on behalf of the Conference to Brother King.

Report of the Task Force on Systemic Poverty: William L. Bingham brought the report and the slide presentation which helped inform the Conference on the work of the task force and its findings. Bingham began his report by quoting the words of the prophet Isaiah, found in the sixty-first chapter of his book, and declared that the love which we have for the least of Christ's brethren must be put into action to be real. He told the Conference that over one million of fellow North Carolinians live in poverty, including twenty-five percent of the State's children. He proceeded with a wide variety of statistics, proving the case that poverty is indeed tremendously widespread in our midst, especially in the rural parts of our State. He stated that the Task Force on Systemic Poverty stands ready to assist local churches in dealing with both the individual victims of poverty and the systemic causes of poverty found in their local communities. He concluded by citing the example of the early church found in the second chapter of Acts, for dealing with the poor and the needful in our midst. By overwhelming vote the report of the task force was gratefully received by the Conference. For the written text submitted by the task force, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report on Legislative Committees: Dr. Robert C. Frazier brought the report. The question dealt with by the report was whether to adopt the "legislative committee" structure used by the General Conference for dealing with a variety of issues that come before the Conference. He described the system in place in the Western North Carolina Conference, which was reviewed as a possible model for action by our Conference. After observing the work of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference system, this committee made the following observations:

1. Only about sixty percent of the committee members took part in the committee sessions.
2. Leadership was of varying qualities from committee to committee.
3. Expertise to answer questions raised in committees was not always available.
4. There were participants in discussion in committee who may not have addressed the full, plenary session of the annual conference.
5. Approximately the same ratio of clergy to lay participants in the debates were to be found within their committees within our plenary sessions.
6. People were sometimes assigned committees which were not their first choice or interest, thus limiting both their participation and input into the decisions of the conference.
7. Some of the committees dealt with issues which seemed to be of trivial concern, and of little interest to the committee participants.
8. A wide diversity of opinion was found among members of the Western Conference about whether the committee system is one which they wish to continue, and whether it is properly serving the needs of the conference.

Frazier indicated that his committee's report would recommend that the legislative committee system not be implemented by our Conference. Their positive recommendation was that the full advantages of the system we currently use be utilized to further the work of the Conference. The Bishop asked the Conference to support the action of the committee. The action of the committee and its recommendation were supported overwhelmingly.

Report of The Methodist Home for Children: Jim Hickey brought the report. He described what he called "a remarkable program of services" which the Methodist Home has been able to render to the Conference over the last seven years, as the outreach and scope of the ministry of the Methodist Home for Children has expanded to now include eight separate locations for its work. He spoke of the future challenge of growing numbers of children in need of the care and services which are offered by institutions such as the Methodist Home, and the burden which the administrators, staff, and trustees of the Methodist Home feel for continuing to expand the reach of the Home's work. He indicated that in 1991, the leadership of the Methodist Home will bring to the Annual Conference a strategic long-range plan for the provision of future services into the twenty-first century by the Home. He concluded by introducing Lynn James, who has come on the staff to assist in the development of this strategic campaign.

Return to Report of Board of Ordained Ministry: Woodrow W. Wells presented a correction to the report given to the opening session of the Conference. (For the changes, see the report found in Section III of the Journal.)

Motion: Bill Simpson moved "reconsideration of the budget and the Report of CF&A". The motion was adopted.

Motion: Bill Simpson moved "that the report of CF&A and the budget on Pages 78-79 be amended as follows: that a separate line item be added under 'Connectional Administration' entitled 'Data Processing Services' and the amount be set at $50,000." The motion was adopted without dissent.

Presentation: Kermit Braswell presented a plaque of appreciation to Charles K. Morrison, chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Salary, for the work which he has done with that commission for the past eight years. The presentation was greeted with an appreciative round of applause.

Nominations: G. Robert McKenzie placed before the Conference several nominations. Those of the district lay leaders, the various committees on district superintendency, and the district boards of trustees. All of these nominations were accepted with two changes as noted in the report which is found in the Journal.

Announcement: Sam McMillan invited members of the Annual Conference to join him on the Holy Land trip taking place in February of 1991.

Announcement: Bishop Minnick announced to the Conference that he will be taking renewal leave from July 12, 1990 through September 20, 1990. He also announced to applause that Bishop Joseph Bethea will take his place as temporary presiding bishop during the time when he is on leave.

Greetings: Secretary Coile offered greetings on behalf of Bishop Joseph Bethea and the South Carolina Annual Conference to our Annual Conference.

Motion: Secretary Coile moved the nominations of District Boards of Church Location and Building, and the District Committees on Ordained Ministry, and that all disciplinary questions be declared answered. The motion was passed.

Announcement: Coile also reminded the Conference that, with regard to the resolution passed on child pornography, guidelines have been established that are found in the Book of Resolutions of the 1988 General Conference which delineate the reasons and methods to be followed by both United Methodist individuals and local churches in instituting or joining a boycott. Other announcements were made.

Moving Day: Moving day for the clergy is June 26.

A Covenant for Ministry and the Passing of the Torch: Bishop Minnick called the Conference to order at 12:10 p.m., that covenant for ministry might be renewed and the appointments fixed. Bishop Minnick began by presenting the four district superintendents concluding their terms of service in the Cabinet. These are F. Owen Fitzgerald, Jr., Wallace H. Kirby, A. P. Hill, Jr., and M. Whit Warren, Jr. He then introduced the four pastors who are replacing those leaving the Cabinet. These are: George Johnson going to the Burlington District; Albert Shuler going to the Durham District; E. M. Thompson going to the Greenville District; and Tom Holtsclaw going to the New Bern District. He then asked the new associate directors of the Conference Council on Ministries to come forward. These are: Carol Strange, Sam Dixon, Ray Warren, and Edith Gleaves. He also asked those who are leaving - Albert Shuler, Cliff Shoaf and Clyde Dunn - to stand to receive the applause of the Conference.

The service of worship then proceeded. The Bishop's sermon for the service not only was based upon the words of the apostle Paul, his second letter to the Corinthians, but in fact was the words of St. Paul. Music for the service was brought by the Conference Youth Choir, directed by Bette J. Oglesby. The covenant for ministry was renewed, the appointments for 1990-91 were fixed, and the torch was passed, with the challenge being given on behalf of the retiring pastors by Vassar W. Jones, and the response of the class of 1990 elders being given by David O. Malloy. The 1990 Annual Conference concluded with the singing of hymn 593, Here I Am Lord, and warm greetings and love being offered one member to another. (For a synopsis of this meaningful service, see the service bulletin, A Covenant for Ministry and Passing of the Torch, June 16, 1990.)

Respectfully submitted,
David S. Fischler

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE

THE PRELUDE — Prelude in G Major Mendelssohn
 THE WORDS OF GRACE

Jesus said, I am the Resurrection and I am the Life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, yet shall they live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Because I live, you shall live also.

*HYMN 709 — Come, Let Us Join Our Friends Above C. Wesley

Deaconesses Who Have Died During the Year

Ethelynde Mann Ballance May 25, 1990

We come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss. May God grant us grace, that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

Eternal God, we praise you for the great company of all those who have finished their course in faith, and who now rest from their labors. Help us so to believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home not made with hands but eternal in the heavens. Amen.

HYMN 707 — Hymn of Promise Sleeth

*Indicates when the people should stand.

THE READING OF THE WORD

Psalm 23

II Corinthians 4:15-18

Matthew 21:28-32

THE SERMON — *A Calling To Fulfill*THE SOLO — O Rest in the Lord (Elijah) Mendelssohn

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

O God, who gave us birth, you are ever more ready to hear than we are to pray. You know our needs before we ask, and our ignorance in asking. Give to us now your grace, that as we shrink before the mystery of death we may see the light of eternity. Speak to us once more your solemn message of life and of death. Help us to live as those who are prepared to die. And when our days are accomplished, enable us to die as those who go forth to live, so that living or dying, our life may be in you, and that nothing in life or in death will be able to separate us from your great love in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

OUR LORD'S PRAYER

*AN AFFIRMATION FROM ROMANS 8:34,37-39

Leader: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
Shall tribulation or distress,
or persecution or famine,
or nakedness or peril or sword?

People: No!

In all things we are more than conquerors through the One who loved us.

We are sure that neither death nor life,
nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

*HYMN 711 — For All The Saints How

*DISMISSAL WITH BLESSING

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of your Son, Christ our Lord! Grant us peace so to follow your holy saints in all virtuous and holy living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which you have prepared for those who love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE POSTLUDE — Allegro Maestoso e Vivace Mendelssohn

Harvey L. Davis was born April 15, 1899 in Hemp, NC (now Robbins) to Henry Mitchell Davis and Mary Anne (Tanie) Cockman Davis. He graduated from Elise High School Academy in Hemp.

Harvey entered Trinity College (now Duke University) in the 1917 - 1918 school year and was graduated in 1921. The words from his senior yearbook, The Chanticleer, state, "Davis lived a life according to the old adage that actions speak louder than words, and his college career should stand as an example to those who follow him. We can wish him little better than to live hereafter in the manner he has done while we have known him - a staunch Methodist and a man who is not afraid to stand by his own convictions." These words certainly characterize his later life and ministry.

The year following his graduation from college, Harvey taught school in Burgaw. One of his senior pupils, Swindell Johnson, would later become his wife. He returned to Duke University to the School of Religion in 1922. He was admitted to the NC Conference in Raleigh in 1922, ordained a deacon in 1924, and an elder in 1926. At the time of his death he is listed as having been a member of the Conference longer than any other minister.

Charges which he served were: The Jones Circuit in 1924. On November 18, 1924, he and Swindell were married, and in 1925, they were appointed to Newport-Harlowe. In 1927 the Davises came back to Durham and served Lakewood, and later the Epworth-Wesley churches. During this time Swindell completed her college work and graduated from Duke University in 1930. Harvey completed his work for the Bachelor of Divinity in 1932. Since Mr. and Mrs. Davis believed so strongly in the value of education, it is no wonder that their three children all chose education as the field of their professions.

Other appointments were Pittsboro, Richlands-Jacksonville, Littleton, Farmville, Warrenton, Elizabethtown, and in retirement the Hollister and Brinkleyville churches in Halifax County.

He served Littleton for nine years from 1939 to 1948. Part of this time he was the only minister there - and thus was the pastor of the whole community. Harvey Davis exerted a tremendous influence upon my life! I give him great credit for my being who and what I am today. Under his ministry at Calvary Church (Littleton Charge) he led me to Christ, and, through his encouragement and support, to become a minister in the NC Conference.

Harvey Davis was greatly loved and respected in all the churches he served. He was a good preacher, an able administrator, and an excellent pastor - a good shepherd of his flock. His life was one of serene beauty and goodness. I have heard a number of people say that their day was better because they had "bumped into" him that day on the street or at the post office. Edgar A. Guest wrote, "I had rather see a sermon than hear one any day." It is said of Phillips Brooks, "He made the day better because he had walked the streets of Boston as a pastor." Surely both of the above statements are true of Brother Harvey Davis as he walked the streets of the towns and in the communities he served.

The people of Littleton were delighted when the Davises chose their town for a retirement home. They made him pastor emeritus of the Littleton Church. They lived here several years before going to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham.

Swindell preceded Harvey in death on November 25, 1985. "Pop" remained in the Home until it was necessary for him to be transferred to the Coble Health Care Center unit for special care. After a couple of years of declining health, but with an ever alert mind, he died peacefully at the age of 90 on June 19, 1989.

Funeral services were conducted in Littleton on June 21, 1989 by a "preacher son", the Reverend Johnnie D. Aycock; the pastor of the Littleton Church, the Reverend Paul Burke; the Chaplain of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, the Reverend Deborah Tyson; and a close friend of the family, the Reverend Joseph M. Taylor, Jr., retired UM minister of Kernersville. Burial followed at the Sunset Hill Cemetery in Littleton beside his wife.

He is survived by two sons: Dr. Graham Johnson Davis of Blount Creek and Harvey L. Davis of Goldsboro; a daughter, Mrs. Jean Swindell D. Livingston of Raleigh; a sister, Mrs. Helen Williams of Robbins; five grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Knowing his great faith in God, the quality of his life, the faithfulness of everything he did, and his dedication to his Lord, his church, and his family, the following Scripture quotes are most appropriate:

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth, yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors."

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant...enter thou the joy of the Lord."

"I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith; henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

And remembering his long life of 90 years, we recall the words from Psalm 91, "With long life I will satisfy him, and show him My salvation."

For those of us who knew, loved, and respected H. L. Davis through the years, we would say with the writer of Proverbs, "The memory of the just is blessed", and in the words of that great hymn writer, Charles Wesley, "Servant of God, well done; thy glorious warfare's past: The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last."

Johnnie D. Aycock

NELSON PATE EDENS, SR.

Nelson Pate Edens was a gentle and modest man, a ready wit, a lover of life in its many dimensions. He saw each day that the Lord made as a challenge, and challenged his parishioners to meet life with courage and determination, as he had done. He loved books and words. A man of the earth, he dug in the ground and brought forth beauty in his bountiful gardens, and with great pleasure shared the harvest of vegetables with friends. He challenged his wife in their many tennis matches - not to mention the challenge of a vigorous bowling game. In his last days he challenged his health and said, "I have had more than my share of years and days. I am grateful that the Lord has seen fit to give me today."

My late husband, William Pickard, had the privilege of knowing his father-in-law as a teller of tales - a chronicler of the past. Born December 27, 1900, in Rowland, Dad spoke of his early boyhood and youth, of the death of his parents before he reached the age of five, of the lonely trip to Roberdel to live with his grandparents. With pride, he spoke of his grandfather who challenged him to remain at Trinity College (later Duke University) where he completed his undergraduate education and later Duke Divinity School. He spoke with fondness of his days as a member of Duke's cross-country team.

With a smile and twinkle in his eye, Dad spoke of his passage of 62 years with his beloved, Annie Irene Brown of Red Springs. He spoke of "robbing" the Presbyterian Church for his mate, but hastily added that she was predestined to be his wife. Through the years they walked hand in hand doing the Lord's work. To this union were born two children - a son, Nelson Pate, Jr., and a daughter, Anne Edens Pickard, and he became the proud grandfather of two - Georganne Edens Pickard and Jodi Blair Pickard.

Ordained into the Methodist ministry in 1925, Dad served the following pastorates: Kenansville, Elizabethtown, Roseboro, Tabor City, Mayesville, Garner, Kittrell, Parkton, Laurel Hill, Person Street in Fayetteville, and Institute. Of the thirteen pastorates, fifty-five churches in eastern NC were served by Dad, to which 1,998 people were added by profession of faith. When retirement came in 1966, he was not ready to take a rest. For ten years, he ministered to Wesley Chapel and Black's Chapel, and on occasion, would fill the pulpit of Carr Memorial Christian Church in the community in Sampson County where he and Mother lived in their retirement years.

After several weeks of hospitalization at Sampson Memorial Hospital in Clinton, Dad embarked on his final passage to eternal life on June 27, 1989. A service of celebration was held at Keener United Methodist Church on June 29, 1989 with the pastor, the Reverend Ralph Hill officiating, assisted by the Reverend Helen Crotwell, district superintendent of the Fayetteville District, the Reverend Jimmy Miller, a former district superintendent of the Fayetteville District, and the Reverend Paul Mattox, pastor of Carr Memorial Christian Church. Grandview Memorial Gardens in Clinton was Dad's place of rest.

Yes, he was our shepherd. To God, we are grateful for Dad's life among the flocks.

Lovingly submitted by his daughter,
Anne Edens Pickard, for the Edens family

JAMES ROBERT REGAN, SR

1902 - 1989

James Robert Regan was born March 4, 1902 in Robeson County near Lumberton. He grew up on a farm just outside Fayetteville where the family also ran a general store. He went to local schools, then to Trinity Park School in Durham, Rutherford College, and graduated from Duke University in 1928. He also received his M.Div. from Duke Divinity School.

He taught in the public schools of NC for several years in Bladen, Sampson, and Pender counties, and later in Hyde County. He also taught at Edwards Military Institute in Salemburg and served as principle of a school near Roseboro.

In his 30 years as a pastor, he served the following churches: Stumpy Point, Kennakeet-Avon, Hatteras, Mattamuskeet, Mamers, Erwin, Leasburg, Troy Circuit, Pinebluff, Stem, Henderson, White Memorial-Wesley, Pink Hill, South River, Fayetteville: Wesley Heights, Ellerbe, and Rockingham: Glenwood.

Robert helped to start two other churches and was influential in leading several persons to enter the Christian ministry, including his son, Robert, Jr.

He was a pastor who supported all the programs of the church, education, stewardship, missions, social concerns, and evangelism. His congregations always received new members by profession of faith because of his concern to reach others for Christ.

He had a particular interest in the problems of alcohol and alcoholism. He attended the Yale School of Alcohol Studies to further his work in this area. This interest included teaching courses on alcohol and alcoholism to young people who attended the Louisburg Assemblies.

Robert married Selma Adelaide Cain of Bladen County near Elizabethtown, who also attended Duke University. From that union were born Herbert Alexander and James Robert, Jr. Herbert has lived in Raleigh and has been, along with his family, a participant in St. James UMC. His son, Robert, Jr., has served as a pastor in the NC Conference, on the national staff in Washington, DC, and as a pastor in the VA Conference. There are eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Robert retired from the active ministry in 1967 but continued to preach as needed in area churches, serve part-time on the staffs of Christ Church and Campground churches, and do substitute teaching in the public schools of Fayetteville and Cumberland County. In addition, he taught courses in Fayetteville's Community College.

After the death of his beloved first wife, Selma, Robert married the former Beulah McPhail of Lumberton. The two spent the last seven years of his life enjoying their homes both in Lumberton and Fayetteville.

Robert fell asleep and died after a brief illness on July 17, 1989 in Highsmith-Rainey Hospital with his sons and wife standing by. He was buried in Memorial Gardens in Fayetteville.

teville. His funeral was conducted by the Reverend Herman Winberry at Haymount Church, attended by many fellow clergy, other friends, and family members.

Dwight L. Moody wrote before he died, "Some day you will read in the papers that D. L. Moody is dead. Don't you believe a word of it! At that time I will be more alive than I am now. I shall have gone up higher, that is all...That which is born of the flesh will die. That which is born of the Spirit will live forever." (The Life of Dwight L. Moody, William R. Moody, Fleming H. Revell Co., 1900)

Robert Regan, too, is more alive than ever. Amen!

J. Robert Regan, Jr.

GEORGE McCREA MARSH, JR.

George M. Marsh, Jr., son of George and Nina Marsh, was born in Renovo, PA on July 4, 1933. He met and married Audrey Louise Cox and this union produced four fine children: Mrs. Roni Jo Marsh Phillips, George McCrea Marsh III, Joseph Marvin Marsh, and Glenn Monroe Marsh.

George enlisted in military service in October of 1950 and retired from the US Marine Corps in July of 1970. He served a tour in Viet Nam. He served his country with distinction and was proud of having been a Marine. He could always be counted upon to come up with a good lecture for those who would burn our flag or shun military service. His patriotism could never be questioned.

While serving his final years in military service George received his call to preach. He was appointed to the Verona Church as a part-time supply pastor. After military retirement he served Hatteras, Pasquatank, Ellerbe, Roberdel, and the Harlow/Oak Grove Churches.

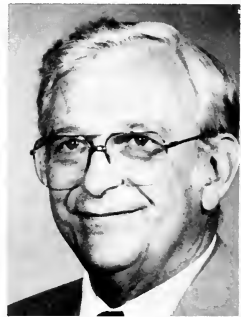

It was said of the New Testament Saint named Barnabas, "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith: and (because of him) much people were added to the church." To say that George was a good man is to say a lot, but it is not enough. He was a good man and a great man. He possessed a great faith and a great capacity for love. He loved his family and left his stamp upon their lives in such a way that it will never dim or be forgotten. He loved children and children loved him. He loved the people he served and they loved him. He was proud to be a United Methodist minister. "He was a good man", and his goodness, while never on parade, was the mark of his life. His gentleness, his brotherliness, his ability to understand and enter into the suffering and needs of people was an outstanding characteristic of his ministry. He was the dearest friend I'll ever have. The following poem, What is a Friend?, describes George McCrea Marsh.

"A friend is somebody who knows you and likes you exactly the way you are,
Somebody who's special and so close in thought that no distance can ever seem far,
A friend is that someone whose cheerful 'hello' always brings a smile to your face,
Whose thoughtfulness makes you feel really "at home" whatever the time or the place.
A friend is somebody that shares your secrets and laughs at the same things you do,

Who helps you make plans and is happy to hear when something nice happens to you
 A friend understands you without any words, stands by you when nothing goes right,
 And willingly talks over problems with you till they somehow just vanish from sight.
 And whether you're neighbors or live miles apart, a word from a friend gives a lift
 To your heart and your spirit, that shows you once more why true friendship is life's dearest gift!" Elizabeth M. Gerus

Death came suddenly, without any warning on Thursday afternoon, July 20, 1989. George had been working in the parsonage yard. He came in to rest and suffered a massive heart attack. He collapsed and died in Audrey's arms and his spirit went to be with the Lord, whom he loved and served so well. A Service of Death and Resurrection was conducted by New Bern District Superintendent M. Whit Warren, and the Reverend H. Charles Davis, in the Harlow UMC on Sunday afternoon, July 23, 1989. Interment was in the church cemetery.

HENRY ARTHUR PHILLIPS, JR.

Henry Arthur Phillips, Jr. was born September 21, 1934 in North Tazewell, VA to Henry Arthur Phillips, Sr. and Will Owen Harrell Phillips. Born into a parsonage family, Arthur grew up with the itineracy learning much about the Methodist ministry and its call. A love of history, Bible study, and a loving concern for others were his legacy from his family. He attended public school and graduated from high school in Richlands, VA in 1951.

Arthur attended Emory and Henry College in VA. While there he met Margaret (Peg) Atkins. He proposed to her and they were married on May 31, 1955, just two days after they had both graduated from Emory and Henry. The fall of that same year he enrolled in the Divinity School at Duke University, and that is where I had the privilege of coming to know Arthur as a true friend. One quickly discerned Arthur to be a person of deep faith, true wisdom and good humor. We shared our classes and ministries, and graduated with the Master of Divinity degree in May, 1959.

One might assume that Arthur chose the ministry because of family experience, but it was his deep personal experience and conviction that led him to answer the call to the Christian ministry. Arthur's personal faith was founded on his own total commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord of his life, a concept of gentle goodness, and a life of service to others.

Arthur served his entire thirty-five years in full time ministry in the NC Annual Conference serving the Allensville-Trinity Charge from 1955-59, Camp Church in Shallotte from 1959-64, Edenton Street in Raleigh as Associate Pastor from 1964-69, Carthage from 1969-74, Louisburg from 1974-79, Swansboro from 1979-88, and Davis Street in Burlington from 1988 until his death in 1989.

All the churches Arthur served came to know him as a compassionate pastor, a scholar, attentive to his parish, devoted to his Lord, and thorough in Bible study and sermon preparation. He was constant in personal prayer and sought to make worship meaningful for everyone. He was an evangelist in the best sense of the word! Arthur's sermons were virtually unforgettable. After all these years parts of ones I heard still come to mind. I think this is because Arthur spent time searching for the truth behind the witness, and then preaching the truth he was led to speak. Arthur spoke the truth even when the truth was unpopular, but more importantly, Arthur taught us how to live. He did even more: he showed us how to live because he lived what he preached. He was a model of his own faith.

In both district and Conference activities, Arthur took numerous roles of leadership, including a long tenure on the Board of Social Concerns, and a term as chairperson of that agency. I remember him standing in the pulpit at Annual Conference presenting some not-very-popular but important and honest Christian ideals, and defending the positions of the Board with humility and integrity. Arthur never raised his voice or shouted at people. He was not bombastic. I asked Arthur why he put himself through all that. His answer was typically Arthur as he said, "A man has got to do what a man has got to do!" Wherever Arthur was, he was a man that Jesus had told exactly what to do. Arthur also was a creative and valuable member on the Conference Board of the Ordained Ministry.

Arthur had a positive influence on the floor of Annual Conference as on the members of every church he served. That influence flowed into the community at large. His ways were and will not be forgotten but serve as candles to light the darkness, and as open windows to bring fresh winds of Christian influence and change into every area of the Conference. He was a kindly, lively man of great good humor. His gentleness will not be forgotten by the thousands of people that were touched by it and by his sense of Christian family life that he practiced daily in his home.

A year ago at Annual Conference, he came to the stage to shake my hand and chat a moment. He told me that the cancer seemed to be behind him and he was feeling good. He looked well. The only time I saw him happier was at Conference the year before when he received news of the birth of his first grandchild. Bishop Minnick overheard that and said, "I'll bet you'd like to see that grandchild!" Arthur replied, "I'd like to go right now!" Bishop Minnick replied, "I'm giving you an official excuse to leave Conference because you have duties at home." Arthur gave a big grin and said, "Oh, boy!" and took off running.

God, family, and fellow man - all were the interest and essence of Arthur Phillips. Arthur knew what to do and he did it.

It came as a shock when I heard Arthur had returned to the hospital in August with a recurrence of his earlier condition. He died on September 20, 1989 in Burlington. It was the day before his 55th birthday. By his own choice his earthly body was cremated and a memorial service held at Davis Street Church on September 22, 1989. The service was conducted by the Reverends Milton Mann, Christopher White, Lyndle Bullard, and Owen Fitzgerald. His ashes have been scattered on Molly's Knob at Hungry Mother State Park in VA, a favorite camping and hiking ground of the family. Arthur is survived by his wife, Margaret (Peg) Atkins Phillips; four children: Jonathan David of New Bern; Stephen Mark of Raleigh; Timothy Andrew of Louisburg; and Melanie Carol Phillips Parrish of Raleigh; one grandson, Nathan Scott Phillips of New Bern; one brother, the Reverend E. Harrell Phillips of Camden, TN. His mother, Will Owen Phillips, survived him by two months.

Arthur packed more into his 35 years in ministry than most do in much longer. He will be remembered as a scholarly, goodly, God-fearing man who practiced what he preached. One thinks of Arthur's favorite hymn (because theologically it is so much like him), "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross". "Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were an offering far too small. Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all."

Charles Graham Nickens was born in Mt. Olive, July 8, 1917, the son of Joseph E. and Alice Crumpler Nickens. He died in the Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro, on November 17, 1989. His funeral was held on November 20 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Paul UMC in Goldsboro where he and his wife had worshiped since his retirement. The service was conducted by their pastor, the Reverend Thomas E. Loftis and the Reverend J. Paul Edwards. He was buried in the Willowdale Cemetery in Goldsboro in an area owned by St. Paul UMC and reserved for UMC ministers and their families.

Graham was married to Inez Sasser on May 3, 1940 and God blessed their life together for almost 50 years. To this union was born two children: Shelton (Charles Shelton Nickens of University Park, MD), and Tricia (Mrs. Colon Willoughby of Raleigh). He is survived by his wife, his children, five grandchildren, and his brother, the Reverend Paul Nickens of Southern Pines.

After being in the business world for several years, and after seven years of marriage, Graham told Inez that he felt that God was calling him into the ministry. He had been struggling with this for many months. His call was very real but the realities of life seemed to make it impossible. He had a wife and small son to support. He saw no way that this could be done if he gave up his job, and also assumed the expenses of attending college. He decided to go and talk with his presiding elder, the late and beloved B. B. Slaughter. Mr. Slaughter encouraged him, helped him obtain his local preacher's license and assigned him to serve a church. Graham graduated from ECU and completed his formal education at Emory University Candler School of Theology. He served the following appointments: Oriental, Grimesland, Windsor, Duplin, Elizabeth City: City Road, Tabor City, Newland-Grace and Pikeville. Because of his health he was placed on disability leave in 1979 and retired in 1984.

I have known Graham since early in my ministry. I came to know him and Inez in a very special way when I was his district superintendent. My wife and I were invited into their home for the evening meal the night of our first Charge Conference together. Soon after we arrived he asked that I look at all the reports he had filled out and be sure that everything was in proper order. His was letter perfect, and I told him that my life would be much easier if all were as prepared as well as his. Inez said Graham always worried, to some degree, about all his work with the church for he wanted things done correctly. He expected a great deal from himself and his churches. When they observed how dedicated he was and how hard he worked, they responded in kind. He was an effective leader of God in the churches he served, and many Christians today rejoice that he came their way. I am one of those.

He found a simple but meaningful poem that he liked, clipped it out and his wife asked that it be read at his funeral.

"Life is not lost when this bright day is gone,

There comes a time of dark and then the dawn -
 Man does not die when Spirit leaves the earth,
 He has but gone to know another birth."

CARLTON RAY WEST

Ray West, the second-born of three sons to Mary Bell Gilbert West and Dorval Wayne West, Sr., was born June 20, 1923, on a farm in Bachelor. Ray's parents moved to Kinston, where he spent his early childhood years. There he worked on the family dairy farm and in Pender's Grocery Store that his father managed. He attended Kinston Elementary School until he was twelve years old when his family moved back to Bachelor where he worked on the family farm and attended Beaufort High School. He graduated from high school in 1940 and left home to begin his life's mission.

Ray's first public job was as a ship rigger in the Newport News, VA Shipyard. In 1942, Ray married his high school sweetheart, Pearl Gooding, and they were blessed with two daughters, Roberta Dawn and Meri Janet. During World War II, Ray worked in the Wilmington Shipyard where he helped build battle ships. He was drafted into the US Navy in 1944 and settled his family in Beaufort, NC after the war. He worked as a Civil Service industrial engineering technician at the Cherry Point Marine Air Station until 1958 when he felt called to enter the preaching ministry.

Ray's first preaching appointment was the Straits-Harkers Island Charge. Harkers Island became a station church in 1960 and Ray served there until 1964. During this appointment, Ray attended and graduated from Louisburg College. His second appointment was the Browning-Smith Chapel Charge where he received his Elder's orders. In 1967, Ray asked for supernumerary status to attend Campbell College where he received a psychology degree and worked part-time with the NC Mental Health Center at Buies Creek. After college he continued working as alcohol and drug abuse counselor for the Harnett County Mental Health Center until 1981. He served as part-time pastor of the Wesley-Black's Chapel Charge during this time. In 1981, Ray retired from the NC Conference, returned to Cherry Point where he picked up his early employment, then retired from Civil Service in 1985.

Ray assisted his wife, Pearl, who entered the ministry in 1976. They served Union Church, Goldsboro District; Turkey-Friendship Charge, Fayetteville District; Town Creek Charge, Wilmington District, (Zion became a station church and Pearl remained at Zion until 1985). Their last appointment was the Eureka-Yelverton Charge, Goldsboro District, where Pearl retired in 1987.

In 1985, a biopsy showed Ray had prostate cancer which had spread into the blood stream. In spite of his declining health, Ray continued to work in the church and to build a house for his and Pearl's retirement. After twenty-nine years, they returned home to Beaufort and they moved into their new home on Ray's birthday, June 20, 1989. During his brief retirement years Ray enjoyed building their home, working in the church, singing in the choir and assisting local preachers. He was taken to the hospital in October, 1989, and remained in the hospital until his death on Christmas Day, December 25, 1989. His funeral service was held in Ann Street UMC by the Reverend A. D. Byrd, and his interment was in the North River UMC Cemetery. Ray's survivors are his wife, Pearl Gooding West, Beaufort; two daughters, Roberta Dawn West of Atlanta, GA, and Meri Janet West of Garner; and one grandson, James P. Capps III, USN.

Ray's many friends and his family testify to his great love for Jesus and His Church and to his service to many people. Ray often introduced himself from the pulpit as, "I am Ray West, and I am a sinner. Except for the loving and forgiving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, I would be worthless." Ray gave Jesus full credit for all the good he achieved in his life.

We miss him very much.

EDWARD FRANKLIN SMITH, JR.

Edward F. Smith, Jr. was a United Methodist minister who lived and labored with a quietness and modesty which cloaked his true greatness. A servant of God, he fulfilled his Master's dictum..."Let the one who would be great, be servant of all".

He was born in Cheraw, SC to Edward F. Smith and Mary Meacham Smith on January 12, 1920. He died in a tragic automobile accident, hit by a drunken driver, in Lumberton on the afternoon of January 19, 1990.

He was married to Janet Wellons Smith on December 28, 1945, and he is survived by his wife and their three children, Edward F. Smith III of Washington, DC, David A. Smith of Maryland, and Sally Stenland of Rocky Mount. They also have five grandchildren.

He was graduated from Fayetteville Public Schools, Louisburg College, Duke University, and Duke Divinity School. He did further graduate study at Hartford School of Missions.

He was ordained as a deacon in the Methodist Church in the NC Annual Conference in 1945. He was received into full connection and ordained elder in 1948. After serving the Maybrook-Massey and Leesburg Circuits, he and Janet responded to their call to the Methodist mission field. They were commissioned in 1952 to serve in the Belgian Congo, where they served with distinction until 1962. Smith remained a vital witness to missionary evangelism for a lifetime, sharing at any opportunity with obvious zest.

When tumult in the new state of Zaire made it unsafe for his family to remain in Africa, they returned to outstanding years of ministry in the NC Annual Conference. He served Hillsborough UMC, Trinity UMC in Wilmington, Haymount UMC in Fayetteville; Duke Memorial UMC in Durham, and Chestnut Street UMC in Lumberton until his retirement in 1986. He was asked to remain as pastor emeritus at Chestnut Street until his death.

He served the Conference with leadership in Missions, the Board of Education, and the Board of Pensions. He served as a trustee of NC Wesleyan College and a trustee of the Methodist Home for Children. He was in constant demand to instruct classes in district and church schools of Missions. He also frequently lectured or supplied at Duke Divinity School.

During all these years he was a man of high integrity, loyal devotion, strong faith and deep spiritual insight. He merited inclusion in the "Halls of Fame" so endeared to mere mortals, as an all-American husband, father, friend, and tireless, loving shepherd to his assigned flock. Ed did not seek greatness, nor did he recognize his own true greatness.

He remained faithful even until death. I am sure the Great and Good Master has awarded him the crown he so richly deserves.

"Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past;

The battles fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last" - Charles Wesley

We shall miss him, but we shall treasure his love and example. Surely he is with our Lord, preparing a place for us from whom he is temporarily separated.

OFFIE LEMUEL HATHAWAY

Offie Lemuel Hathaway was born September 1, 1905, to Robert L. and Geneva Barnes Hathaway in Wilson County, NC. Offie Hathaway and Ocie Burseson were united in Holy Matrimony on September 1, 1927. The result of this union provided Offie and his wife, Burl, an opportunity to contribute and share a common ministry with the people of NC during his 44 years as an active minister in the NC Conference.

He received his B.A. degree from Duke University in 1927, and his B.D. degree from Duke Divinity School at Duke University in 1929. Methodist College in Fayetteville conferred the D. D. degree upon him in 1982 for outstanding service on behalf of the NC Conference and Methodist College.

O. L., as he was affectionately known, faithfully served the following appointments during active ministry: Epworth in Wilmington, 1931-34; Epworth-Wesley, 1934-38; Selma, 1938-42; St. Paul's in St. Paul, 1942-46; First Church in Graham, 1946-51; Siler City, 1951-53; Fayetteville district superintendent, 1953-59; Conference Missions executive director, 1959-62; Durham district superintendent, 1962-68; Conference Gifts and Wills executive director, 1968-70; Conference Stewardship and Communications director, 1970-73.

Leadership was the lasting gift and contribution that O. L. Hathaway shared with the Church. This gentle and loving pastor was instrumental in helping to establish the Raleigh Area as a unique and separate Conference within the General Church. He also provided the leadership necessary to build a new Methodist Building in Raleigh which would insure episcopal and Conference leadership for the Methodists of NC. He was a founding trustee of Methodist College, and a trustee of the Methodist Retirement Homes and the Methodist Home for Children. His vision for new churches gave leadership in establishment of the $10 Club, and he helped to secure the property for Camp Rickfish, free of all cost to the Conference.

Offie was honored by his colleagues in ministry when he was elected four times as a delegate to the General Conference, and elected five times as a delegate to the SEJ Conference, where he received a number of votes for the episcopacy from the delegates across the SEJ. On two other occasions, Offie was honored to be a delegate to the Methodist World Conference.

In June 1973, O. L. Hathaway retired from active ministry. This faithful servant who had been transformed by Jesus Christ, had transformed the people called Methodists in NC. How grateful we are for this powerful witness and example of servant leadership.

Offie Lemuel Hathaway died on January 23, 1990 at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. He was buried in Raleigh where he had lived immediately following his retirement.

The scripture shared by our Lord in Matthew 25:21 is an appropriate word for this faithful servant of the Church - "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your Master."

RICHARD THOMSON COMMANDER

Richard Thomson Commander, son of Charles E. and Adelaide Boyd Commander, was born May 10, 1923, in Florence, SC. At an early age his family moved to Jacksonville, FL, where he was reared. He was affectionately known by his family, friends, and colleagues in the ministry as "Rick".

Rick had the good fortune of meeting Lelia L. Shore, known by her friends as "Lee", of Charlotte, and they were united in Holy Matrimony on June 2, 1951, thus forming a happy and blessed union.

Their marriage was blessed with three children, Suzanne Commander Barwick; Richard (Ricky) T. Commander, Jr.; and Mary Kathryn (Kathy) Commander who predeceased her father. Other family members who were significant to Rick are: Laura Elizabeth Barwick, granddaughter; Jeffrey S. Barwick, son-in-law; and Adelaide C. Kirkpatrick, Esther C. Payne, and Shands C. Rhea, sisters.

Rick became a student at Auburn University, Auburn, AL, and had his education interrupted while he served in the US Armed Forces during World War II. Upon being discharged from service, he resumed his education at Auburn University and received a B.S. degree in Business Administration.

God, through Christ, called Rick Commander to the ministry, and he began his pilgrimage by receiving a B.D. degree from Duke Divinity School at Duke University in Durham. He was ordained a deacon in 1950 and admitted on trial, and was ordained an elder in 1952 and received into full connection.

Rick Commander enjoyed a rich and fruitful ministry serving the following appointments: North Gates, 1950-54; Elizabeth City: Riverside, 1954-59; Hamlet: Fellowship, 1959-60; Burlington: Faith, 1960-65; Fayetteville: Camp Ground, 1965-69; Goldsboro: St. Luke, 1969-71; Raleigh: Fairmont, 1971-75; Greenville: District Superintendent, 1975-81; Jacksonville: Trinity, 1981-86; Durham: Duke Memorial, 1986-87; and Carboro, 1987-88. He retired at the 1988 Annual Conference. Many noteworthy accomplishments could be enumerated regarding his pastorate at each of these appointments. Rick was the organizing pastor of Riverside UMC in Elizabeth City. During his tenure as district superintendent of the Greenville District, he was very instrumental in creating a climate for fellowship and collegiality among the pastors. This accomplishment is confirmed by the writer of this memoir who served as one of his pastors for five years, and who held him in the highest esteem with great admiration. During his years as district superintendent, Rick and Lee developed close and lasting friendships with the parsonage families who served in the Greenville District.

Rick was elected an alternate delegate to Jurisdictional Conference in 1980, and a delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences in 1988. He served as the chairperson of the Board of Worship, a member of the Board of Education, the Conference Council on Ministries, Division of Higher Education, Division of Ecumenical & Inter-religious Concerns, and the Bishop's Committee on Church Architecture. Rick served as a trustee of NC Wesleyan College, and as a trustee of the Conference. He was president of the Duke Alumni Association, 1973. Further, he served faithfully and effectively as secretary of the cabinet when he was a district superintendent.

Rick was civic minded and demonstrated his interest in a number of ways including membership in the Rotary Club.

Following his retirement, he was employed by Oak Ridge Realty and York Realty as a real estate agent.

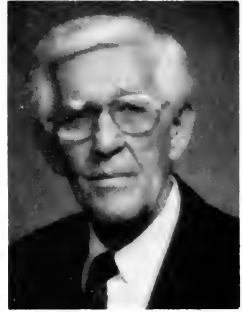

On February 4, 1990, Richard Thomson Commander continued his life eternal as he moved from this earthly pilgrimage to eternal bliss and joy in the presence of God. This was the end of his life on earth where he enjoyed companionship with Lee; close ties with Suzanne, Ricky, Jeff, Laura, Adelaide, Esther, and Shands; and relationships with many colleagues, former parishioners, and friends; but, the beginning of a new life with the communion of the saints.

The funeral service was conducted at First UMC in Cary by the Reverends Kermit Braswell, William Green, Dewey Tyson, and Hope Ward. A solo, The Lord's Prayer, was sung by the Reverend James Miller, who was a roommate in seminary with Rick. The choirs of First UMC, Cary, and Fairmont UMC, Raleigh, rendered a moving anthem entitled, The Beatitudes. The Reverend Haywood Smith, who was Rick's associate in Jacksonville, concluded the special music at the grave with a solo, Charity. The Reverends Johnny Aycock, Harold Chrismon, Henry Hunnings, James Lupton, Rod Mullen, Travis Owen, Jerry Smith, and Clyde Tucker served as pallbearers. The Reverend Troy Barrett served at the church as the family-clergy escort.

The topic of the meditation was "One of God's Saints". The text was found in selected verses from John 14. It was pointed out how Rick Commander touched the lives of his colleagues with love, patience, compassion, understanding, and concern. Further, it was stated that lay persons were blessed through the years by the healing presence of Christ because Rick Commander was their pastor. Consolation was given from the beautiful words of John 14, and family, colleagues, and friends were assured that Rick was at peace because of the grace and mercy of God who enabled him to be his servant. Rick Commander knew "whose he was" and because he knew, he is one of God's saints.

Burial followed in Raleigh Memorial Park.

MADISON WARD (DOC) MANESS

Madison Ward (Doc) Maness was born on May 15, 1904, in Moore County near Robbins. He was the youngest of three sons and two daughters in the family of Wiley Reynolds Maness and Hattie Hunsucker Maness. His mother died when Doc was a pre-schooler; so Harvey, Dewey and Esther went to the Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh, while he and the older sister, Pearl, became family members in the home of a great uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Ward, located a few miles from Rowland.

In early years, Doc worked on the Ward farm and went, every time the doors were opened, to the near-by Centenary Methodist Church. It was there he memorized Bible verses, took his turn reciting on Children's Day and accepted Jesus Christ as Savior. In later years, he remarked about the influence of home and church: "From days of youth, I had a strong feeling of a calling in my life. Being 'born again' doesn't fit me. I never had a dramatic conversion experience. My mother had prayed for me to be a minister." Doc started in a neighborhood grammar school; then attended high school in Rowland where he graduated with the class of '24.

After receiving an undergraduate degree from Duke University in 1928, Doc taught at Shallotte High School and coached the girls's basketball team. Two years later he was back at Duke, this time as a student in the Divinity School where he earned the Master of Divinity degree.

Madison Ward Maness was received as a clergy member of the NC Annual Conference in 1933; being ordained deacon in '35 and elder in '37. His appointments were as follows: Kinnakeet, 1933-35; South Camden, 1936-38; Manteo, 1939-43; Tarboro: St. James, 1944-47; Mt. Gilead, 1948-50; Durham: Lakewood, 1951-53; Burlington: Webb Avenue, 1954-57; Fairmont: Trinity, 1958-59; Fayetteville: Campground, 1960-65; Fayetteville: Trinity, 1966-70; Dunn: Leslie, 1971-74; and Fayetteville: Hay Street Minister of Visitation, 1975-79.

Was it not St. Paul who has asked our question: "What shall we then say to these things?" (Roman 8:31)

Doc Maness was a family man. On his first appointment, he met Ruth Nixon who was teaching school at Avon. They were married in her home church at Stumpy Point, on September 29, 1939, by the Reverends B. B. Slaughter and E. D. Weathers. God blessed their home with a gift of two daughters: Betty Ruth, who was killed in a car crash the day before her twenty-second birthday; and Virginia Ann Maness Anglin, who lives with her husband at 1221 Haymount Court in Fayetteville.

I once asked Doc why he had chosen to establish his retirement home in Fayetteville; which was at 420 Northview Drive. He pointed out how near it was to both Robbins and Rowland. Then he said, "If you jump a rabbit, there's no need to give chase for it will circle back and settle down close to where it got up." He added teasingly, "I guess I'm a little like a rabbit."

Doc Maness was a school man. He was true blue in his loyalty to Duke University. He was a past president of the Duke Alumni Club and a member of the Duke Half-Century Club. Methodist College also found him to be a friend with a strong support. The Maness family established a scholarship fund in memory of Betty Ruth who was a senior there on April 4, 1964 - the day she died - the darkest day of their lives.

Doc Maness was a church man. He was born in the lap of Christian love and rocked in the cradle of Christian nurture. Both he and the Reverend Jack Page grew up in the same Ward home. Doc accepted his appointments with grace and did his work faithfully and well. He also served the Conference on the Board of College Visitors, Board of Evangelism, Town and Country Commission, and the Golden Cross Committee.

Most of all, Doc Maness was God's man. Holy things had been hammered out on the anvil of his soul. With the psalmist he could say, "My heart is fixed. O God, my heart is fixed." (57:7) In a sermon preached in Hay Street Church, Doc told of a secret he had learned from a trapeze artist. He quoted the circus entertainer as saying: "I stand on the high bar, with my heart in my hand. When all is still, and silent, and ready; I fling my heart away and then jump after it." In tender years, Madison Ward Maness sang times without number, "Give of your best to the Master; give of the strength of your youth". And he did! Late Thursday afternoon, Mary 15, as the sun was going down beyond Rowland and Robbins, Doc was in Highsmith-Rainey Hospital in Fayetteville. And when life grew still, and silent; he must have heard a voice he knew well saying, "All is ready". The doctor said he died; but I say he jumped - jumped after his heart and found himself "safe in the arms of Jesus".

Vernon C. Tyson

DAVID MORRILL TYSON

1916 - 1990

On Maundy Thursday, April 12, 1990, David Morrill Tyson received his inheritance as a faithful and obedient servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord saw fit to receive His servant into His eternal kingdom a few days following surgery and while in recuperation at Cravan Regional Medical Center in New Bern. Funeral services for Morrill were held on Saturday, April 14, at Riverdale UMC, near New Bern, the church from which Morrill entered the ministry. His nephew, the Reverence M. Dewey Tyson of Carrboro; his great-nephew, the Reverend M. Eugene Tyson of New Bern; and his son-in-law, the Reverend W. Edward Privette of Kinston, officiated at the funeral service. Morrill's pastor, the Reverend L. Graham Royall of Vanceboro, officiated, along with the Reverend Dewey Tyson, at the burial in the Conner Family Cemetery, also near New Bern.

Born in his home in Greene County, September 28, 1916, Morrill moved to the Riverdale community as a young adult, a decision that would make several profound differences in the remainder of his life. It was in this community that he would meet the young woman who would become his wife, Miss Eleanor Gray Wilcox. It was in this community that he would purchase a farm, a farm that would provide his livelihood for the next twelve years. It was in this community that his four daughters would be born, Ms. Patricia Tyson, now of Burlington; Mrs. Hilda Barrow, now of Vanceboro; Mrs. Eleanor Privette, now of Kinston, and Mrs. Linda Sloop, now of Lillington. It was in this community that he would find a church family with which to engage himself and his family, and it was in this community that Morrill Tyson would hear God's call to enter the ministry, a decision that was encouraged by the ministry of the Reverend Key Taylor.

At 36 years of age, and with a large family to support, Morrill entered the ministry in the NC Annual Conference, trusting in the grace and provision of a loving Lord. With that same spirit of trusting obedience, Morrill would enter the special program at Louisburg College for Methodist ministers, and would come under the guidance and tutelage of the Reverend C. Wade Goldston, a life-long friend and spiritual advisor.

From 1952 to Morrill's retirement in 1982, he served the people and the churches to whom he was assigned with keen pastoral insight, with loving counsel, and with an abiding love. He loved them; they loved him. In 1952, he was appointed to the Straits Charge, four churches on the coast; in 1956, two of these churches would become a separate charge, so he would serve the Williston-Smyrna Charge from 1956-63. He went to the Mamers Charge, near Lillington for one year. From 1964-69, he served the Vanceboro Church; from 1969-74, he served the Salem Church near Goldsboro; from 1974-77, he served the Rainbow Church near Snow Hill; and from 1977 until his retirement, he served the Benson-Elevation Charge. Always the "Preacher", and still "itching to preach" after his retirement, Morrill served the Wesley Church near Farmville for six years as a retired supply.

I knew Morrill Tyson as a very quiet and humble man. He was a man who strove with every whit of his being to emulate Jesus Christ. He wanted to be like Jesus, as much as was possible in this life. He never propelled himself to the front, preferring to stay in the background and let others be first. He was selfless to a fault, and he lived the servant life about which most of us only lovingly speak. He loved intensely; he loved in deed and not in words alone.

One of his favorite things to do with his time was to work in his garden. There was something about the miracle of planting, growing, and harvesting that attracted Morrill in the physical and in the spiritual realms.

Those who knew Morrill best, knew that nothing in this world was more important to him than his family. He was proud of his family; his wife, his daughters and their families, his Tyson nephews and their families. He prayed for his family; he worried over his family; he provided well for his family.

Morrill Tyson was a great man. His was not the greatness of wealth nor station; not the greatness of influence nor authority. His greatness was found in those characteristics that made Jesus a great man and the apostles great men. His greatness was in character, integrity, commitment to Christ, Godliness, holiness, truth, servanthood, and humility. These were the traits that have made Morrill Tyson a great man in the Kingdom of God.

MAUDE MAE PIKE NEWTON

Maude Mae Pike Newton was born into a Methodist minister's family, the seventh of nine children, on August 7, 1896 in Chattanooga, TN. The family moved to Carson City, NV in 1900, where their father worked with the Ute Indians and others in an Indian Mission, while their older brothers looked after the cows and the laying hens and their mother baked bread and held the family together. Maude's parents were naturalized American citizens from Toronto, Canada, though her mother was born and grew up in London, England.

About 1910, the family moved to the Seattle, WA area where Maude attended high school and worked for a number of years as a church secretary.

In 1920, she enrolled as a college student in Asbury College, Wilmore, KY, where she worked her way through college as the president's secretary. In 1924, she married a young theological student, Raymond Zenos Newton, who would become a minister in the NC Methodist Conference from 1936 to 1959. She worked as the college registrar while he spent three years in Asbury Theological Seminary and served as pastor of a small Methodist student circuit in the KY Conference.

After graduation in 1927, they accepted a home missions appointment from the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist Church to a small Methodist/Congregational church in Nome, Alaska, with outlying Eskimo mission stations in Unalakleet and elsewhere.

In 1930, they returned to Washington State and were in Mansfield for two years, in DuVal (near Seattle) for four years, and in Chelan briefly before moving to North Carolina in 1936.

In the NC Conference, they served Methodist charges in Swan Quarter, 1936-39; Pitsboro, 1939-43; Elizabethtown, 1943-47; Mt. Hermon, 1947-52; Cedar Grove, 1952-56; and Salem-Phillips Chapel, 1956-59. R. Z. retired in 1959.

During their time in NC, Mrs. Newton initiated a number of business education programs in local high schools and taught high school business most of those years. She earned a Master of Education degree in Business Education from UNC - Greensboro (Woman's College) in the late 1950's, followed by graduate certification as a high school counselor in the public schools. She spent the 1960's working as a part-time supervisor of counseling with the Alamance County Board of Education.

She spent the 1970's and the 1980's in the Wesleyan Arms Retirement Center in High Point. During this time she had a number of strokes which left her with a great deal of muscular paralysis, though her speech was not impaired for very long following each stroke. Her mind remained clear, though in her last years her memory for contemporary events was good while the events lasted, but fleeting once the events were over.

She was interred in the Friendship United Methodist Church cemetery in Burlington beside her husband, who died in 1959.

She is survived by two sons, Carl of Raleigh, born while the family was in Nome, AK; and David of Charlotte, born while they lived in DuVal, WA; two daughters-in-law; six grandchildren; and one great-granddaughter.

ELIZABETH FRANCES LOWE FOUTS

Elizabeth Frances Lowe Fouts was born December 3, 1903 in Northampton County to Atlas Adam Lowe and Roxanna Lassiter Lowe. She attended East Carolina University and was a public school teacher from 1926 to 1938. Later in 1949, she was ordained as a local deacon in the NC Conference of The Methodist Church.

Frances married the Reverend Dwight L. Fouts, a former Davidson County resident, who was admitted into the NC Conference in 1934. They faithfully served a number of Methodist church parishes in North Carolina over a period of 40 years: Scotland Neck, 1935; Jonesboro Heights in Sanford, 1939; Whiteville, 1943; Weldon, 1944; Hertford, 1948; Plymouth, 1950; Mt. Olive: First, 1955; and Beaufort: Ann Street, 1962. Theirs was a complete ministry, working together; and over the years, they devoted many hours in counseling and guidance with the younger ministers of the Conference.

In 1966, Frances and Dwight retired and moved to a beautiful home overlooking a lake in Davidson County beside Dwight's brother, Odell Fouts, and his wife, Elva. They enjoyed developing and nurturing a diverse range of fruits and vegetables in their garden there, and Frances canned and preserved food from the garden each year.

In retirement, Dwight continued to teach, supply local churches on a part-time basis, and assisted other ministers in the Lexington/Thomasville area. For more than a decade, they remained active, still about the Lord's work together.

After Dwight's sudden death on January 4, 1981, Frances moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham where she enjoyed being among many of her former parishners and friends at the home. In 1983, she suffered a massive stroke which left her unable to walk. She moved to the Coble Health Care Center at the Methodist Retirement Home where she resided until her death on October 15, 1989.

She was buried beside the earthly remains of Dwight in the Lexington City Cemetery.

DOROTHY LEE COLEY ROBERTS

Dorothy Coley Roberts was born January 9, 1926 in Wayne County, NC, daughter of James William and Dida Minshew Coley. Following several years of declining health, she died at Johnston Memorial Hospital on November 11, 1989. Funeral services were held at Princeton (JMC) on November 13 with the Reverends J. Paul Edwards, J. Malloy Owen, and Jean L. Hood. Interment was at Wayne Memorial Park, Goldsboro.

Dorothy was married to John Milton Roberts on December 24, 1945. They lived in Goldsboro until 1961, when John received his call to the ministry. Together they served faithfully, Harrells Charge, Salemburg, Faison, Stedman, and Princeton churches. Surviving in addition to her husband are two children, Dr. John M. Roberts, Jr. of Clinton, Lori Roberts Temple of Fayetteville, and a granddaughter, Amber Lee Temple of Fayetteville.

The Psalmist wrote, "our mouth was filled with laughter and our tongue with shouts of joy. The Lord has done great things with us." To all who knew Dot, she brought a unique joy to their lives. Always saying something that would bring laughter to those around her was a great attribute of hers. She seemed to have had more than her share of tragedy, not only in her family, but a long and lingering illness in her own life. But, even with these adversities, she was able to use her style of "off the cuff" humor to break the tenseness and bring moments of laughter to all. Her commitment to her family, church and Lord was with her whole heart. She would tease about having to move out of her home into a parsonage, but down deep she was extremely proud of her husband and the opportunity to serve the Lord with him. The Psalmist says, "The Lord laughs in heaven." He just may be laughing with Dot. She was dedicated to her husband, her children, and her Lord, and she was a woman of great laughter, much as the proverbial woman of the Scriptures, "Strength and dignity are her clothing, she laughs at the time to come. And her family did rise up and call her blessed.

One can only give thanks to God for Dorothy Roberts passing our way to enrich our lives and to help make the burdens of life a little easier. For her love and life, "We praise God from whom all blessings flow".

ORA MAE FLETCHER SEYMOUR

Ora Mae Fletcher Seymour was born in the tiny rural community of Obrien, FL, on February 5, 1921. She was the oldest of the two children of William Dewey and Velma Smith Fletcher. Dewey Fletcher, like most of the men in that part of the state, was a small farmer. Ora and her younger brother, Ralph, grew up among members of a large extended family during the Depression when farming was both a source of income and a source of all of the necessities of life. Financial problems forced the family to leave the farm during Ora's high school years. She continued to be influenced by the years in Obrien throughout her life. She strongly believed in the importance of family, the necessity of taking care of the gifts God gave you, and the dignity associated with hard work.

A lifelong love of mathematics led Ora to train to be a bookkeeper. In 1941 she accepted a bookkeeping job in a drug store in St. Augustine, FL. One of the first customers she was introduced to was Edgar Seymour. Ora and Ed were married on June 17, 1942. For more than half of their 43 years together, Ed was an officer in the US Marine Corps. Upon his retirement from the Marines, Ed made a decision to answer the call to the ministry.

Together, Ed and Ora served four charges in the New Bern District before poor health forced Ed to retire for a second time: Riverdale, Harlowe-Oak Grove, Pamlico Parish and Atlantic.

Ora supported Ed in everything he attempted to do. However, it would be misleading to describe her only in terms of a supportive wife. In her calm dignified way she left her own mark in each of the many places she lived during her adult life. Both in her professional work in accounting and in the many responsibilities she accepted in the church, she earned the respect of others. She never failed to work hard, give her best effort to every task and treat those around her with courtesy and consideration. Never one to back away from a challenge, she was always at her best when attempting something she had not tried before. One of her greatest sources of pride was the fact that she went to college for the first time at age 49.

In everything she did Ora conducted herself as a Christian and as a lady. She weighed every decision by her Christian values. Her priorities were always set by asking what God wanted her to do. Her interactions with others were influenced by her belief that everyone is a child of God and deserving of respect. In every way she was a living example of someone who made a daily effort to live by the beliefs and values that set Christians apart.

Ora died on January 2, 1990. Her funeral was conducted at Atlantic UMC in Atlantic by the Reverend Rick Ward. She is buried in the community cemetery across from the church next to Ed, who died in 1985. On her tombstone is the first line of her favorite hymn, "A charge to keep I have, a God to glorify".

Ora is survived by her daughter and a much loved son-in-law, Lynda and Jimmy Stainback of Atlantic.

Lynda Seymour Stainback

LOTA LEIGH DRAUGHON BAUM

1900 - 1990

Lota Leigh Baum was born in Edgecombe County, NC on April 11, 1900, the daughter of Lyman L. and Florence R. Draughon. Her early education was in local elementary schools, then on to Blackstone, VA; John Hopkins in Baltimore, MD; and was graduated from Trinity (Duke University) in Durham. She then taught school for several years in her hometown of Whitakers.

In 1929, Lota Leigh and the Reverend Herman B. Baum were married and began their life together in the Methodist Church and to the glory of God. For the next 34 years, they served at the following pastorates: South Camden, Currituck-Kitty Hawk, Four Oaks, Cary, Knightdale, Selma, Kipling, Norlina, and Ebenezer.

Lota Leigh Baum made an excellent helpmate to her husband. She made each parsonage a warm home, opening it up with affection, grace and hospitality at every opportunity. She reached out with love and compassion to help people with their special needs. She helped families get clothing, shoes, and glasses in order that the children could go to school. No need was too small to be overlooked or too large to be undertaken. She had a great love for books and knowledge and wanted all in the community to have access to books. She persuaded the townspeople to select a location and allot funds for libraries in two towns, the last being in Whitakers. She then organized and ran them until a librarian could be hired. Lota Leigh Baum used her nursing skills to assist the Red Cross. She contributed many hours of volunteer time in hospitals and blood mobiles. She dedicated her life to the care of others.

Herman and Lota Leigh Baum retired in 1963 to Whitakers. Herman's earthly life ended later that same year and Lota Leigh lived and served in her hometown until 1982 when she went to live at United Retirement Home in Newton, and later to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. March 17, 1990 brought to a close her years of service among God's people. A Memorial Service was held March 31, 1990 in Whitakers UMC, conducted by the Reverend Frances Browne.

Surviving are two daughters, Betty Barbour of Conover, and Becky Taylor of Hunstville, AL; a sister, Margaret Warren of Wilmington, OH, and a brother, Ernest Draughon of Wilmington, NC; five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

This "Special Lady" will always be missed, but what a beautiful living gift and example she left for all who knew and loved her.

RACHEL COPELAND EDWARDS MIZELLE

"What a remarkably happy life I've had." These heartwarming words were written by Rachel Copeland Edwards Mizelle in 1985 when she was seventy-seven years old. Her boundless love for family and church, her warm and cheerful nature, and her zest for living helped make life richer for her family, her friends, and all other fellow Christians who were fortunate enough to know her. Many of those who loved her were present when she died at the age of 82 on March 27, 1990, in Mt. Holly, NJ. Her funeral at the Windsor UMC and internment at Edgewood Cemetery were conducted by the Reverend Ralph Epps, pastor of the Edenton UMC.

The daughter of William Elisha and Rachel Tayloe Copeland, Rachel was born on their small family farm near Windsor on February 7, 1908. She had two older sisters, Mary Rhodes Eros and Bessie McCastlain, currently of Miami and Stuart, FL, respectively. The three of them always remained very close. A younger beloved brother, Robert, passed away in 1971.

When her father died prior to Rachel's sixth birthday, her strong and courageous mother raised the four young children on that 50 acre farm. "Mama urged us to live by high standards. She was also responsible for our ambition and determination that we could make something of ourselves." Rachel was to learn how to milk a cow, tend a garden, can fruits and vegetables, and pick cotton. After graduating from Windsor High School in 1925 she used her "cotton-picking" money (all $100) to help her attend Duke University.

At Duke she soon displayed her propensity for learning and for leading. She was elected president of the Women's Student Government Association, was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa and White Duchy, and was selected to the May Court. After graduating and receiving a Class A High School Blanket Certificate which allowed her to teach any subject in any department in the schools of NC, Rachel began her 40 year teaching career in Garner. Subsequently, she taught many subjects (mainly French, English, and mathematics) in every NC community to which the Conference sent her husband, the Reverend Earl B. Edwards.

Rachel married Earl on June 30, 1937. Together, they ministered to their congregations and also lovingly raised a son, Robert Earl, and a daughter, Sarah Frances. The use of the word "together" is especially applicable to Earl and Rachel. Not only did she teach Sunday School, lead Women's Circles, and deliver informative and inspiring talks at local and district functions, she also was a relied-upon partner on almost every pastoral call. To be sure her thoughts were found in many of Earl's sermons. They began each day - early - with some precious moments together over a cup of coffee. Theirs was truly a shared ministry. They served churches in Oakley (Asheville), Harmony, Bethel, and Rocky Ridge in Concord, Belhaven, Pantego, Winfall, Cedar Grove, Oak Grove, New Hope, Woodland, Edenton, Person Street in Fayetteville, LaGrange, Four Oaks, Antioch, Corinth, Gatesville, Zion, Philadelphia, City Road in Elizabeth City, and Biscoe.

Rachel also enjoyed the creative life - she adored poetry, and became a competent painter. Her pictures are proudly displayed in many homes of family members who treasure her work as well as her money. She was a warm hostess and an excellent cook who could make crowder peas seem like a King's meal.

After Earl died in 1968, Rachel returned to Windsor. She proved "you can go home again". She continued her work in the Eastern Star, immediately became active in her "new" community, and was a contributor to the life of the Windsor UMC. One of the church members was an old childhood sweetheart, Raymond L. Mizelle. In February of 1970, Raymond's faithfulness culminated in his marriage to Rachel. Thus began a second life for Rachel, one which was filled again with devotion, love, and service. Together, they read and stayed current in politics and world events. They also bought a home in Windsor - the first that either of them had ever owned. Rachel's family became Raymond's. Ultimately, that family grew to include six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren who were warmly embraced in the expanding family. According to grandson Tay, "Whenever I visited her, Grandmother made me feel like a prince."

Rachel's devotion to God's work never wavered even as her physical strength did. Forced to rely on a walker by crippling arthritis but strengthened by her faith, she still taught Sunday School at a retirement home in Windsor. Following Raymond's death at age 86 in 1988, Rachel's own health declined. She was lovingly and closely cared for by her children, Sarah Frances Fedota of Atlanta, and Robert Earl Edwards of Mt. Holly, N.J.

Aunt Rachel chose to accentuate the positive in her life. One always received the clear impression that she focused on happy events, not sad ones. She was faithful to God and a tireless worker for all His children. That is the legacy she leaves us.

Her niece,
Rachel McCastlain Hill

MARGARET ELIZABETH MULLEN THOMPSON

1905 - 1990

Margaret M. Thompson was born in Durham on November 21, 1905, and died at Carolina Medical Center in Charlotte on April 19, 1990. Church service was held in the chapel of Providence UMC in Charlotte at 11:00 a.m., April 21, 1990, and conducted by the Reverend Wanda Ogden. Graveside service was held at 3:30 p.m. at Maplewood Cemetery, Durham, and was conducted by Dr. Wallace H. Kirby, district superintendent of the Durham District.

Survivors include one son, David A. Thompson of Charlotte; two sisters, Mrs. Rachel M. Reed of Durham, and Mrs. Belle M. Newton of Burlington; and five grandchildren.

Margaret was graduated from NC College for Women in Greensboro, and also attended Duke University. For over 40 years, she was a teacher in the Durham City Elementary Schools and was well-loved by all of her pupils. She was honored at a banquet upon her retirement in 1970. In later years, she would meet one of her "pupils", and this was always a joyous occasion for her.

She was the daughter of Rosser B. and Nettie McCall Mullen. Her maternal grandfather was the Reverend Francis Bragg McCall who was a member of the NC Conference for 48 years. Her paternal grandfather, the Reverend Robert H. Mullen, was a member of the VA Conference.

On August 19, 1934, Margaret was married to the Reverend Arnold C. Thompson in Dunn by the Reverend J. A. Russell. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a wonderful helpmate to her husband. She served the following appointments: West Burlington, Andrew's Chapel, Moncure, Battleboro, Columbia, and West End. After the last appointment, it became necessary to retire from the Conference due to illness. He died December 2, 1947.

Margaret was a faithful and loyal member of Calvary UMC in Durham, having joined April 4, 1945. She served in the following capacities - chairperson of Council on Ministries, member of the Administrative Board, was a delegate to the NC Conference for several years, and a teacher in the Junior department for many years. When she was asked to teach the Annie Bowen Bible Class, she gladly accepted, taught it for many years, and was a wonderful teacher. During this time, she also helped Richard Butler set up the church library. She spent many hours cataloging books, etc., where many books were given in memory of lived ones.

She made the decision to move to Charlotte to be near David, her son and his family, and left Durham on October 1, 1988. Calvary UMC indeed lost a wonderful member and a loving friend. We are sure that when she passed away, she was welcomed with a, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant".

MARY DECIE LUTHER CUTHRELL

1913 - 1990

Mary Decie Luther Cuthrell was born on a snowy Valentine's Day, February 14, 1913, in Wake County near Apex. After a long battle with cancer she died on May 17, 1990, in Roanoke Rapids. Her funeral was conducted by the Reverend Henry Lovelace at First UMC in Apex. She was laid to rest beside her husband, the Reverend Harold Glenn Cuthrell, at Oak Grove Cemetery in Maxton.

She is survived by one son, Glenn; one daughter-in-law, Patsy; and by two grandsons, Jonathan and David. Her son and his family live in Roanoke Rapids. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Jessie McCotter, of Willow Springs.

Mary Decie was educated in the Apex schools and was a 1934 graduate of Meredith College. She taught public school music in Fairmont and Aurora. In 1939, she married the Reverend Harold Glenn Cuthrell, and together they served churches in Marshallberg and Maxton. Following her husband's early retirement in 1951 due to throat cancer, she renewed her teaching certificate. She taught in Maxton and Laurinburg, retiring in 1978. After retirement, she returned to her childhood home in Apex.

She was a talented musician and a dedicated teacher in both school and church. She was a Sunday School teacher for well over 40 years. In fact, she continued to teach Sunday School even after her illness had considerably weakened her.

Decie, as she was affectionately known by her grandsons, was no stranger to adversity or to duty. She was forced to support her family after her husband's illness. After his untimely death at age 50, she raised and educated her son. During her last year, she fought her relentless disease with unbelievable energy, determination, and grace. Her courageous struggle and calm acceptance of physical death will forever serve as sources of inspiration for her family. Because Christ lived with her for 77 years, she knew that courage in the face of physical death would be her greatest triumph. We look forward to seeing her in heaven.

ETHELYNDE MANN BALLANCE

Ethelynde Ballance was born October 28, 1917, in Nebraska, NC to Marcus A. and Eliza Lumpson Ballance. She began her education in 1923 and graduated from high school in 1934. In 1938, she received an A.B. degree from East Carolina Teachers College, now ECU, in Greenville. During her pursuit in education, she worked in her father's general store in Nebraska. She taught school in Gum Neck, Tyrell County, from 1939 to 1944, and in Columbia High School from 1944 to 1947.

She attended Scarritt College Rural Center, Crossville, TN in 1947. She was affiliated with the Tyrell County Rural Project from 1947 to 1952. In 1952, she entered Scarritt College, Nashville, TN, and was graduated with an M.A. degree in June of 1954.

She was commissioned a deaconess in the UMC in 1954 in Milwaukee, WI.

From 1954 to 1959, she was affiliated with the Roberdel Area Rural Center in Richmond County.

She became director of Christian Education in the Raeford UMC at Raeford in 1959, and served her church faithfully for 20 years, retiring in 1979.

Like Abraham, Ethelynde went out in faith, totally committed to her God and to her fellow man. Each day was a joy and a pleasure to this fine Christian lady, for each day was another creation of Almighty God. She looked forward to the moments she could share God's love with someone - anyone. Ethelynde was a devoted, loving, caring, ambassador of Jesus Christ.

On May 25, 1990, Ethelynde died in Moore Regional Hospital at Pinehurst. A memorial service was held in the Raeford UMC by the Reverend Joe Forbes and the Reverend Arthur W. Winstead on May 27, 1990. Burial followed at Amity UMC cemetery in Hyde County near the village where she spent her childhood. She is survived by a sister, Miss Bernice Ballance of Lillington, who is also a deaconess in the UMC.

To her colleagues, Ethelynde was a dynamic minister of Jesus Christ. To those she taught, she was an effective teacher. To me, she was a friend.

Conference Legislation, Reports, and Resolutions

SECTION V

A. LEGISLATION

CONFERENCE CLERGY LIVING COMMITTEE

The NC Conference Clergy Living Committee was formed in 1987 and assigned three tasks. They were to form an Arbitration Committee to settle differences between charges and pastors upon request of the district superintendent, to publish an annual newsletter, and to update the Parsonage Minimum Standards brochure. The Arbitration Committee was formed in 1988 and is available upon request of the district superintendent. The first annual newsletter was published in the spring of 1990 and was sent to every pastor serving a church and to the Pastor Parish Relations chairperson in each church in the Conference. The Parsonage Minimum Standards brochure was updated in the fall of 1988 and approved at the 1989 Annual Conference. This brochure has been printed and was sent out in the annual newsletter and is available from the Methodist Building.

Below are the new Parsonage Minimum Standards as approved by the 1989 Annual Conference:

A Parsonage Guide

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the North Carolina Annual Conference that every pastoral charge shall provide housing (either by furnishing a parsonage or an adequate housing allowance set by the charge conference but recommended by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in consultation with the pastor) for the pastor and his/her family.

It is recommended that in each pastoral charge having a parsonage committee, which shall be elected by the charge conference upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel, that said committee shall be amenable to the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and work closely with trustees in providing adequate housing for the pastor. (Reference is made to The Parsonage Committee in ¶2532.3 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.) This Committee should meet twice yearly at the parsonage. In charges of more than one church, each church should be represented on the Committee according to the percentage of ownership. Ex-officio members of the Committee should include the pastor, the pastor's spouse, chairperson of the trustees, and chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.

The following suggestions are standards toward which to work. They are given so that the pastoral charge shall know what is expected of it, and that the parsonage family may know what to expect:

THE HOUSE

1. Minimum of three bedrooms (four are preferable) with ample closet space in each
2. A family room with book shelves, preferably separate and apart from the kitchen
3. Kitchen with ample built-in cabinets and large enough for family eating space, or a breakfast nook
4. Area large enough for washer, dryer
5. Two full baths
6. Living room, large enough for parsonage entertaining
7. A dining room is desirable, but where there is no dining room, the dining area should adjoin the living room in a living-dining room combination.
8. A home study in the parsonage is a desirable option in addition to the church office-study. It should have an outside entrance and be suitably equipped.
9. Garage with electric doors or a carport
10. Dry storage space
11. Adequate heating and air conditioning equipment and insulation, including storm or thermal pane windows and doors

12. Adequate rotary TV antenna or cablevision hook-up, if available. The purpose of this recommendation is to save the roof of the house from excessive wear due to moving antennas.
13. Uninterrupted utilities (electricity, water, gas, phone) in the name of the charge
14. All charges should fill fuel tanks for incoming parsonage families, effective June 1990.

THE FURNISHINGS

The pastoral charge should provide:

1. All heavy furnishings, including electric or gas range, refrigerator with freezer compartment, water heater, washer, dryer, and a dishwasher. (A garbage disposal and a freezer are desirable options.)
2. Bedroom, dining room, den and living room furniture
3. Good mattresses, floor covering, shades, blinds, curtains or draperies in all rooms
4. Some lamps and occasional tables
5. Discarded furniture should not be used in furnishing the parsonage
6. The minister's family should provide linens, blankets, pillows, baby beds, dishes, china, crystal, silverware, cooking utensils, radio, TV, and other personal items which they desire.
7. The charge should provide for storage of unused parsonage furnishings and the pastor provide for storage of the pastor's furnishings.
8. An up-to-date inventory of furnishings which includes dates of purchases and costs. This should be reviewed and updated at each Committee meeting.

PARSONAGE GROUNDS

Parsonage grounds should have foundation shrubbery, shade trees, adequate yard space for children, paved driveway and walks, and power mower.

CARE OF PROPERTY

A clean parsonage is much to be desired by all. It is urged that a parsonage family keep the home clean and attractive.

Any abuse of the furnishings or house beyond normal wear should be the responsibility of the parsonage family.

The following pet policy consistent with the standard policy for rental property is established.

1. The pet owner is responsible for any property damage caused by pet(s).
2. The pet owner must conform to all state and local ordinances.
3. The pet owner is responsible for liability for any injury caused by the pet(s).
4. The pet owner is responsible for professional pest extermination of the parsonage when moving.

Walls, woodwork, and exterior should be painted as needed. The expense of painting, sanding and refinishing floors, repairs, periodic pest extermination, cleaning of carpets and draperies, are expenses to be borne by the church.

It is the responsibility of the parsonage family to leave the parsonage clean and in good condition when they move to another charge. As close to moving time as possible, each family should wash windows, screens and window sills, and leave curtains, draperies, carpets, shades, and blinds clean. Special attention should be given to closets, cabinets, and drawers. Bathrooms, kitchens, storage rooms, and attics should be clean. Refrigerators and stoves as well as all other appliances should be clean and in working order. Check light fixtures, exhaust fans, hot and cold air ducts to assure cleanliness. The parsonage yard should be well groomed.

The following information should be left by the pastor for his/her successor: All warranties, repair parts lists, instructions for use of equipment belonging to the parsonage, and an inventory including dates of purchase and cost of parsonage furnishings. The pastor should indicate when and from whom equipment was purchased, and whom to call for service. The pastor should leave, also, a list of persons to call for various reasons, where to find various items, and when and by whom various improvements are made.

THE PARSONAGE COMMITTEE

The persons responsible for the parsonage should have a current inventory of parsonage furnishings. A copy of the inventory should be given to the minister and the trustees of the parsonage property. This inventory should include date of purchase of each item listed, its cost, and dates of renovations and repairs.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should meet with the pastor and his/her spouse twice annually. Furnishings should be evaluated at this time to decide the condition of pieces, to discard unacceptable items, check for needed repairs, and replace items if needed. The charge shall maintain adequate insurance for the replacement of parsonage and furnishings. The pastor is responsible for insurance on the family's personal possessions.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should recommend to the Finance Committee an amount to be set aside each year, or included in the budget, for repairs and maintenance. A special parsonage maintenance fund should be established. A minimum of 1% per year of the replacement value of the parsonage should be placed in this fund, and this should continue to accrue until the fund reaches a minimum of 5% of the replacement value of the parsonage and then be maintained at that level. Each charge conference is urged to designate the chair of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee, chair of trustees, or chair of parsonage committee to make decisions for emergency replacements and/or repairs. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor/Staff Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.

BUILDING OR RENOVATING A PARSONAGE

In all matters pertaining to the location, renovation, and building of a parsonage, the Discipline should be consulted. The required legislation related to the above is found in ¶¶2535-2543 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.

Parsonage sites should be selected that will hold their value and be a wise investment, preferably in a sub-division. Whenever a new parsonage is built, its many uses should be considered.

Churches building new parsonages should be responsive to the handicapping procedures in the state building codes. Congregations receiving parsonage families with handicapping conditions should be responsive to their housing needs.

(Guidelines may be secured by writing: Director of Ministerial Relations, NC Annual Conference, P O Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.)

Arbitration Policy - Clergy Living Committee

The 1987 NC Annual Conference Session created the Clergy Living Committee whose responsibilities include "to hear unreconciled problems regarding parsonage usage and to recommend solutions and alternatives" (1987 Conference Journal, page 326).

The following is a proposed policy for the Clergy Living Committee to carry out this Annual Conference mandate:

1. Provision for clergy housing is the responsibility of the local church.
2. Issues regarding housing should be resolved between the clergy family and the local church.
3. If housing matters cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of all involved parties, the respective District Superintendent should be invited for mediation by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.
4. The Arbitration Sub-committee of the Conference Clergy Living Committee may only be invited to arbitrate clergy housing issues at the initiative of the District Superintendent. Travel expenses will be borne by the Clergy Living Committee.

5. The sub-committee shall come to the local church or charge to hear the concerns of all interested parties, and offer recommendations and/or solutions that shall be mutually binding.
6. Recommendations and solutions offered by the sub-committee shall be consistent with the parsonage standards of the North Carolina Conference.

Randy Wall, Convenor

Arbitration Sub-committee members: Randy Wall, Convenor; Robert Baldrige, Al Horne, Leo Thompson, Thomas Supplee, Matthew E. Perry

Committee Members: Jeanne Rouse, Chairperson; Juanita Register, vice-chairperson; Randy Wall, secretary; Alvin M. Horne, Norma Morrison, Thomas B. Supplee, Matthew E. Perry, Eleanor Privette, Charles L. Pollock, Kermit L. Braswell, Leo C. Thompson, William W. Sherman, Jr., Evelyn Watson, Brenda Jones

Jeanne Rouse, Chairperson

CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT, COMMITTEE ON

We recommend that since 1991 is a year for electing delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, the North Carolina Annual Conference should remain at Methodist College in 1991, but look into the possibility of using the new Riddle Center for the 1991 plenary sessions of the Annual Conference.

Rationale:

The costs of building a removable stage, renting padded folding chairs, sound system, and other pertinent equipment and supplies for meeting in Riddle Center need to be investigated and evaluated.

Margie G. Mann, Chairperson

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Program and Budget Timelines

From The Book of Discipline, 1988:

All Annual Conference agencies shall submit the elements of programs which are to be promoted in, supported by, or implemented by the local churches of the conference to the council for consideration, coordinating, and calendaring prior to presentation to the local churches. The council may request district or Annual Conference agencies to implement a program for the entire conference.

The council staff shall be responsible, in cooperation with the district superintendents, for the implementation of the conference program. (¶1726.9b and c)

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

P4. Advance Special: That each local church shall consider giving to at least one project in each lane of the Advance: World, Missionary Salary Support, National, UMCOR, and Conference, thereby becoming a Rainbow Covenant Church.

A. Lane One: World Missions

- 1) Special Emphasis: Leadership Development for Clergy and Laity. Guatemala (009680-4 R-A). Church leaders have been persecuted and many have been killed. Training is needed for members as they struggle to survive. This project selected to coordinate with the 1991 Missions Study on Central America.
- 2) Ganta Mission. Liberia, Africa. Elementary School (not yet available). Funds are needed to operate and renovate this United Methodist School. Herbert and Mary Zigbuo, missionaries from our Conference, work with the elementary school.
- 3) Developing Theological Community for Evangelism. Peru. (010638-0 R-A). A program operated by the seminary in Lima, Peru, to equip the laity for carrying out pastoral duties, especially evangelism, outreach and congregational development.
- 4) Andean Rural Health Care Program, LK. Bolivia. (010158-2 R-A) To provide vaccinations, nutritional monitoring of children, prenatal care, and other preventive health care services.
- 5) Africa Church Growth and Development: General (008233-0 H-T), Leadership development (008237-4 B-T), Evangelism (008235-2 A-T), Construction (008231-7 A-N). The United Methodist Church is experiencing phenomenal growth in Africa. For example, during the first five years of the program United Methodists in Zaire doubled in number from 210,000 to 420,000. Membership is growing faster than the funds available to build new churches. There are more seminary candidates than there are scholarships. Give through any of the four designations to be a part of this new frontier in mission!
- 6) Persons in Mission (007685-2 H-T) Some of our colleague churches in other countries are calling local missionaries to serve in their own countries. In addition, international exchanges of missionaries are serving to spread the Word in new ways, in new places, with new vigor. Churches in the U.S.A. now have an opportunity to participate in these dynamic new ministries through the Advance.

- 7) Partner Churches in Crisis (010068-0) A program which helps colleague churches to meet immediate human needs such as emergency salary support or food supplements for church workers; provide institutional necessities such as equipment for hospitals, supplies for publishing houses, support for child-care facilities; and prevent the collapse of churches themselves.
 - 8) Any other World Advance Special as listed in Partnership in Missions.
- B. Lane Two: National Missions
- 1) Special Emphasis: Jayuya Dispensary, Mameyes. Puerto Rico (352431-8) A United Methodist Dispensary that provides medical care, medicines, and health education in poor communities. A way to respond to human need as the rebuilding from the destruction wrought by Hurricane Hugo continues.
 - 2) Parish Partners--USA: Alaska Missionary Conference (931027-4), Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference (583634-4), Puerto Rico Conference (352696-6), Rio Grande Conference (531733-1). The ministries and local churches of these conferences serve persons whose income is below the poverty line and who are struggling for survival, identity, and dignity as children of God.
 - 3) Robeson County Church and Community Center Program Support, Lumberton, N.C. (791742-0) An ecumenical ministry in a tri-racial community which is designed to help local churches meet emergency needs.
 - 4) Hinton Rural Life Center, Hayesville, N.C. (731372-2--Program and 731374-4--Expansion/Renovation of Facilities) Ministries focus on training needs and development of churches in town and rural settings.
 - 5) Southeastern Jurisdiction Association for Native American Ministries, Pembroke, N.C. (791842-4) To help meet the needs of 130,000+ Native Americans living in the 17 annual conferences of the Southeast.
 - 6) Society of Saint Andrew Potato Project (801600-0) To undergird the Potato Project, a national ministry of distributing potatoes which are good but commercially unsalable.
 - 7) Any other National Advance Special as listed in Partnership in Missions.
- C. Lane Three: Missionary Salary Support
- The missionaries listed below are assigned to the NC Annual Conference by the General Board. Biographicals are available in the Conference Missions Office. They are listed below according to their need for support, with those listed first having the greatest need.
- 1) Mary Zibuo. Ganta Mission School. Liberia, West Africa. (#010721-4) Mary, from Trinity UMC in Durham, was commissioned in 1988. She serves along with her husband, Herbert, who is a national worker in his own country. Mary's work is in the Elementary School and as a Guidance Counselor.
 - 2) Jeff & Eleanor Lockwood. Burundi, Africa. (#010201-7) He has a degree in agriculture from NC State and is qualified as an irrigation designer. Eleanor has a degree in natural resources and has studied zoning and municipal administration.
 - 3) Jack & Barbara Theis. Korea. (#003778-2) Jack works in the headquarters of the Korean Methodist Church Board of Missions, Evangelism, and Social Responsibility. Barbara does full-time seminary teaching and conducts English and Bible Classes for women.

- 4) Ronald Schooler. Italy. (#003486-8) Ron is pursuing further schooling to continue his teaching ministry. He has served in Algeria, Tunisia, and Zaire.
- 5) Vickie Sigmon. USA. (#982916-8) Vickie works with the Yokefellow Prison Ministry in North Carolina.
- 6) Brenda Connelly. USA. (#982937-4) Brenda serves as the Director of the Robeson County Church and Community Center in Lumberton, NC.
- 7) Richard Connelly. USA. (#982919-) Richard is the Housing Director and Community Developer at the Robeson County Church and Community Center in Lumberton, NC.
- 8) Shirley Townsend-Jones. USA. (#982995-5) Shirley is a Church and Community Worker at the Robeson County Church and Community Center in Lumberton, NC.
- 9) Robert & Hazel Terhune. Japan. (#003773-6) Robert serves a local church in Tokyo, Nishi Arai Church. Hazel works as an evangelist and teacher of English.
- 10) James & Josephine Gaston. Haiti, West Indies. (#009426-8) James is an instructor in a technical school, teaching mechanical engineering. Josephine is a public health and child-care educator.
- 11) James & JoAnn Goodwin. Brazil. (#002143-4) James and JoAnn are working in Linhares, Espirito Santo, a new frontier-type town, with a new mission church.
- 12) Ruth Ann Robinson. Bolivia. (#003391-0) Ruth Ann works with the Conference in Bolivia in the areas of promotion and development of resources.
- 13) Any other missionaries sent out by the Board of Global Ministries.

D. Lane Four: UMCOR

- 1) Special Emphasis: Street Children, Brazil (714808-6) To provide a living center for the street children of Sao Paulo.
- 2) World Hunger/Poverty (982920-4) These funds are used to provide both short-term crisis relief and long-term developmental assistance to eliminate the root causes of hunger.
- 3) Heifer Project International (982530-8--General Program, 982532-1--Living Gift Program) Provides food-producing animals and training in /their care to needy families who then pass on the gift by sharing the offspring with others.
- 4) CROP/Church World Service Community Hunger Appeal (982380-1) Funds raised by a local church in a CROP event can receive UMCOR credit. For necessary forms contact: Carolinas CROP Office, 1006 Lamond Avenue, Durham, NC 27701.
- 5) Habitat. Philippines. (240405-5) To help people build houses through Habitat's self-help program.
- 6) Any other UMCOR Advance Special listed in Partnership in Missions or any UMCOR emergency appeal.

E. Lane Five: Conference Advance

- 1) Special Emphasis: Chatham Hispanic Ministries. A ministry to a rapidly growing Hispanic population in Siler City and Pittsboro, served by a full-time Spanish-speaking pastor appointed by the Conference. In addition to the development of worship, study, and fellowship opportunities, the ministry provides much needed human services such as English lessons, needs for housing, clothing, food, transportation, and community orientation.

- 2) Walnut Terrace Child Development Center. Offers a unique program of child care for children aged 6 weeks to 5 years, promoting Christian values in a warm and caring environment within which children can grow emotionally, socially, intellectually, and spiritually. Serves children primarily from low-income families.
 - 3) Ethnic Minority Local Church Projects in the Rockingham District. To assist ethnic churches with critical program needs. Projects to be selected by a committee in the district.
 - 4) Yokefellow Prison Ministries. To educate church people concerning our Christian responsibility for people affected by crime and bring church people into direct service ministries with prison inmates and their families through in-prison visitation with Yokefellow groups and family support groups.
 - 5) Food Bank of North Carolina. To provide operating costs for distribution of food to hunger programs throughout eastern North Carolina.
 - 6) Conference Mission Work Teams. A fund which provides help for short-term volunteers on work teams in the United States and abroad.
 - 7) Isa Grant Scholarship Fund. A fund which provides work team scholarships for persons who could not otherwise participate in a work team experience, especially young adults.
 - 8) North Carolina United Methodist Migrant Ministry. To provide health care, educational assistance, child care, and spiritual guidance to migrant workers in the Goldsboro area.
 - 9) All District Board of Mission/Missions Societies. (Funds should be sent directly to the District Board and reported at year-end on Table II as "Conference Advance.")
 - 10) All human need projects, church extension projects, and special offerings approved by District Board of Missions/District Councils on Ministries as Conference Advance Projects. (Funds should be sent directly to District Boards of Missions (District COM if no Board of Missions in district) and reported at year-end as "Conference Advance.") Contact your District Superintendent for a listing of these projects.
 - 11) All new churches less than five years old. Funds should be sent directly to District Board of Missions (District COM if no Board of Missions in District) and reported at year-end on Table II as "Conference Advance."
 - 12) The following United Methodist institutional programs and projects:
 - a) United Methodist Camps--to help with scholarships and other special needs at Chestnut Ridge, Don-Lee, Kerr Lake and Rockfish.
 - b) Wesley Foundations at Duke, UNC-CH, ECU, NCSU, PSU, which provide United Methodist student ministries on our campuses.
 - c) General Scholarship Funds at Louisburg, Methodist College, Wesleyan, and Duke Divinity School.
 - d) Benevolent Funds of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.
 - e) Benevolent Funds of the Methodist Home for Children.
- P5. That the annual conference approve district projects for Advance specials in accordance with ¶727.4 of The Book of Discipline 1988. This insures that local churches making Advance specials on a district level and reported to the annual conference as conference advance specials will receive credit.

RECOMMENDATION FROM THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Ministries recommends to the 1990 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference the rule governing staff tenure be suspended to permit Paul Phillips to remain as Associate Director of Camping Ministries to oversee the completion of work on the Conference Camps made possible by the Conference Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign. (This extension is subject to a positive recommendation from the Conference Council on Ministries Personnel Committee and the Conference Council on Ministries annually.)

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION ASBURY HOMES, INC.

We, the undersigned, natural persons of the age of eighteen years or more, and members of The United Methodist Church, do make and acknowledge these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of forming a not-for-profit corporation under and by virtue of Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of the State of North Carolina.

ARTICLE I - NAME

1.01 The name of the Corporation shall be the Asbury Homes Incorporated.

ARTICLE II - PERIOD OF DURATION

2.01 The period of duration of this Corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSES

The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are:

- 3.01 To render needed ministries and/or services to persons with Handicapping Conditions to the end that they may have the opportunity of maximizing their human potential to live, work, and be productive members of society;
- 3.02 To develop and operate appropriate residential services for such persons as may be needed in order that such individuals may live as normally and as independently as possible;
- 3.03 To coordinate such residential services with other community agencies, both public and private, to insure an effective plan for services to be delivered and provided for the residents of such homes and/or facilities.
- 3.04 To provide appropriate programming and training in all related areas of services as will assist the residents of such home and/or facilities to learn, develop, and become responsible citizens in the community;
- 3.05 To work closely with the United Methodist Church in the North Carolina Annual Conference and its various programs of ministry and the Church at-large to provide for a comprehensive and coordinated ministry that will insure that the services and programs of this corporation will measure up to the highest standards of care given in this field of service and ministry.
- 3.06 To raise, solicit, secure and administer funds, assets, charitable trusts, and trusts for benevolent and philanthropic purposes in line with any of the above stated purposes, subject to the North Carolina Annual Conference and the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church..
- 3.07 The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations under Section 501 (c) (iii) of the Internal Revenue Service Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Service Law.
- 3.08 No Substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying of the propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, including the publishing of or distribution of statements, and political campaign of any candidate for public office.

- 3.09 Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by:
 (a) A corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (c) (iii) of the Internal Revenue Service Code of 1954 or any future United State internal Revenue Service Law.
- 3.10 The persons served and the programs designed to serve and minister by, with and for persons with handicapping conditions shall be without regard to race, color, creed, sex or national origins.

NC STATE COMMISSION ON CAMPUS MINISTRY BY-LAWS AMENDMENT

(By vote of the NC and WNC Annual Conference June 1990.)

The State Commission proposes that the Annual Conference approve the following amendment to the by-laws of the North Carolina State Commission on Campus Ministry as adopted in 1980 and amended in 1982, 185, and 1989.

Amend Article VI - "Executive Committee" as follows:

Add an additional sentence at the end of paragraph two, The Commission shall ensure that the executive committee will be race and gender inclusive by adding two members at large if necessary to accomplish this purpose.

The amended paragraph would then read: The membership of the executive committee shall consist of the elected officers of the Commission, the chairperson of the Finance Committee, the cabinet representatives of both Annual Conferences, the executive directors of Campus Ministry in each Annual Conference, and one campus minister without vote on personnel matters selected annually from the two campus ministers on the State Commission on a rotating basis. The Commission shall ensure that the executive committee will be race and gender inclusive by adding two members at large if necessary to accomplish this purpose.

II. Campus Ministry/Trustee NominationsBOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY*

1. COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES

How college trustees are selected: The nominating committee of each board of trustees selects a list of nominees to fill vacancies and submits these along with a biographical statement to the full board at its fall meeting; the individual boards of trustees approve these and they are submitted to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry for consideration at its spring meeting. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry has biographical information supplied to it by each institution of higher education. The Board of Higher Education approves the new nominations at its spring meeting, and then presents them to the North Carolina Conference for approval at its June meeting.

DIACONAL MINISTRY, BOARD OF

As this ministry continues to expand and evolve, we see the fruits of our labors as a board and as ministers.

Once again, due to the rise of interest in Diaconal Ministry, we sent three people to a jurisdictional mentor and board training event in the Fall of 1989. They returned spiritually enriched as well as better equipped to work with diaconal ministers in our Conference.

We have followed through with our promise, and the Discipline mandate, to educate others in the role and function of diaconal ministry. In March, 1990, the board, diaconal ministers, the cabinet, and the bishop met for the first time to share and learn from each other. Special information files containing the relationship to the district superintendents, brochures, and pertinent information have been given to each district superintendent to aid them in their work with diaconals in their district.

This year, we are pleased to present to the Annual Conference three persons who will be consecrated as diaconal ministers during the ordination/consecration service. They are: Sue Ellen Nicholson - Trinity UMC, Durham; Susan Parker - St. Luke UMC, Sanford; and Cynthia Powell - First UMC, Graham. They have complied with the academic, psychological, and spiritual requirements for this ministry.

We continue to have six candidates in ministry as they pursue their calling (Laurie Schoelkopf, Robin Marley, Mark Gourley, Andrew Preston, Elaine Lilliston, Bess Edwards Sawyer), and three pilgrims who are beginning this process. And, as a board, we continue to work with church educators and musicians across our Conference as we annually certify, recertify, and renew ministers, directors, and associate directors in education and music. We also received verification of Mr. Herb Stout's recertification as a United Methodist church business administrator.

Carol Dell Strange, Chairperson; Margaret Anne Biddle, Registrar

The Board of Diaconal Ministry recommends the following Salary Scale for 1991:

	A	B	C	D	E	F	G
Title	Diaconal Minister			Lay Professional		Certified Professional
Degree	Masters	BA	Masters	BA	BA	BA	Masters
Exper.	1+	7+	4+	None	4+	4+	4+
Base Salary	$21,006	$19,389	$26,047	$13,654	$16,931	$18,160	$19,160

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate of those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1990 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference. The medical form should be completed and acted upon by the General Board of Pensions prior to the submission of the application.
2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require psychological examinations of those seeking disability when deemed necessary by the Committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the Committee, and in such a case the Committee will bear the expense of the examination.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. The medical reports will be sent to the medical consultant of the Joint Committee on Disability for an interpretation of the pastor's disabling conditions, who in turn will submit a medical report on the required form to the Joint Committee on Disability for action. All materials will then be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pensions, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan. From July, 1981 to December, 1981, disability benefits were paid through coverage as adopted by the 1981 Session of the Annual Conference. Beginning on January 1, 1982, disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions were transferred to coverage under the new Comprehensive Protection Plan.

4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan may be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Disability. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance and Life Insurance may be paid also by the Joint Committee on Disability.
5. Those pastors on Disability Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
6. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
7. We recommend that a monthly grant of $300.00 will be made for the first six months a pastor is granted Disability Leave. At the end of six months this grant will terminate.
8. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Joint Committee on Disability will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.

A. Clingman Carter Capps	F. William Robert King (FLP)
B. Frederick F. Dillon (AM)	G. Robert Fullerton McKee
C. James Wesley Hicks (AM)	H. James Earl McLendon
D. Clifton Riddick Hollowell	I. Evander Parnell (AM)
E. Arnold Kimsey King, Jr.
10. We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time:

Virgil L. Free
11. Who have been placed on Disability Leave since the last Annual Conference?

George C. Smith
12. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities. It is further recommended that housing needs and other special problems of our disabled pastors be considered by these congregations and communities in the light of the contribution made to our United Methodist Church by those on disability during their years of service. We can all become better stewards of the gift of life and skill as we share in this ministry of caring and concern.

EQUITABLE SALARIES, COMMISSION ON

Part 1

By disciplinary provision and moral obligation, the Commission on Equitable Salaries is instructed "to support ordained ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference by (1) recommending Conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." (Discipline, ¶ 722.2)

The above provision often places the Commission in a contradictory position. "Assumption of the obligations of the itineracy, required to be made at the time of admission into the traveling connection, puts upon the Church the counterobligation of providing support for the entire ordained ministry of the Church." (Discipline, ¶ 717) "The Commission shall carefully study the needs for...additional support within the Conference and the sources of income, and shall recommend annually to the Conference for its action a schedule of minimum salaries for all full-time pastors or those clergy members of the Annual Conference appointed less than full time to a local church, subject to such rules and regulations as the Conference may adopt." (Discipline, ¶722.3) In other words, ministers are required to spend considerable expense, time, and energy in preparing for and executing ministry. Common sense recognizes the increased pressure upon a local church to provide an ever increasing salary for its minister. Churches with dwindling resources find themselves spending more and more on pastoral compensation and less and less on property, program, and expansion. Clergy and laity are caught in the proverbial place between a rock and a hard spot.

The Commission has spent considerable time in examining the situation. Solutions are not included in this report. However, we do have recommendations whose implementation will help us move towards "fair and equitable salaries" for all those who "assume the obligations of the itinerancy," and simultaneous "fair and equitable management" of the resources of the local church in ministry and mission.

I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Salaries for 1991

A. Salary Schedule

1. With respect to the ever increasing cost of living for all, we recommend that the minimum full-time salary level be raised by a percentage equal to the percentage of raise enjoyed by all ministers in the Conference year 1990.

MINISTERS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	1990	1991
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary.....	*$19,826	$19,006
Utilities.....		2,000
		$21,006

STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary.....	*$12,887	$11,654
Utilities.....		2,000
		$13,654

*Salary and Utilities Included

2. We recommend that the full-time minimum salary levels be adjusted annually by the percentage figure of average raises in the Conference for the current Conference year.
 3. Guidelines affecting student pastors as adopted by previous Annual Conference sessions will continue to govern the use of equitable salary funds for student pastors. (For reference, the Discipline, ¶ 441, 717, and 722, and the Journal of 1983, provide the basis for our work.)
- B. Travel Expense
- Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of ministerial expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $1,800 for travel expense. A charge receiving equitable salary support may provide this $1,800 travel expense, but any travel expense in excess of $1,800 will result in a reduction of equitable salary support.
- C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Salary Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's total income for salary and utilities (including funds from the Equitable Salary Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources).

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds:

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Salary Fund. Salary support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Salary Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Salaries and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Salary support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.
- C. When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Salary Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.
- D. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.
 1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Salaries provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.
 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.
- E. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Salary Funds than granted the previous year.
- F. Any Equitable Salary Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.

- G. Equitable Salary Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.
- H. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum salary, but less than the Conference minimum salary plus $200 per year up to ten (10) years of full-time service as an associate member or a member in full connection.

Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon approval by the charge conference and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase. (Effective until 1995)

This policy does not restrict the Equitable Salaries Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.

- I. Churches receiving Equitable Salary Funds will conduct an annual financial campaign to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- J. We remind the Conference of provisions in the Discipline, which state: (1)"Primary responsibility for the payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges." (§1722.8) (2)"The guidelines of the Annual Conference program of equitable clergy support shall insofar as possible be observed by the bishops and district superintendents in arranging charges and making appointments." (§1722.10)
- K. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Salary Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference. The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

The Equitable Salary Review Team, created by the 1987 Annual Conference, is composed of the Reverend M. Whitfield Warren, Jr., chair; Ruby Gardner, secretary; Charlie Compton; the Reverend Bill Cummings; and the Reverend Charles Morrison. The recommendations of this team are endorsed by the Commission on Equitable Salaries and the Cabinet. The recommendations are in response to Part 2, Paragraph 4, pages 301-302, 1987 Journal, which states: "It is recommended that a conference-wide review team be established to determine in 1988 whether continued equitable salary support should be available to churches who have been receiving equitable salary support for five years or more and have not made appropriate reductions in requests for equitable salary support as stipulated in the Conference guidelines. This committee should have the authority to recommend to the district superintendents that salary support be discontinued, that the particular charge be realigned so that equitable salary support would not be necessary, or what other appropriate action might be taken."

Meeting four times, the Review Team requested and received reports from each pastor whose appointment has received equitable salary support in excess of five years. Additional information was received from the superintendent of each district.

Based on a study of the information received, the Equitable Salary Review Team makes the following recommendations:

1. Any church receiving equitable salary in excess of ten years and receiving less than $1,000 salary support will assume full salary support by January 1, 1990.
2. Any church receiving equitable salary support in excess of ten years and receiving $1,000 or more salary support, but less than $2,000, will assume full salary support by January 1, 1991.
3. Any church receiving equitable salary support in excess of ten years and receiving $2,000 or more salary support, but less than $3,000, will assume full salary support by January 1, 1992.
4. Any church receiving equitable salary support in excess of ten years and receiving $3,000 or more salary support shall reduce the current amount of support by 10 percent or $1,000 each year, whichever is greater. If a church fails to do this, it shall be asked to raise the salary some other way. Retired supplies, lay speakers, or charge realignment are alternatives.
5. It is further recommended that existing requirements by the Commission on Equitable Salaries be enforced. Particular attention is called to the requirement that every charge receiving equitable salary support conduct an every member stewardship program. The use of the services of the Conference Stewardship Consultants is highly recommended. These services may be coordinated through the Conference Council on Ministries.
6. Missional goals of The Church may necessitate equitable salary support for some churches for a longer period of time; however, it is hoped that all churches will fervently seek to comply with the guidelines stated above.

Charles K. Morrison, Chairperson

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

II. FINANCIAL POLICIES

1. APPORTIONMENTS:

- a. The Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionment has been separated into 3 apportionments for the 1990 budget. The Discipline, ¶1711.4, requires that "The World Service and Conference Benevolences apportionment may not be combined with any other General, Jurisdictional, or Annual Conference apportionment made to the churches or charges of the conference." The Episcopal Fund has also been separated to comply with The Discipline, ¶ 925.
- b. The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Conference Benevolences
 - Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black Colleges
 - African University Fund
 - SEJ Missional Growth Fund
- c. Formula (for all except SEJ Missional Growth Fund): The Apportionments for the first year of the quadrennium (1989) shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year. The change in apportionment from the previous year for the first year of the quadrennium shall not increase in excess of 25%. The exclusions are: Payments on Outreach Ministries; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to the conference average for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Preparedness Committee and the Resident Bishop. The Apportionments for the subsequent 3 years of the quadrennium shall be the previous year's apportionment plus a percentage increase/decrease equal to the percentage increase/decrease in the Annual Conference budget.
- d. The SEJ Missional Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1989-1992 inclusive. This is based upon the membership at the close of the calendar year 1987 as reported in the 1988 Journal.
- e. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.

- f. Outreach Ministries Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the District Superintendents by July 6, 1990. The District Superintendents will then, as soon as possible, distribute the apportionments, without adjustments, to the churches. The District Superintendent may adjust the apportionments of the churches under a charge provided that the total apportionment for the charge is not changed.
2. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace and Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.
3. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the Council on Finance and Administration for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church.
4. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.
5. The Episcopal Fund, General Administration Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, World Service, College Sustaining Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Methodist Building Maintenance, and College Debt Retirement will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the Council on Finance and Administration.
6. Investment Policy: (a) The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church. (b) South African Policy: The Council will not do business with or invest in banks making loans to the government of South Africa or its agencies, or who have operations within South Africa. The Council has no investments in South Africa and has adopted a policy of making no investments in South Africa.
7. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1990 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1991.
8. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in The Discipline, ¶ 708.4.b.
9. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 709.10 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or The Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Board of Missions, Inc., and Asbury Homes.

Note: In 1988 the Board of Missions, Incorporated notified the Council on Finance and Administration that the Charter of Missions, Inc. authorized it to retain the earnings on all funds held in the Corporation's name. During 1989 the Board of Missions, Inc. established a separate account with the Conference Treasurer in order to allow interest to accrue to all funds held by the Board of Missions, Incorporated.

III. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference.

1. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
2. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
3. The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
4. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken into the local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists of entire churches which might be provided, and that solicitation not be made through the North Carolina Christian Advocate.
6. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
7. The Disaster Preparedness Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the North Carolina Annual Conference.
8. Asbury Homes, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.

IV. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

The percentage change in District Superintendents' salary for 1986 and subsequent years shall be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for that year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the North Carolina Annual Conference. (Adopted in 1985)

V. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

1. The Council on Finance and Administration uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
2. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the Council on Finance and Administration shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect an additional member to the executive committee from its voting membership.
3. The Conference treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in his office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
4. The treasurer, at his discretion, may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
5. Requests for the purchase/lease of specific data processing equipment or services must be approved by CFA. The request must address the problem of compatibility of the project with the current Annual Conference data processing service. The approval of funds to begin a project does not constitute approval for the purchase/lease of specific equipment or services.

6. Any request from the churches for adjustments to apportionments must be made to the Council on Finance and Administration on or before Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving. (November 21, 1990). Requests for adjustments must be submitted in writing to the District Superintendent who will attach a recommendation and forward the request to the Conference Treasurer's office.
7. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of the United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries.
8. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.
9. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
10. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Salary Funds, COM staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the N.C. Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year (i.e. Office of Planned Giving, Vitalization Project, etc.)
- Funds appropriated to the Task Force on Hunger and Human Need to assist various ministries across the Annual Conference. The Council shall consider an appropriation to the Conference Fund for Human Need at the close of the fiscal year. The formula adopted by the Council in February 1990 to determine the appropriation is 10% of the net interest earnings on Central Fund investments less 10% of the budget shortfall. The supplemental appropriation for 1989 to the Fund for Human Need was $27,200.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the Treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

- a. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

- b. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee who will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 - c. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference Treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.
11. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign (until they are authorized to be transferred to operational funds), Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.
 12. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
 13. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation.
 14. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:
 - June 1990: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.
 - September 28, 1990: an optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.
 - November 20, 1990: a joint CFA/COM budget hearing. The purpose of this hearing is to receive a report from boards and agencies on funds spent and requested funds for future programs and activities.
 - December 12, 1990: to consider the apportionment appeals from churches. The requests for appeals are due in the Treasurer's Office on or before the Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving. The supplemental appropriations for salaries are also considered at this meeting.
 - February 6, 1991: to consider the operating budget for the current year. All payments on apportionments are due to the Treasurer by mid January. A report of receipts, amounts allocated to the budgeted boards and agencies, and supplemental appropriations are decided at the meeting.
 - March 6, 1991: to consider the budget to be recommended to Annual Conference which will be raised in the subsequent year and spent in the year following that. Additionally, the CFA policy recommendations to the Annual Conference are adopted.
 15. Dates to remember:
 - July 6, 1990: Apportionments sent to the Districts.
 - November 21, 1990: Apportionment appeals due in the Treasurer's Office.
 - December 31, 1990: General Church remittances must be received in the Treasurer's Office by 8:30 A.M. in order to receive credit for 1990.
 - January 11, 1991: Annual Conference remittances must be received by 8:30 A.M. in order to receive credit for 1990.
 - January 16, 1991: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 1991 operating budget due in the Treasurer's office.
 - January 31, 1991: Tables I and II due to the Conference Statistician.

February 13, 1991: Requests for the 1993 budget, to be adopted at the 1991 Annual Conference, due in the Treasurer's Office.

VI. CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND, and BASIC PROTECTION PLAN (for full time lay employees on the Conference Staff - Printed in the 1989 Journal.)

VII. SUMMARY OF REPORT CHANGES

1. Section II, para 1.a: Apportionments are split into 7 parts.
2. Section II, para 8: New paragraph to comply with the Discipline.
3. Section II, para 9: New paragraph to state the current central treasury policy.
4. Section III, para 8: To add Asbury Homes, Inc.
5. Section V, para 10: Supplemental Appropriations policy.
6. Section V, para 11-13: Presents the current interest calculations policy.

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

Group Term Life Insurance

The Insurance Committee, on the recommendation of our insurance consultant, has placed our group term life insurance with CIGNA, Inc. Our coverage is $15,000 for active participants, $7,500 for retired pastors up to age 72; $1,000 for pastors over age 72. Benefits for any pastor retiring prior to 1978 remain at $5,000. The spouse's insurance terminates at age 65 or upon retirement of the subscriber, whichever comes first. The rate effective January 1, 1991 will be: individual, $11.00; family, $11.50. This represents no increase in premiums for 1991.

The following claims were paid in 1989:

Jessie Fisher	$ 1,000.00
Hyder Crawley	1,000.00
Oscar S. Williams	1,000.00
Dorothy Roberts	1,000.00
Graham Nickens	7,500.00
H. Arthur Phillips, Jr.	15,000.00
George M. Marsh, Jr.	15,000.00
Leonard T. Wilson	15,000.00
Leon Lewis, Jr.	15,000.00
Foster Reynolds	15,000.00
TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$86,500.00

Blue Cross/Blue Shield Insurance

The Insurance Committee has studied two plans for health insurance rates for 1991. The first is to continue the current plan which will result in the rates shown below. The second would be to hold the rates constant, and reduce the plan benefits.

In the absence of Annual Conference action, the plan will continue with these rates:

HEALTH RATES FOR 1991	1990	1991	$Change	%Change
Individual-church portion	114.46	$134.21	$19.75	17.25%
Individual-personal portion	38.15	$44.73	$6.58	17.25%
Parent/Child-church portion	228.47	$246.61	$18.14	7.94%
Parent/Child-personal portion	76.15	$82.80	$6.65	8.73%
Family-church portion	324.82	$341.93	$17.11	5.27%
Family-personal portion	108.27	$113.97	$5.70	5.26%
Medicare supplement	71.02	$75.15	$4.13	5.82%

Policy and Rules

The extent of the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee upon the recommendation of the Committee's consultant.

Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services except in cases of emergency or maternity care.

When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (pastor or lay) he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement.

The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels that claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference Treasurer.

A service fee of 1.5% per month for delinquent accounts is charged to help defray the cost of paying premiums for churches making late payments.

Annual Conference policy for health insurance is for the church to pay 75% of the premium and the subscriber to pay 25% of the premium. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Minister's personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.

Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.

When there is a change of address, or a change in family status it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-621-5467 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.

Health insurance for the subscriber (not dependents) may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.

Lay persons or ministers on maternity leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.

The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums, in which case, a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions shall be required to re-establish the health insurance coverage.

Eligibility Policies

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- i. Ministers who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary members, associate members, student local pastors, part-time local pastors, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 - A. One of the churches or charges of the North Carolina Conference.
 - B. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 - C. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 1. The minister shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.

2. The minister shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.

ii. Ministers on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference Treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.

iii. Lay Employees: The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment (initial enrollment period was November 1-31, 1985, coverage effective January 1, 1986 for employees already at the church; within 30 days of date of hire for new employees); otherwise there will be a one year waiting period for any pre-existing conditions.

- Workers in day care centers or nursery/kindergarten programs were added effective September 1, 1986 (initial enrollment period was July 1-31, 1986) with the same guidelines as for other lay employees.
- The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for ministers which is 75% paid by the church and 25% by the employee.
- In case of termination of employment, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.
- The term group life insurance was made effective January 1, 1987. Applications must have been received prior to December 31, 1986 for lay employees already employed or within 30 days of employment for new employees. The amount of insurance is as specified above.

Health Screening.

At the last three sessions of Annual Conference, and again this year, health screening will be conducted by the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. This is a very valuable service to the members of our Conference and we encourage everyone to take advantage of this service. This is one means of reducing medical costs by detecting potential medical problems in the early stages.

Committee Membership

The Insurance Committee is made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies 2, Board of Pensions; 2, Division of Health and Welfare; 2, Joint Committee on disability; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 1, Board of Diaconal Ministry; 1, District Lay Leader; 1, Cabinet; Conference Treasurer and Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). At the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies, the representative should be elected.

The Insurance Committee is grateful to the members of the Annual Conference for the support it receives as the Committee strives to provide the best possible health and life insurance benefits.

LAY/CLERGY EQUALIZATION, COMMITTEE TO STUDY (THIS REPORT TABBED BY ACTION OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE)

The 1988 Annual Conference directed that all references from the Discipline and past Conference Journals defining the membership of Annual Conference be printed together in the Journal. In researching this material, the Committee discovered that there was no documentation for some of the offices listed as members of the Annual Conference, and thus, this was corrected by actions taken at the 1989 Annual Conference Session.

The Committee recommends to the 1990 Annual Conference that paragraph K. be replaced by a new paragraph K., L., and M., to be added as indicated at the conclusion of this report.

The North Carolina Annual Conference Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan

- A. "The Clergy membership of an Annual Conference (§ 412) shall consist of members in full connection (§ 421), probationary members (§ 413), associate members (§ 418), affiliate members (§ 1431.5a), and local pastors under full-time appointment to a pastoral charge (§ 408.1). (See also § 35.)" (1988 Discipline, § 701.1, page 335)
- B. "...The lay members shall have been for the two years next preceding their election members of The United Methodist Church and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election..." (1988 Discipline, § 35, Article I, page 30)
- C. "If the lay membership should number less than the ministerial members of the Annual Conference, the Annual Conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and ministerial membership of the annual conference..." (1988 Discipline, § 35, Article I, page 30)
- D. To compute the number of additional lay member votes for the Annual Conference in order to balance with the voting clergy members, subtract the total pastoral charges (1989 Journal, Question 56a, page 221), including the lay members who will match their voting associate pastors, from the total voting clergy (1989 Journal, Question 57a, page 221). These remaining lay members needed for equalization are determined by counting the following:
 - E. "The Annual Conference shall be composed of ministerial members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the diaconal ministers, the conference president of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, the president of the conference youth organization, and two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age from each district to be selected in such manner as determined by the Annual Conference." (1988 Discipline, § 35, Article I, pages 29 and 30)
 - F. "...One college or university student from each United Methodist-related campus ministry within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. Where no charge conference is held, a recommendation will be made to the district superintendent for appointment to Annual Conference." (1988 Journal, page 173)
 - G. "...Conference treasurer/business administrator...all lay persons on program staff..." (1987 Journal, page 147)
 - H. District presidents of United Methodist Men (Added in 1983 - documented in 1989 Journal, page 330)
 - I. Presidents of our Conference colleges (Added in 1976 - documented in 1989 Journal, page 330)
 - J. "All lay chairpersons of Conference boards and agencies, all lay members of general boards, all lay members seated and all reserve members in attendance for the majority of the time at the latest session of the General Conference, all lay members seated and all reserve members in attendance for the majority of the time at the latest session of the Jurisdictional Conference, all district lay leaders, all district presidents of United Methodist Women, one additional youth/young adult member from each district to be selected by the rules presently abided by..." (1974 Journal, page 261)
 - K. "...The additional lay members needed will be selected by local charges on the basis of membership as listed in the latest published Conference Journal. All charges with a membership above a determined number will have one additional lay member. The number of members required for a charge to have an additional lay member will be determined by the number of lay members needed to fulfill the quota for the Conference. For example, if 50 lay members are needed to fill the formula, the 50 charges with the largest membership having only one lay member from the charge lay membership would each be eligible to elect a second member." (1974 Journal, page 261)

CHANGED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- K. The additional lay members needed will be selected by local charges on the basis of membership totals at the end of the preceding calendar year as reported by the Conference Statistician.
- L. In selecting additional lay members to attain lay and clergy equalization, selection shall be based on local charge membership working down in descending order in size until the needed number has been achieved. Completion of the equalization of lay and clergy votes shall be accomplished by the charge electing three (3) additional lay members from each charge with more than 2000 members, two (2) additional lay members from each charge with more than 1500 members. If any additional lay members are needed to achieve equalization, one (1) additional lay member is selected from each charge with less than 1500 members in descending order in size. The lay members granted by the Discipline to be elected by the charge shall be included in determining the total.
- M. Each year, the Conference Secretary shall obtain from the Board of Ordained Ministry the number of new voting ministerial members who will be received at Annual Conference, and the number who have been removed from the Conference membership since the last Conference; and shall notify that number of charges below the membership level already granted additional lay members that their alternate lay member is asked to go to Annual Conference and shall be seated after the executive session votes to admit and seat the new ministerial members. This causes the session to be equalized immediately upon the admission of the new ministerial members.

MINISTERS' MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON

EFFECTIVE DATE - JANUARY 1, 1991

The Ministers' Moving Expense Committee met several times and studied a number of possibilities for providing moving expense. A company that will contract to move all ministers gave an estimate. This seemed to be too rigid and offered the possibility of error. Secondly, consultation was done with a moving company and it seemed the cost could be exorbitant unless a poundage limit was imposed.

After much careful consideration, the Committee makes the following recommendation.

- I. Eligibility
 - A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
 - B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid. To become effective June 1, 1990 under the payment guidelines of 1990.
 - C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved disability leave or return into active service from approved disability leave.
 - D. Widows or widowers of ministers in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.

- E. Pastors moving into the North Carolina Conference to assume full-time or student appointments under section I.A.
 - F. Interim Supply pastors
 - G. Persons moving that are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.
- II. Payment of Claims
- A. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 1. Active ministers in section I.A. and I.B. (except retiring ministers, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive a base payment of $100.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,000.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 2. Retiring ministers, widows, or widowers will receive a base payment of $100.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,650.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses.
 3. Clergy couples will receive a base payment of $200.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,000.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one minister of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.
 - B. Travel Allowance: An allowance of $1.00 per mile will be granted to all who are eligible to make claim. The mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the appointment to the Conference boundary, or the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement) whichever is less. Clergy couples will receive $1.00 per mile as defined above.
 - C. The Conference treasurer will make payment to eligible ministers as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed. This will fulfill the 1988 Discipline, ¶ 269.2f(4), which states "The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and pastor shall make an annual review of the church owned parsonage(s) to assure proper maintenance."
 - D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible ministers to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendents. This advance payment may be adjusted to cover adequately the initial up front money that must be paid by the moving clergy who move themselves. Any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer. The checklist entitled, "So You're Moving", must be properly signed and returned to the district superintendents, along with the receipts for moving, before the balance of the moving expense can be mailed by the Conference treasurer.
 - E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
 - F. The base payment of $100.00 is intended to cover incidental moving expenses. Therefore, the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, mobile homes, etc., and the cleaning of the parsonage are not eligible for reimbursement.
- III. Review Committee
- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.

- B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

OPEN ITINERACY, GUIDELINES FOR

The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of these guidelines is to provide a process by which open itineracy can be effectively implemented within the North Carolina Conference. These guidelines seek to affirm disciplinary expectation and the need for preparing pastors, local churches, and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, and to offer specific steps for implementation.

II. FOUNDATIONS FOR OPEN ITINERACY

A. Biblical and Theological Foundations

1. God is declared to be the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of all people. We are the highest expression of God's creative work.
2. Jesus came to save the world, and this salvation is inclusive in its call so that "whoever believes" will be saved (John 3:16). Those who are baptized into Christ are called to the priesthood of all believers.
3. The New Testament epistles declare this call to all Christians (Galatians 3:28), and from this company of believing people, God calls individuals into the representative ministry of the church.
4. The church was given birth at Pentecost when God's Holy Spirit came to empower it for witness and mission. People from every part of the world were present in Jerusalem on that day, and did receive the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:5-11).
5. There is nothing exclusive about God's giving of the Spirit to enable ministry. Biblical and theological affirmations remind us that God's call to ministry is felt and answered by a variety of persons, whose unique qualities greatly enhance the witness of God's people to the world. We are commanded to give high priority to fulfill God's call in ourselves, and to participate in enabling others faithfully to obey it.

B. The 1988 Book of Discipline

1. The Book of Discipline addresses open itineracy on the levels of the local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the Bishop/Cabinet, and the Annual Conference.
2. The local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committees are instructed as part of their responsibilities to be "continually interpreting to the people the nature and function of the ministry, including cross-racial appointments and sensitivity to open itineracy." (§269.2f[1])
3. Bishops and Cabinets are guided in appointment-making by the directives of The Book of Discipline which states: "Appointments are to be made with consideration of the gifts and evidence of God's grace of those appointed, to the needs, characteristics, and opportunities of congregations and institutions, and with faithfulness to the commitment to an open itineracy. Open itineracy means appointments are made without regard to race, ethnic origin, sex, color, or age, except for the provisions of mandatory retirement." (§530.1)
4. The Book of Discipline states that "The Annual Conference...will assume responsibilities for such matters as: ...Consulting with the Board of Or- daind Ministry and the Cabinet to determine what provisions are made for the recruitment and itineracy of racial and ethnic ordained ministers."

(¶740.3e)

III. PREPARING ALL CHURCHES FOR OPENNESS

There are a number of opportunities and ways in which churches of the Annual Conference can prepare themselves for open itineracy. Here are some suggestions:

1. Encourage pastors and members of differing racial/ethnic backgrounds to seek opportunities to work together on some forms of shared ministry (workshops, study groups, work projects, etc.).
2. Encourage pastors and lay people to come together in cluster groups to discuss what it means to be inclusive and how inclusiveness impacts the local church.
3. Continue the use of racial/ethnic leadership in workshops and seminars.
4. Encourage pastors to increase a climate of openness to all people through their preaching and pastoral ministry.
5. Ask pastors, choirs, and lay speakers of various racial/ethnic heritage to exchange churches.
6. Plan for congregations of different racial/ethnic backgrounds to worship together on a given Sunday by having one-half of each congregation worshipping in the other church.
7. Encourage the sharing of common meals, such as evening fellowships or pot-luck dinners.
8. Encourage in those districts where there are no racial/ethnic United Methodist congregations cross-racial/ethnic experiences through district lay rallies and other events in which worship takes place.

IV. IDENTIFYING CHURCHES AND PASTORS

There are signs which assist in identifying churches (white and ethnic/racial) and pastors (white and ethnic/racial) that are ready to work towards inclusiveness.

A. Signs of Readiness in Congregations:

1. The membership is racially mixed, with some ethnic/racial persons in key leadership positions.
2. Strength is evident in mission outreach, finances, and church growth and enough strength to persevere in face of opposition.
3. Members see the vision of inclusiveness as part of the church's mission.
4. The members appreciate cross-racial differences and see them as they are and not necessarily as they are perceived to be.
5. The congregations have a track record of accepting and working with pastors.

B. Signs of Readiness in Pastors who will Prepare Churches:

1. They are committed to the vision of inclusiveness.
2. They have earned the respect of the congregation. (Probably one year in an appointment would be required before major efforts could be made to prepare a congregation.)
3. They possess strong faith and self-esteem, and a willingness to persevere in face of opposition.
4. They are strong and effective preachers and teachers.
5. They possess pastoral ability to continue to care for those who do not share the vision.
6. They have the ability to appreciate cross-racial differences and to see them as they are and not necessarily as they are perceived to be.
7. They have a good track record of working effectively with congregations.

C. Signs of Readiness in Pastors who will be Appointed Cross-Racially:

1. They are committed to the vision of inclusiveness.
 2. They have strong faith and self-esteem, with ability to persevere in face of opposition.
 3. They are strong and effective preachers and teachers.
 4. They possess the pastoral ability to remain loving and yet be firm with those who do not share the vision.
 5. They are gifted in moving across cultural lines.
- D. District Superintendents are to watch constantly for signs of readiness for cross-racial appointments, either by identifying churches or by listening for volunteer churches.
1. This document will be shared at the 1990 Charge Conferences and each local church will be requested to give it careful and prayerful consideration.
 2. After taking a year to study the document and giving it prayerful consideration, churches will respond at the 1991 Charge Conferences.

V. PREPARING SPECIFIC CHURCHES AND PASTORS

Pastors who are ready for cross-racial appointments need to be in churches that have shown signs of readiness. In preparation for such an appointment, these specific steps need to be taken with local churches and pastors:

A. Activities to take place in the first year:

1. Pastor earns the congregation's love and respect.
2. Joint ventures take place with a congregation of a predominantly different race. After a series of these opportunities, provide each local congregation with its own time for feedback and discussion (which might also help focus the congregation on its missional objectives over and beyond receiving a pastor of different background).
3. Training and support groups are to be made available for pastors and families who are preparing local churches, and for those who will be appointed cross-racially.
4. The Bishop will call gatherings of pastors and laity for mutual support and preparation.
5. A structured program of organized Bible study/spiritual discipline will be led by current pastor to address concerns and the spiritual dimensions of the process.

B. Activities to take place in the second year:

1. Training for local churches who will receive cross-racial appointment will include open discussion of dreams and fears. (For example, some of the fears anticipated could be: what will this person's preaching style be like? what will friends think? how many members will the church lose? what will happen financially? how many people from other races will join us?)
2. The Bishop, the District Superintendent, and the Cabinet will work with pastors who may be involved in cross-racial appointments. Concerns will be heard such as how my family will be received, ability to adjust to different worship experiences and the effect this appointment will have on my salary and future appointments.
3. Appointments will be fixed and announced January 15 prior to June moving date in order that local church and incoming pastor may become acquainted before the present pastor moves. There are some possible ways this might be done: incoming pastor could preach a revival or lead a Bible study at the receiving church; a pulpit exchange, but not on the same Sunday for the pastor needs to be present with the incoming pastor; joint visitation, if this is geographically possible.

VI. SUPPORT FOR CROSS-RACIAL APPOINTMENTS

There are three avenues of support that should be continually available for churches and pastors in cross-racial appointments:

A. Church Support

1. Continual affirmation must be given to churches that have entered into this covenant relationship for fulfillment of this new opportunity for ministry.
2. Special occasions for celebration are to be shared with the broader church (i.e., articles in the North Carolina Christian Advocate and general publications, programs in neighboring churches, conference and district events).
3. Training and support for Pastor-Parish Relations Committees will be offered where there are such appointments.
4. Arrangements are to be made for sharing of experiences among Pastor-Parish Relations Committees where cross-racial appointments have occurred or are occurring.

B. Pastor Support

1. A support group is appropriate for the pastor and family within the congregation.
2. Congregations are to be made aware that the pastor and family have a need of other support groups beyond the local church.
3. The Bishop, the cabinet and all pastors in the conference will need to support and to affirm the cross-racial appointments.

C. Financial Support

1. If financial support (salary and/or program) is needed, requests should be made to the Conference Board of Missions.
2. Churches can receive assistance in financial planning through consultants from the Conference Board of Stewardship.
3. Other possible sources for financial help might include the Duke Endowment and agencies of the general church.
4. The Associate Director for Ethnic Minority Local Church Concerns with the Conference Council on Ministries will be available.

(Document prepared by Cabinet on 2/28/90, reviewed & revised by lay & clergy representatives from each district 3/12/90)

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care administers a financial grant program for the NC Annual Conference clergy and their families for confidential counseling and therapy. The financial assistance is provided to cover up to one-half of the cost of each counseling session for which application is made by an approved provider of services until the $300 annual allowance has been granted provided that coordination of benefits does not exceed 100% of the fees charged. Up to 80% of financial coverage for outpatient psychiatric care is provided through the Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield Insurance policy. Clients should check with the therapist and the Health Care Benefits for details.

ELIGIBILITY FOR GRANTS

As conference clergy and family are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home, such as spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home and through the age of twenty-two.

The qualifications for financial grants are:

1. The receiver of services must be a member of the NC Annual Conference, active, retired, on Leave of Absence, or any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent of such a person.
2. The counseling or therapy must be provided by someone who has one or more of the credentials listed below in this report, or by someone on the staff of one of the pastoral care centers, also listed below.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

At the request of a person receiving counseling, the counselor or therapist is to make application to the chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care for financial assistance to the counselee in the following manner:

1. The therapist requests application forms, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the chairperson of Pastoral Care.
2. The application is submitted by the therapist to the office of the Director of Ministerial Relations who directs the application to the chairperson of Pastoral Care. Clients will be identified by a case number only and never by name! The minister and/or dependents are assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor will receive financial assistance on behalf of the counselee to apply to the counselee's account or to refund the client as appropriate. Clients should request from the therapist a record or statement showing financial assistance with the therapist because of her/his payment contract. The client should request the therapist to contact the chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure. The following credentials are necessary for financial assistance:

CREDENTIALS

Providers of counseling and therapy who have one or more of the following credentials are eligible to apply for and receive financial assistance on behalf of clergy clients:

Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification, NC license

Psychologists (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologist, NC license

Counselors: Clinical Member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), NC Registered Practicing Counselors

Social Workers: Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW)

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events. This includes the concerns and needs of single clergypersons as well as married. Grants of $50 per individual, couple, or family are available for up to two events per year. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany the application. Contact the chairperson of Pastoral Care for complete information and application form.

SUMMARY OF 1989

In 1989 the Pastoral Care Committee provided grants for 92 persons who were involved in 736 sessions of counseling. Clergypersons received 51 grants, clergy and spouses together, 9; spouse alone, 15; families, 5; and children, 6. Members of the committee are David Banks, Milton Hadley, Rodney Hamm, Mark Kasper, Malloy Owen, Peggy Owens, Judy Radford, Robert Ray, and Leo Thompson.

IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Salary. The 1991 CAS for the North Carolina Conference is $27,546.00.
- C. The current rate is $264.00 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Salary increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAS to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1991 be increased to $276.00 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Salary increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $23,759,712.
- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary ONLY) e.g.	$20,000.00
Add 21% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance	4,200.00
Plan Compensation will be	$24,200.00

1. No travel or utility funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since these are considered by the General Board of Pensions to be items of local expense.
2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 21% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.

- d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
 3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is: 20%-1990; 21%-1991; 22%-1992; 23%-1993; 24%-1994; 25%-1995.
 4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
 - C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pensions. (Effective January 1, 1990)
 - D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
 - E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
 - F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.
- III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.
 1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 20% upon retirement at any age.
 2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on disability.
 3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pensions. (Effective January 1, 1990)
 - B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.4% contribution of actual Plan Compensation (up to 4.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation). The pastor will be required to pay 1.0% of the 4.4% as provided in the Comprehensive Protection Plan, and the church or charge will pay the additional 3.4%. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- IV. Implementation of the Program
- The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
 FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 15.4% of Plan Compensation
 STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12.0% of Plan Compensation
 LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12.0% of Plan Compensation

INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility

- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pensions through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of the DAC) for CPP.
 C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pensions for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
3. A surviving spouse, who was married after the pastor retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan.

- B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)

1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62, OR retires with thirty-five (35) years of service, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
2. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62, or earns 35 years of pension credit, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%
14	70%	30%
13	65%	35%
12	60%	40%
11	55%	45%
10	50%	50%

8	40%	.60%
7	35%	.65%
6	30%	.70%
5	25%	.75%
4	20%	.80%
3	15%	.85%
2	10%	.90%
1	5%	.95%

3. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the medicare supplement paid for those covered under medicare. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in V B2.
4. Clergy Couples' Insurance
 - a. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule V B2.
 - b. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule V B2.
 - c. No life insurance is provided for the spouse or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.

VI. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

VII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement

Maximum benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired pastors and spouses was increased from $50,000 to $100,000. (Effective February 1, 1989)

VIII. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)

IX. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

Whereas, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

Whereas, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

Whereas, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

Whereas, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

Now therefore be it resolved:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1990-1991 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE FUND

The Ministers' Transition Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his/her housing, by paying two lump sum benefits at the time of retirement. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the Fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their minister, but a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the Fund. We vigorously emphasize that this Fund is for the minister's retirement, and not any kind of emergency fund to be made available for any other purpose.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this Fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer shall obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each Annual Conference, who are eligible to receive the lump sum payment, and pay them promptly any benefits to which they are entitled. Retirement benefits are to be paid to each participating minister at the time of his/her retirement (either at the regular time or at the earlier optional time) or when that minister is placed on disability leave. Retirement or disability will terminate any further participation in the Fund by any minister.

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who live in housing furnished by a North Carolina Annual Conference institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other work, including students under episcopal appointment, or be granted a Leave of Absence by the Executive Session of the Annual Conference. Membership in this Fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. The period of enrollment for all ministers is January 1-31 of each year, when full payment for previous year's service is made.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total remuneration for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve months amount.

A full time local pastor may continue as a member of the Ministers' Transition Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment and earning pension credit.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective.

ASSESSMENTS

Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall pay into the Fund one percent (1%) of all money excluding travel he/she receives each year from the charge or charges he/she is serving and/or Conference sources (this includes salary, utility allowances, Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to one percent (1%) of salary usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers employed by the Council on Ministries. District superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay one percent (1%) of their income designated as salary and utilities.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall pay a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference average salary, whichever is greater.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF PAYMENTS

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. Each member of the Fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. The Conference treasurer may accept payments after January 31 into the Fund, but before the dividend is declared, for legitimate emergency situations. Appeals of the treasurer's decisions may be made to the Fund's Hearing Committee upon request. No later than December 1 of each year, the Conference treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. Payments made after January 31 will be credited to the minister's account for the following year. If he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years this delayed payment extends the period prior to dividend payments for one year. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will collect no dividends for the year of delayed payment.

BASE BENEFITS

Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00
If retired at the end of sixteen years of membership	1,700.00
If retired at the end of seventeen years of membership	1,800.00
If retired at the end of eighteen years of membership	1,900.00
If retired at the end of nineteen years of membership	2,000.00
If retired at the end of twenty years of membership	2,100.00
If retired at the end of twenty-one years of membership	2,200.00
If retired at the end of twenty-two years of membership	2,300.00
If retired at the end of twenty-three years of membership	2,400.00
If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his/her account and payable in addition to the base benefit upon retirement.

DIVIDENDS

Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members retiring at the Annual Conference shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

DEATH BENEFITS

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his/her estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his/her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the time that dividends are earned, the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the principal amount contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary/beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

Each member shall provide the Conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions a statement, naming the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death before retirement.

PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS

At retirement, members who have accrued the same years credit in the Fund (during the same years) will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

A minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund will be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which time he/she retires, the total amount as prescribed by the formula for retired members. A minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund shall be paid in two payments, an amount equal to the total dividend accrued plus the base payment for the years of membership. The first payment shall be the amount on which the member has paid taxes and the second payment shall be for the balance in the member's account. The remainder of the amount accrued to the minister's credit shall be paid to him/her in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This amount will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at the current bank passbook interest rate paid by a bank located in the city of Raleigh (the "passbook rate") in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment. The total January payment should be reported as ordinary income for income tax purposes. In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

Any minister continuing to serve, but who has attained the age of 60 prior to July 1, following Annual Conference, but who has not reached age 70, may terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund under the provisions of the retirement policy by making a written request to the Conference treasurer not later than the last day of Annual Conference.

DISABILITY LEAVE

A minister who is approved for and placed on disability leave may elect to receive payment of benefits under one of the following options:

1. The same as a retiring minister.
2. The same as a transferring member.
3. Remain as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources.
4. Receive all benefits within ten (10) days following the determination of disability status by the Conference Joint Committee on Disability.

The minister shall notify the Conference treasurer in writing of his/her choice of option within ten (10) days following the adjournment of Annual Conference or declaration of disability leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence may elect to:

1. Remain an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Salary while on leave.
2. Have his/her funds held until the minister returns to active service. The minister may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings to be effective at the time the leave is terminated.

MEMBERSHIP TRANSFERRING

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church will not make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her holdings (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the retirement benefit will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with passbook interest added from that date to the date of retirement. If the funds are held, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

PENALTIES

If any member of the Fund fails to contribute his/her required contribution for three consecutive years, he/she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

WITHDRAWING FROM THE FUND

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions, he/she shall receive an amount equal to the amount he/she has paid into the Fund, plus the simple interest computed at the "passbook rate" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund, and terminate his/her membership in the Fund.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the above formula.

REINSTATEMENT

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to join the Ministers' Transition Fund more than two (2) times during his/her ministerial career.

HEARING COMMITTEE

The chairperson of the Board of Pensions shall annually nominate and the Board elect a committee of five (5) persons, keeping a balance between clergy, laity, race, and gender, to have authority to arbitrate on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, the Constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund.

NEW RULES AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this Fund shall be null and void.

Report E - Recommendations for Pastors' Total Years of Pension Credit

It has been the goal of the Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Annual Conference to establish the correct years of pension credit for each pastor of the North Carolina Conference for which the Conference has pension responsibility.

In order that this objective be achieved, each pastor was requested to provide relevant information concerning his/her pastoral status, appointments served, etc. This information was compared with information found in the Conference Journals and with the records of the General Board of Pensions. Each pastor's record was presented to the Conference Board of Pensions. The Board then makes the recommendation to the Annual Conference for the total years that have been established for each pastor. Each pastor, whose pension record was researched, was notified of the total years of pension credit. Also, the pastor was asked to sign a statement verifying agreement with the years of pension credit. If the pastor did not agree with the total years of pension credit, he/she was given the opportunity to request a hearing with the Review Committee of the Board of Pensions to present evidence which might affect the total years of credit. If the pastor was not satisfied with the recommendation of the Review Committee, he/she can appear before the full Board of Pensions to present reasons for the years of pension credit to be corrected. Although some hearings have been conducted, there are some yet outstanding. The Conference Board of Pensions has the responsibility to determine and recommend the years that are approved for pension credit. (See ¶1606.6, p. 611, The Book of Discipline, 1988).

It is the goal of the Conference Board of Pensions to have completed establishing the pension record of each pastor of this conference by the 1991 Session of the Annual Conference. The following procedures are recommended to reach this objective:

1. All records researched and confirmed in writing by the respective pastors are presented to this session of the Annual Conference, indicating the year the research was completed, for action.
2. Where the Conference Journal shows a pastor in two different categories, the Board of Pensions has recommended the category of ministry that provides the pastor the greater benefit towards his/her pension.
3. Some pastors have provided the information requested, but their names do not appear. This means there is some question about their total years of pension credit and further study is being made. When the work is completed, each pastor will be informed as to his/her total years. These persons' records will be included in a future Board of Pensions' Report.
4. A diligent effort will be made to obtain necessary information from those pastors who, as of now, have not furnished the Board of Pensions with the needed information to establish their total years of pension credit. When the research for these pastors' records is completed and acted upon by the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions, they will be presented to the Annual Conference for action.

It is the goal of the Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Annual Conference to present the service records of all pastors heretofore not acted upon by the Annual Conference, even though the information has not been provided by the minister. For these persons the years of pension credit will be determined by information obtained from Conference Journals and/or records of the General Board of Pensions.

The Annual Conference session cannot revise or correct any pastor's years of pension credit until a recommendation comes from the Board of Pensions to the Annual Conference for such action. (See ¶1606.6, p. 611, The Book of Discipline, 1988).

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. respectfully requests that the North Carolina Conference at its 1990 Annual Conference Session in Fayetteville, North Carolina, give approval to the Board of Directors of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. for the amendment and restatement of its Corporate Charter in the form stated below:

AMENDED AND RESTATED CHARTER OF METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The undersigned non-profit corporation, for the purpose of amending and restating its charter, acting pursuant to North Carolina General Statutes Section 55A-36 and Section 55A-37.1, does hereby set forth:

(1) The name of the Corporation is Methodist Foundation, Inc. The amendments set forth below change the name of the Corporation to United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated.

(2) The following Amended and Restated Charter was adopted on August 22, 1990:

ARTICLE I

The name of this Corporation is United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II

The period of existence of this Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

A. The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are to function and operate as a non-stock, non-profit, religious institution as described below:

1. To serve as an institution of the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of The United Methodist Church and as a part of the activities of that Conference to supervise, protect, and administer the investment of funds of that Conference and/or the churches and institutions thereof, and any other funds entrusted to it by that Conference thereof, and any other funds entrusted to it by that Conference and/or the churches and institutions thereof for investment; and
2. To aid said Conference and/or the churches and institutions thereof in the solicitation of gifts, donations, contributions, bequests and devises.
3. To invest and administer, for the benefit of said Conference and/or the churches and institutions thereof, funds contributed under agreement with donors, including, but not limited to endowment funds, charitable remainder or split interest trusts, and other revocable and irrevocable trusts.
4. To serve under the jurisdiction, control, and direction of the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of The United Methodist Church. In no event shall such purposes exceed the purposes defined and set forth in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church as amended from time to time.

- B. Within the limitations imposed by the foregoing purposes, the Corporation shall have that investment authority granted under the North Carolina General Statutes including, but not limited to, the following:
1. To buy and sell, to take, hold, and receive by deed, will, bequest, devise, gift or otherwise, to mortgage, pledge, convey, assign, transfer, and otherwise dispose of real and personal property, including notes, bonds, debentures, stocks, and other properties, tangible and intangible; and
 2. To invest all or any portion of the funds it administers in a pooled or common fund, whether or not such fund is maintained by the Corporation.
- C. The Corporation shall have the authority to delegate investment management as specified in the North Carolina General Statutes, and to obtain the services of other agents and employees it deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Corporation.
- D. To alter or amend the charter of the Corporation only upon the prior approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of The United Methodist Church, said approval to be sufficiently evidenced by a recital thereof in said proposed amendments.

ARTICLE IV

This Corporation shall operate as a non-profit religious Corporation. Neither the incorporators, directors, nor any other person shall have or receive any beneficial interest in the property from time to time vested in, owned by, or in the possession of the Corporation, but on the contrary said property and the income received therefrom, after the payment of all proper charges, debts, demands, and expenses due by or incurred on behalf of the Corporation shall be administered in accordance with the terms of the applicable gift or investment agreement and those purposes enunciated in Article III above.

- A. Upon the dissolution or liquidation of this Corporation, all of its assets, principal and income, subject to the payment of its debts, shall vest in the board, committee, Council, Charge Conference, Corporation, institution, Annual Conference, or other body or entity in proportion to the interest of each such organization, body or entity in the capital funds and properties of this Corporation.
- B. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any individual.

ARTICLE V

This Corporation shall have no capital stock.

ARTICLE VI

This Corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE VII

The names and addresses of the incorporators are as follows:

Marvin J. Cowell	2013 Clark Avenue, Raleigh, NC
J. M. Dozier	2111 Ruffin Street, Durham, NC
J. E. Garlington	Roxboro, NC
Gurney P. Hood	122 S. Salisbury St., Raleigh, NC
Charles S. Hubbard	Chapel Hill, NC
J. H. Waldrop	Greenville, NC

ARTICLE VIII

The incorporators of this Corporation shall be the initial directors thereof and exercise the powers herein granted and be charged with the responsibilities herein set out until their successors are elected and qualified, at which time their several directorships shall ipso facto cease.

ARTICLE IX

- A. This Corporation shall be managed and its affairs directed by the Board of Directors whose duties and responsibilities are specified by the Bylaws. Directors of this Corporation shall be, until and unless the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of The United Methodist Church otherwise directs:
1. The resident Bishop of the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of The United Methodist Church.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES FROM FORMER CHARTER

1. Name changed from METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. to UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.
2. Editorial changes which do not make substantive changes in procedures or operations.
3. "Members" changed to "directors" to reflect more accurately how the Foundation has functioned since its inception.
4. Board of Directors:
 - A. A director from the Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries replaces a director from the Board of Education since the former now holds title to camp properties.
 - B. The Executive Director is added to the Board of Directors as a non-voting director.
5. New language is incorporated to improve receipt, management, and investment of planned gifts as well as other investments.

B. REPORTS

STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS

This 1990 Session of the NC Annual Conference is a time for lifting our praise and thanksgiving to God, a time for making confession and receiving assurance, and a time for going forth to be vital in our congregational life and faithful in our discipleship to Jesus Christ. So in these days together let us offer praise for the gift of God's grace and power which has enabled us to do significant and far-reaching ministries of compassion. Let us confess our failures of faith and faithfulness and accept the forgiveness that God offers. And let us go from this Conference to be the body of Christ, a community empowered by the indwelling presence of the living Lord and touching the world with the caring and redeeming love of that Christ whose body we are.

Here in this opening session let us focus our attention on some of those areas of our life and mission in which our accomplishments, by God's grace, call for joyous praise and thanksgiving; and let us be reminded, too, of those areas of missional responsibility which cause us concern and call for more attention and additional resources.

A major emphasis during the past year has been our Conference Vitalization Project. Over a three-year period this program will involve a minimum of 195 congregations in a process of growth in mission and ministry, using Kennon L. Callahan's Twelve Keys to an Effective Church as a guide. 78 local congregations are participating in the current year; however, more than three times that number were convinced of the value of the program and applied for inclusion in it. Steve Compton is the team leader for this project. He is being assisted by 22 consultants, including both laity and clergy, who have received intensive training for the project and are leading congregations in planning and implementing ministries built on those strengths which have become evident in a careful evaluation of the congregation's resources for ministry and mission. Participating congregations have expressed great excitement about this program and the vitality which they believe it will bring to their life and mission. 80 additional churches will be selected for inclusion in the project in 1991.

1612 persons, including the planning teams from the 78 participating local churches, have been trained in the "Twelve Keys" approach to congregational vitalization. This project promises to lead local congregations across this Annual Conference to spiritual renewal and growth in outreach for Jesus Christ. For all that has happened in our vitalization program and for that which the future promises for this project, let us offer praise and thanksgiving to God.

The United Methodists of the NC Annual Conference have pledged a total of $8,261,607 to be used for camping and church extension through our "Spirit for Tomorrow" campaign. Of this pledged amount, $2,278,374 has been paid in cash and other assets. These funds are already at work strengthening our camping ministries with needed physical improvements and enhancing church extension with support for new United Methodist congregations.

Ground has been broken and construction is underway for the first new building in many years at Camp Don Lee. This new bathhouse will be completed in time for summer campers. In addition, four new cabins for females will be built at Don Lee as soon as capital funds are available. Plans are also being developed for a new multi-purpose building at Camp Rockfish and for a new adult retreat/conference center at Camp Chestnut Ridge.

Fifteen new congregations have been organized during our current church extension emphasis and campaign. Seaside UMC is one of these new congregations which was recently chartered on Sunday, January 12, 1990, with 91 members. Their beautiful new building site was a gift through the "Spirit for Tomorrow" campaign. Two other sites have been purchased for new congregations to be established in 1991. One of these is in Burlington, and the other is in Greenville.

But the "Spirit for Tomorrow" campaign is not over yet. We need your ongoing assistance. If we are going to reach our goal of $8,000,000 received for church extension and camping ministries, we must receive additional pledges of at least $1,750,000. Mrs. Beth Norris and the Capital Funds Campaign Continuation Committee are still at work seeking new commitments, especially major gifts, and encouraging persons to make regular contributions toward the pledges which have been made.

Let us celebrate our "Spirit for Tomorrow" achievement and offer praise to God for what is being done in the ministries impacted by this program.

A total of $59,111,025 was given last year by the United Methodists of the NC Annual Conference for the work of Jesus Christ in ministries at home and around the world. This is an increase of $4,291,809 over the year before and reflects an increase in annual per capita giving from $258.00 to $271.00. My heart rejoices, "Thanks be unto God!" However, in the midst of such praise and thanksgiving to God, we must remind ourselves that a per capita giving of $271.00 for United Methodist Christians in eastern NC falls far short of the tithe which is the Biblical teaching concerning the stewardship of money. We cannot be satisfied until every United Methodist is committed to the Christian doctrine and practice of the stewardship of financial resources. It is significant, and should be noted, that 68% of our pastoral charges gave 100% of their "Fair Share Outreach Ministries apportionment." For many this demanded sacrificial giving. We are deeply grateful to these congregations for this expression of faithful discipleship and vital congregational life.

But while it is right to praise God for this increase in giving and for this commitment to Christian stewardship, there is cause for concern when we note that while our giving to outreach ministries increased in 1989 by $589,000 or 8%, the amount received was only 92% of that which was requested and needed to sustain our mission and ministries of outreach at home and around the world. Thus, our colleges, our children's homes, our retirement homes, our missionaries, and many agencies of ministry were forced to adjust and reduce their planned outreach programs to deal with less than anticipated support.

An analysis of our giving to ministries beyond the local church, which increased by 26%, indicates that our people give more freely and joyfully to those causes about which they are clearly informed and to those missions with which they can associate faces and names. Aware of that fact, more than 500 pastors have entered into covenant with me to give special attention to mission interpretation. My hope is that every person here today, lay and clergy, will become informed about our mission and act as a mission interpreter in their local congregation. It is so important for us to clearly understand our outreach mission projects and programs and to increase our giving to these causes so that we can meet our mission responsibilities everywhere.

As a member of the General Board of Global Ministries and as the president of the UMCOR, I have a growing awareness of what our denomination is doing in mission here in the US and around the world. We are sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ; we are seeing persons professing faith in Him and becoming His disciples; we are feeding hungry people; we are offering healing ministries to those who are ill; we are attacking the root causes of hunger; we are involved in ministries of justice and liberation; and we are doing these ministries in more than 80 countries of the world. We respond to natural disasters anywhere in the world with immediate relief within 24 to 36 hours. And our church is able to do these things because of our fair share outreach giving. What a magnificent response to the call of Jesus, "Go, make disciples...feed the hungry...set at liberty those who are oppressed...love as I have loved you." These ministries of our local congregations through our connectional structure are something to sing about! This is a mission that gives us reason to offer praise to God for God's presence and power in our labors.

It should be noted, too, that many of our NC Conference United Methodists are involved in outreach programs that take them as volunteers in mission to other parts of this country and to other places outside this nation. Missioners from our Annual Conference have been to Jamaica, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, and Peru. A group was commissioned and ready to go to Liberia in Africa when their plans were interrupted by the political upheaval in that country. Hundreds of our NC United Methodists went to South Carolina to assist the people there who were victims of the destruction left by Hurricane Hugo.

Some of our local congregations have entered into covenant relationship with local congregations in other parts of the world. Later in this Annual Conference session, we shall be offered the opportunity as an Annual Conference to enter into a special covenant of mutual support with our brothers and sisters in the Methodist Conference of Peru.

Time will not permit me to speak of all the significant ministries now being done through the many institutions and agencies of our Annual Conference. We are indeed a people in mission. Thanks be unto God!

In our ministry of evangelism we thank God for using us to lead others to Jesus Christ. 3,052 persons were received into our churches on profession of faith last year. In addition, 3,385 persons were received from other UJM churches, and 2,137 persons were received into membership from other denominations. The total number of our membership additions was 8,574. Our membership losses totaled 7,107. However, it is a matter of concern that our membership statistics reflect a decrease of 752 for the Annual Conference. This was caused as you know by the correcting of membership rolls with removals of large numbers by "charge conference action."

I am not concerned about the fact that we have corrected our rolls. This is good administration. But I am concerned about evangelism. The statistical report is just a reminder to me of our need to address this part of our ministry. Our statistics call us to examine again our response to Jesus' commandment, "Go, make disciples...." We have the "Good News" of God's saving grace in Jesus Christ to share with the world. "Grace upon grace" is our message and our mission. We are set apart for and made ministers of this Gospel. Let us receive the power offered by the Holy Spirit for witnessing; and let us share the good news of God's redeeming love through Jesus Christ with people everywhere. And if we are faithful witnesses, God will add to our number daily those who are being saved.

In my report to you last year I noted that the area of open itineracy is of special concern to the Cabinet and to me. This Annual Conference in session in 1989 adopted a resolution calling upon the Bishop and the Cabinet to take the appropriate steps to implement fully open itineracy no later than 1995. We have earnestly addressed this issue during the past year. Assisted by a special committee of lay and clergy from every district, we have prepared a set of Guidelines for Open Itineracy which you have received and which I hope you will endorse as guidelines for this Annual Conference as we move to implement the biblical call for racial inclusiveness.

It is a great joy for me to announce to you again at this time an appointment which was released for publication some weeks ago. The Reverend Albert Shuler will be appointed to serve as district superintendent of the Durham District. This means that the NC Annual Conference Cabinet is once again racially inclusive.

In closing, let me report to you that I have appointed a special committee of lay and clergy to consider with me during the coming year the mission of this Annual Conference for the 1990's and into the 21st Century. We shall evaluate all areas of our life and work, including Annual Conference structure, staff, and programs. We shall set forth the missional purpose of this Annual Conference and define again the role of the connection in supporting, resourcing, and facilitating the mission of Jesus Christ through local congregations.

The New Testament calls us to be the body of Christ in the world. This means that we are called to see the world's needs with the eyes of Christ, to hear the world's cries with the ears of Christ, to love the world with the heart of Christ, and to relieve the world's suffering with the compassionate touch of Christ. My prayer is that our living Lord will enable us by grace to be the body of Christ, vital congregations of faithful disciples in growing communities of compassion.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER, REPORT OF

ALL OF GOD'S PEOPLE IN ALL PLACES AND AT ALL TIMES ARE CALLED TO MINISTER - Each is called to minister - to give aid or service in the name of Christ. Among the laity, ministers sometimes go incognito - sometimes they are called by different names. To mention a few, sometimes the lay minister is called - accountant, astronaut, aunt, uncle, mother, father, administrator, used car salesman, barber, hairdresser, bank teller, bricklayer, babysitter, butcher, druggist, farmer, landlord, librarian, custodian, nurse, lawyer, realtor, announcer, weather forecaster, carpenter.

During the last year the work of the laity in the NC Conference has been accomplished through our organized programs and through the ministry of individuals when they have seen a need and have responded. Our organized programs in ministry have continued to grow and serve the Conference well - this report is found in your Book of Recommendations and Reports on page 125. This afternoon I will spend my time on the ministry of individuals.

During the last year as I went to work day after day - as I attended meetings - as I traveled across Eastern NC, I was able to observe United Methodists quietly going about the work of the Lord. Visitors at the hospital taking a word of cheer and perhaps a flower - visitors to a new family in the community - visiting a rest home - visiting and caring for those in prison - volunteers working at soup kitchens - volunteers working at shelters for the homeless - volunteers building homes for and with the homeless - volunteers cutting and delivering firewood for those that could not afford to heat their homes - volunteers reading stories to children at the local library - volunteers repairing and painting the church building for a small congregation of brothers and sisters - a sensitive person realizing that someone is wrestling with a problem and invites them to have lunch or a cup of coffee to share some time together and possibly talk - all events happening in the normal, ordinary day-to-day events. All events that were important witnessing to the commitment and faith of the follower and to the love and care of the Father.

There is a beautiful short story by Leo Tolstoy entitled "Papa Panov's Special Christmas". Most of you know the story - let me refresh our memories - Papa Panov had a small shoe shop in his home where he worked day after day. Papa was old now. This Christmas Eve his usually cheerful face, with the little laugh wrinkles looked sad now. The Christmas sounds reminded him of his wife and when his children were little. They were all gone now and Papa was alone. Papa closed the shutters for the night and tonight he read the familiar Christmas story from the old family Bible. There is no room for Mary, Joseph and the baby Jesus.

Papa exclaimed, "Oh dear, oh dear! If only they had come here! I would have given them my bed, and I could have covered the baby with my patchwork quilt to keep him warm!" Papa continued to read about the splendid gifts and thought, "I have no gift that I could give him". Then his face brightened. He put down the Bible, got up and from a shelf high on the wall took down a small dusty box and opened it. Inside were the best shoes he had ever made - a perfect pair of tiny leather shoes. "I should give him these."

In the warm room Papa dozed off and began to dream. In his dream there was Jesus who said to him, "You have been wishing that you could see me, Papa Panov, then look for me tomorrow. It will be Christmas Day and I will visit you. But look carefully, for I shall not tell you who I am."

Christmas morning Papa awoke, built the fires, opened the shutters and prepared special coffee for his breakfast. As he looked out the window into the bitter cold windswept street for his special visitor, the street was empty except for the road sweeper. The road sweeper looked so miserable and dirty. Papa opened the shop door and called out cheerfully, "Come and have some hot coffee to keep out the cold". The sweeper came in and warmed himself by the heat of the stove and with the comforting warm coffee.

When he had gone, Papa put on cabbage soup for his dinner and kept checking the window for his visitor. Someone is coming. It is a young girl carrying something - as she gets closer, Papa notices that she looks very tired and is carrying a baby. Papa opens the door and invites her in, "Won't you come in? You both need to warm by the fire and rest. I'll warm some milk for the baby. I've had children of my own - I can feed her for you." Papa carefully warmed some milk and fed the baby with a spoon. "The baby needs shoes", Papa said. The girl replied, "I can't afford shoes, I've got no husband or money. I'm walking to the next village to get work." Papa remembered the precious little shoes he had saved for Jesus. "Try these on her." The shoes were a perfect fit. As she left the girl said, "You have been so kind to us. May all your Christmas wishes come true!"

The rest of the day passed with families rushing down the street to visit, and some occasional beggars. The beggars Papa brought in to warm, give a bowl of hot soup and a generous hunk of bread. Papa strained his eyes for the Important Stranger. The day ended. Papa put up the shutters and sat wearily in his armchair. Jesus had not come.

Then all at once he knew that he was no longer alone in the room. And he was wide awake - this was not a dream. Once again he saw the old road sweeper, the young mother and her baby, and the beggars he had fed. As they passed each whispered, "Didn't you see me, Papa Panov?"

"Who are you?" he called out, bewildered.

Then another voice answered him. It was the voice from his dream - the voice of Jesus.

"I was hungry and you fed me," he said. "I was naked and you clothed me. I was cold and you warmed me. I came to you today in every one of those you helped and welcomed."

This is the voice we need to hear. These are the words we need to hear. Because we have been about the Master's work. Because we have been in the proper ministry.

ALL OF GOD'S PEOPLE IN ALL PLACES AND AT ALL TIMES ARE CALLED TO MINISTER.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES, REPORTS OF

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

The Commission has hired a data entry operator to put historical records of ministers, churches they have served, and other historical information on computer. As of this date, many of our ministers have not supplied us with the data we need. Those who do not supply us with the data will be left out of the process. The deadline is December 1990.

We hope our Native American History will be ready by this Annual Conference. We have had an editor working on the final draft, so we can go to the press by April 1990. Paperback and hardback books will be available.

Most of our hand written district conference records from the turn of this century have been microfilmed. These are in the Archives Room in the Methodist Building. Mr. Harry Gaton, a member of our Commission, has handled this project for us. In the near future, we hope to microfilm other records. We now have a microfilm reader in our archives Room.

In 1989, we made grants to three of our historic churches: namely; Whitaker Chapel, Old Dock in Wilmington District and Rehoboth Church in the Elizabeth City District.

The SEJ Historical Society will meet in our Annual Conference at Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, July 10-13, 1990.

Three members of our Commission attended the organizational meeting of the National United Methodist Church Historical Society at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, in July 1989. Mrs. Vivian Mitchell, a member of the Commission, was elected secretary of the Genealogy Division.

Our 1989 meetings were held at Fair Promise Church in the Sanford District and the Methodist Building. Fair Promise is the oldest church in the Sanford District.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS, COMMISSION ON

Events which have swept the world during the last year remind us again of the continuing impact of the greater Christian community in the struggle for peace and justice in our world. In East Germany, the first mass protests were launched from a Lutheran Church; in Poland, from the Roman Catholic Church. The prophetic witness Anglican Archbishop Desmond Tutu and the South African Council of Churches has been an important factor in the recent small, but significant, movement toward justice in South Africa. These events are witness that we Christians are at our best when we define ourselves not by denomination or tongue or nationality, but in faithful, compassionate discipleship to the one who is Lord of all churches, Jesus Christ.

Certainly the highlight of this past Conference year was the greetings and challenge Bishop John Miller of the A.M.E. Zion Church brought during his visit to the 1989 Annual Conference session.

During the past year, the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns has tried to be a witness for unity at the national, state and local church level.

At the national level, our Commission sent a representative to the National Workshop for Christian Unity in Pittsburgh and selected three churches to study the issue of becoming part of the Covenant Community of Churches. This Covenant, which calls churches not into merger, but into mutual recognition and cooperation, will be voted on by the 1992 General Conference.

At the State level, the majority of our work is in cooperation with the North Carolina Council of Churches. We commend them on their faithful witness to issues of peace and justice within our state. One of the Council's major emphases is the Caring Program for Children, which helps provide health insurance for children who would otherwise be denied necessary medical care.

The Council has also worked successfully for State tax reform to exempt people with less than $12,000 annual income from taxes and to expand Medicaid coverage to more mothers and children. As a result of law changes in 1989, there are already 20,000 more children receiving Medicaid benefits. The Council also continues its work in helping the living conditions for migrant workers. Finally, a March 1990 Conference on Understanding Islam was most successful. The Commission offers significant financial support to the North Carolina Council of Churches: we believe it is money well-spent.

At the local level, the Commission continues to encourage local church involvement in Church Women United, World Day of Prayer, CROP Walks, joint Lenten, Easter, and Thanksgiving services, and on-going projects such as soup kitchens, homeless shelters, and prison ministries. Such programs of unity and compassion, while not so earth-shattering as events in Eastern Europe, are important seeds, from which the Kingdom of God might grow.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, BOARD OF

"Church and Society" is an Annual Conference agency charged with the task of proclaiming the gospel in the several places where society experiences brokenness. There have been times when that very proclamation became tedious within the church itself, as the forces of society threatened to overwhelm the people of the Word.

In the last few months, the whole world has witnessed events that few of even the most hopeful could have hoped for. Many, many of these events have arisen in areas of concern for the Board of Church and Society, and Christian people everywhere.

Among the most profound changes has been the crumbling of both "planned economies" and the Berlin Wall. With that has come the acceleration of "glasnost" and "perestroika," (openness and restructuring) and free elections in places where that has long been absent. The participation of the people in their destiny is on the rise. The waning of cold war rhetoric may yet free up massive capital, which could be redirected from armaments for mass destruction to aid for massive economic reconstruction.

In South Africa, P. W. Botha is out of office, Nelson Mandela is out of prison, and the African National Congress is out of hiding. The issue of the homelands is returning to haunt the decision-makers, and perhaps will be resolved with the final collapse of apartheid.

The environment is back on the national and world agenda, and is getting much needed attention by the governments of the world.

On a second level, some issues have "budded," but cry out for more attention. While drug-trader Manuel Noriega is out of office, our nation's decades-long complicity with this outlaw needs to be evaluated. And while the war on drugs is joined, it is not yet fully engaged.

The elections in Nicaragua had surprising results, made all the more surprising by the grace with which the Sandinistas relinquished power. Once again, the "might" the United States exerted on the tiny nation to bring it to total economic collapse must come under continuing scrutiny.

Closer to home, the Board is committed to a new levels of education within the Annual Conference, as we have made available a number of "videos" (through the Media Center) dealing with "church and society" issues. Resources available at this Annual Conference include a listing of those videos, a 1984 "study guide" on tobacco, an inventory of creation-stewardship, and other items of interest.

The world continues to be filled with pain and suffering that cry out for the healing power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We commit ourselves anew to addressing those pains wherever they are found, in homes and families, in schools and in workplaces, farms and factories, in this country and around the world. We invite members of the Annual Conference to use the Board as a resource in local church programming and discussion. We solicit your prayers as we address together the hurts and hopes of God's people everywhere.

EDUCATION, BOARD OF

We people called Christians are set apart and called to a ministry of teaching by God's mandate: Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. (Matt 28: 19-20).

We your Conference Board of Education have worked hard to make available the workshops and training events necessary to provide all age levels of our Conference an opportunity to grow spiritually.

The Conference Confirmation class convened by our Bishop will be held on March 24, 1990 at Edenton Street UMC with attendance expected to be even greater the last year.

Annual Conference Session for Youth (ACS), was conducted at Methodist College last conference year with attendance at an all time high, noticeable was the increase attendance among ethnic minorities.

Successful youth events were held: Junior High Weekend, Youth Rally Day, Youth Workshop, Junior and Senior High Workshops, Youth Music Workshop and Concert with attendance (at the Music Concert) less than expected.

The Board of Education plans to incorporate in the Conference Summer School session this year a conference-wide workshop on Invitational Teaching.

One of our highlight events of the conference year was the Consultant Training events that took place in the fall of '89, where we trained 30 lay and clergy persons to provide consultation and training services to local churches in developing ministries and leaders for children, youth, young adults, and Sunday School leaders.

We solicit your prayers and support as we stand together in our effort to uphold God's mandate.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has been busy keeping before the people of this Conference the importance of continued support of the Comprehensive Plan as we strengthen Racial Ethnic Churches in the North Carolina Conference.

It is important that we remember that our work calls for a massive and sustained response from all levels of the United Methodist Church to human needs and opportunities that exist today in racial ethnic churches and communities. It calls for responses in recruiting and training racial ethnic leadership, developing and redeveloping of congregations, reaching out to persons in need, the empowerment and liberation of persons and systems, strengthening necessary structures, developing resources for vital worship, Christian education and evangelization.

Our primary focus this year has been the approval and implementation of a proposal from the office of Finance and Field Service of the Board of Global Ministries.

The purpose of this program is to assist Racial Ethnic churches to raise their level of giving and commitment to the local church operating budget and/or capital fund needs.

In an effort to strengthen Racial Ethnic churches a special fee consideration has been offered. For campaigns with total pledge goals up to and including $250,00.00 the service fee will be $3000.00. For campaigns with total pledge goals between $250,001 and $450,000.00 the service fee will be 2% of the amount of the goal subscribed. The fee structure is as follows:

One third of the designated fee to be paid by the local church - One third of the designated fee to be paid by the conference - One third of the designated fee to be paid by Office of Financial and Field Service/Congregational Development Unit of the National Program Division.

Presently there are two congregations involved in this program. John Wesley, Fayetteville, has set a goal of $600,000.00 to be raised over the next three years. Wilson Temple, Raleigh, has set a goal of $100,000.00. It is our hope that other congregations and/or a cluster of congregations will soon become a part of this much needed program.

The second focus of our work has been the second phase of the Ethnic Church Resource Training (ECRT) program. This event was held at Prospect Church, Maxton. Workshops included "Leadership Skills for Laity and Clergy", "Spiritual Formation and Small Group Ministries" and "Evangelism and Church Growth". Leadership for these workshops was provided by members of the General Board of Discipleship, Nashville, TN.

As the Committee of Ethnic Local Church Concerns, our task is not an easy one, but with God's help we will see it through.

"The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church seeks to live in the time between what is and what is to be. We are struggling to become a community of wholeness"- and our work is a part of that struggling.

EVANGELISM, BOARD OF

On behalf of the Board of Evangelism, this report is shared for the Conference year 1989-90. God calls us to be faithful disciples and vital congregations. This is possible through the accompaniment of the Holy Spirit. It remains our prayer that we are willing to be led by the Spirit of Christ.

The effectiveness of the Board of Evangelism comes through the Districts and the local churches. We take it as our responsibility to assist in training ministers and lay persons in ministries of evangelism. The Board is fully supportive of our Conference's Revitalization Program. We also have initiated several District Workshops on visitation ministries, Growth Plus, and Faith Sharing. We highly recommend each local church to utilize Faith Sharing, a training ministry which can be received from Nashville, Tennessee.

As a reminder, an extensive collection of resource material for evangelism in the local church is provided through the Conference Media Center.

It is a joy for the Board to recommend to the Annual Conference the approval for Bobby Tyson, Berry Barbour and Tommy Tyson as Conference-approved Evangelists. These persons have been serving the local churches through preaching, teaching and leading of prayer groups.

The spring of 1990 we experienced our third Conference Camp Meeting. We thank Bishop Minnick for his support. The help we received from Methodist College was most appreciated. The Reverend Wallace Chappell inspired us with God's Word. Our Committee on Ethnic Minority Concerns offered a very helpful workshop in the fall of 1989 at Prospect United Methodist Church. The Reverend Cornelius Henderson was the keynote speaker.

One indication of the vitality of the local church is reflected in its membership changes. Once again, as a Conference we can rejoice through Christ that we have realized a net increase of 523 persons throughout our Annual Conference. Thousands of persons of all ages and stations in life have added a new joy into the life of our congregations. We do not have time to boast for God has much more for us to be doing.

It is our prayer that each of us would make Christ Jesus known, be disciples for service, and live our faith through the Holy Spirit.

GLOBAL COVENANT COMMUNITY, TASK FORCE ON

A rich quality of our Church., especially as it has developed in the last century, is its global character. We are a church with a distinctive theological heritage, but that heritage is lived out in a global community, resulting in understandings of our faith enriched by indigenous experiences and manners of expression.

We affirm the contributions which United Methodist of varying ethnic, language, cultural, and national groups make to one another and to our Church as a whole. We celebrate our shared commitment to clear theological understanding and vital missional expression.

United Methodists as a diverse people continue to strive for consensus in understanding the gospel. In our diversity, we are held to participate in the creative and redemptive activity of God.

Our task is to articulate our vision in a way that will draw us together as a people in mission.

("The Present Challenge to Theology in the Church," from the 1988 Book of Discipline, page 87)

In February 1989, Bishop C. P. Minnick created a Task Force on "Global Covenant Community." This Task Force was the result of an expressed interest and desire on the part of some individuals and local churches in the North Carolina Annual Conference to affirm in specific and intentional ways our covenant relationship with Christian sisters and brothers in other parts of the world. The immediate focus of this group was to develop a model for global covenant with the Iglesia Metodista Del Peru.

Now, after a year of consultation, dialogue and exchange, such a relationship of covenant between the North Carolina Annual Conference and Iglesia Metodista Peru has been initiated. We recognize that specific, sustained expressions of our covenant bond must be encouraged among our local churches, districts, and conference agencies. Such expressions of our bond should be carried out through written correspondence, person to person exchange, prayer, "eucharistic" remembrance, etc. We also recognize the necessity for this global covenant relationship, and all such partnerships, to be reviewed and reaffirmed annually.

In recalling Christ's global commission, and in affirming our own Methodist heritage, which includes an understanding of the "world parish," we encourage such covenant bonds between the North Carolina Annual Conference and Methodists around the world. We believe that the formation and maintenance of such creative and active global partnerships will serve to unite Christ's geographically scattered church, will help to hold our global church mutually accountable, and will encourage the discovery and exchange of vast treasures of spirituality.

Therefore, be it resolved, that the 1990 North Carolina Annual Conference accept the following statements as a mutual expression of covenant community between the North Carolina Annual Conference and the Iglesia Metodista Del Peru:

The North Carolina Annual Conference Covenant Declaration:

We, the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, in session June, 1990 hereby affirm our covenant in Christ with our sisters and brothers of the Iglesia Metodista Del Peru. As an expression of that covenant bond, we will call upon the cabinet and agencies of this Annual Conference to encourage and lead the Annual Conference, districts, and local congregations to enter into a covenant/partner relationship with the Iglesia Metodista Del Peru, for prayer and other forms of mutual support, engagements, and communication as determined by and agreed upon by the communities of faith entering into such a covenant/partner relationship.

Iglesia Metodista Del Peru Covenant Declaration:

The 12th General Assembly of the Methodist Church of Peru, meeting January 25-28, 1990, received with much joy in the Lord, the willingness to ratify the discipleship covenant between the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church of the USA and the Methodist Church of Peru. We have the opportunity to send our most affectionate greetings to our North American brothers and sisters through the presence of Revs. Mark Wethington and Jimmy Creech.

We recognize that you, as well as we, must pray together, support one another, get to know each other more, and exchange experiences in such a manner that with total trust in our Lord Jesus Christ we will walk together, striving for mutual growth and benefit of our churches.

Thus, we affirm also the willingness to establish the discipleship covenant with the North Carolina Annual Conference. "We are partners in the work of service to our God..." (1 Corinthians 3:9).

Mark W. Wethington, Chairperson

HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES, BOARD OF

Health is wealth. The country parson says: "Often one is willing to sacrifice everything to cure something he was not willing to give anything to prevent."

Health and Welfare programs provide an unlimited opportunity to serve our Lord through serving others. We urge each local church to appoint a Health and Welfare Chairperson who is willing to work and who has a burden for the health of others. We also urgently request that each pastor pass on all information which is received through the co-ordinated mailing.

Members of the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministry attended the training session at Lake Junaluska.

There is a publication in the Methodist Foundation on Gifts and Wills Dept., in the United Methodist Building which acquaints parents of handicapped children with the proper procedure in making a will so that it benefits the child.

Golden Cross continues to be a real blessing to many who have the misfortune of being burdened with medical bills they cannot pay.

Access Sunday is still an important observance which makes it possible for any elderly and handicapped persons to attend worship services in their churches. The third Sunday in October has been designated as Access Sunday. This highlights the opportunities and responsibilities which the church has to be in ministry with ALL persons, including those with handicapping conditions.

Grants of $500 each may be applied for to help local churches become more accessible.

Our Health Fair at Annual Conference utilized many volunteers. 621 persons were screened. The Insurance Committee contributed $652 to the Handicapped Campership Fund. Each year a number of potential illnesses are spotted and we believe lives have been saved.

Members of the Task Force on Ministry with Persons with Handicapping Conditions have helped in obtaining signing for the hearing impaired at meetings. They have been actively involved in making plans for establishing a Home for Adults with Handicapping Conditions. This proposal is included separately for your information and approval.

A study is in progress to obtain information concerning the portion of the homeless community who are chronically or mentally ill. We hope to become involved in helping these persons.

We urge observance of Golden Cross promotion day on the first Sunday in May, the Thanksgiving offering for the Methodist Home for Children, and the Mother's Day offering for the Methodist Retirement Homes.

As funds become available there is continuing interest in expanding programs in the areas of child abuse, alcohol and substance abuse, aging parents, Alzheimer's disease, AIDS, and cancer. Other real concerns which can be dealt with on a local level include support for the unemployed, divorced, hospice care, mental retardation, and respite care.

We continue to support the chaplaincy service for Duke University Hospital.

Jesus went about doing good. Too often we're content with just going about. Christ said "I am come that you might have life and have it more abundantly." Our prayer and desire is that we may help others live a more abundant life through our efforts.

Anne Collins, Chairperson

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross Ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to those of our fellowship who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross, we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of greatest emotional stress and financial need.

This past year (1989) Golden Cross assisted 41 families from 12 districts in our Conference. The total amount of money available for medical assistance was $24,200.00, which included $22,000.00 budgeted and $2,200.00 carried over from 1988. The balance on hand at year's end was $927.04. Of this amount, $574.00 was carried over to 1990.

As you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form. As part of the North Carolina Conference, you have been gracious in making these funds available for this worthy ministry. The church and its members are grateful for your support in time of extreme need.

Methodist Home for Children

Ten years ago the Annual Conference and the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children adopted a major strategic planning document, the implementation of which, has radically changed our ministry to children, youth, and families for the better. Reflections on this transition follow, but an aside is in order at this point.

Our Annual Conference is embarked on a major enterprise to engage local churches in strategic planning called Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples: Growing Communities of Compassion. The experience in strategic planning done in the Annual Conference and the Children's Home Board of Trustees provides a successful model which should serve to hearten us in the present Conference-wide Vitalization Project. Our experience certainly vindicates the wisdom of careful strategic planning. Consider this profile.

In the decade of the 1980's the Methodist Home for Children went from a campus-based child centered program to a continuum of community-based, family centered programs. This transition has been accomplished successfully.

1. A Network of eight youth homes, four family life specialists and six in-home crisis counselors has been put in place. These services are being well received. In 1989, we served 300 families totaling 747 persons in residential care and counseling. Another 2000 families have received benefits through 162 family life education workshops. All eight youth homes are fully utilized with waiting lists.

2. This transition has involved the acquisition of eight youth homes, the construction of the Memorial Administration Building and the establishment of ten area offices for family preservation work. This transition has been accomplished in these ten years without incurring any indebtedness.

3. As the campus property was sold, the proceeds were invested in the Methodist Home for Children Endowment Fund. Careful management of these funds has enabled the cost of the transition to be paid for from the earnings of this investment.

4. Our community based youth homes minister to youths and families in need without regard to race, class, income, national origin or religious preference. This open policy caused some neighborhoods to resist placing the homes. But persistence on the part of the District Advisory Councils, Trustees, and Staff has, without exception, won the opposition. Each neighborhood and parish where youth homes are located takes genuine pleasure in this work. This ministry is viewed as authentically Christian, precisely because it is so open.

5. Effective youth home programs and family preservation techniques have led to request, for this agency to provide consultation to other agencies who wish to utilize models of care used by the Methodist Home. The agency is a Certified Sponsor Site of the National Teaching-Family Association.

At present, we have consultation contracts in effect with Lutheran Family Services of Virginia, Outreach Broward in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, and the United Methodist Children's Home in Jackson Mississippi. Contracts are pending in Arkansas and Oklahoma.

The strategic planning done by the Conference Board of Trustees and Staff of the Children's Home is the 1970's led to creative ministry to needy children, youth and families in the name of Christ. This creativity resulted from willingness to tolerate the vulnerability of the planning process.

The vitalization Program is a true successor to the Methodist Home for Children experience. Hundreds of congregations across our Conference can look forward to a renewal of creativity which is the sign of The Holy Spirit in action.

FUTURE NEEDS

Two factors continue to cause financial stress: 1) The demand for services from children, youth, and families in need and 2) the cost of providing quality care. Needs outstrip our ability to meet them. Our planning indicates the necessity for a concerted development campaign for 1991. We will need the continuing support of the Annual Conference as we enlist support from all the people of Eastern North Carolina.

The 1980's was the "Me" decade with strong emphasis on "getting the most for me." The 1990's will be the decade of the family. Our society is longing for the quality connectedness that only the family can provide. The Methodist Home for children is well positioned to lead in this rediscovery of the values of family living. There are thousands of persons who want to be associated with us in this task. Together, we will succeed.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

The most relevant question facing the retirement and long term care industry today is how to survive amidst the increasing demands of the many regulatory agencies.

As the cost of providing quality health care to our residents continues to spiral, the cost of utilities, fuel, food, employee benefits, daily necessities for our independent living residents also continues to increase at a rapid pace.

In order to meet the challenges being presented, the Board of Trustees has been actively pursuing innovative flexibility to keep the Methodist Retirement Communities in the North Carolina Conference viable entities which continue to provide quality care. Many committees ranging from the Admissions to Strategic Planning are diligently working to insure that our facilities stay competitive, yet continue to carry out the mission and purpose of this organization.

Countless numbers of people are devoting time, energy and resources through their service on the Board of Trustees; Local Committees; the Auxiliary; the Friends; Volunteer groups; and local Church congregations. The history of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. attests to our success in meeting challenges. We are confident that our shared responsibility will continue to be carried out enthusiastically, prudently, and foremost, with concern for those we serve.

The three campuses within our system currently provide varying levels of service to approximately 450 residents. As you know, national statistics indicate that quality of care has improved the quantity of life and our census reflects this national trend. The average age of those now seeking admission is seventy-nine, thus the services they seek are more extensive.

It is imperative that the oldest of our three campuses be updated in the immediate future in order to retain a competitive edge on the market for this area. While this facility has aged gracefully, the Durham campus now demands attention and a report will be forthcoming regarding this vital link in our retirement chain. Your inquiry regarding this facility is encouraged (919-383-2567).

A $1.2 million renovation and construction project has just been completed at the Wesley Pines Retirement Community in Lumberton which will enhance services to the residents. This facility with its idyllic setting affords four levels of care and we encourage you to make inquiry (919-738-9691).

While the newest facility in the system, Cypress Glen at Greenville, is struggling; steady progress is being made in attracting residents. An Assisted Living and Healthcare support unit have now opened which affords those seeking admission the security of continuous care. Your inquiry will be welcome also at this facility (919-830-0036).

The story of our residents hasn't changed much since the inception of the retirement system in that there are still many who are unable to pay the full fees. Only through the financial support of the Annual Conference, which has to rely on the local churches for these funds, other gifts and contributions, are we able to continue to provide the level of benevolent care required.

You are urged to help meet the challenges presented in providing care to our senior citizens by becoming knowledgeable and involved with the Methodist Retirement Communities. By visiting the facilities, volunteering and participating in its activities, you can see first hand the quality of care provided by the staff. By becoming involved, each of us can help shape the future of this vital ministry of our Church and Conference.

The North Carolina Conference can be proud of this agency of the Church. Its staff is committed to carrying out the mission and purpose of this organization. We seek your support as we work together to fulfill the expectations of those we serve.

Members of our staff are most receptive to sharing our story with you and welcome an opportunity to speak to groups within your local church. We look forward to hearing from you.

L. Amos Tinnell, Executive Director

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is the Agency for education and institutional leadership and is charged with the promotion of intellectual life. Our mission embodies the Wesleyan tradition of commitment to the education of lay persons and clergy providing access to higher education for all persons at both our own church related colleges and also in public colleges and university campuses.

A passion for excellence in higher education has always been part of our heritage, and it continues to be so today. Each Conference College (Louisburg, N. C., Wesleyan, Methodist, and Duke Divinity School) reports excellent environments, fiscal stability, outstanding support (moral and financial) from the alumni, the communities at large, from business and industry, and from friends of the respective institutions. New buildings abound, capital campaigns are meeting with exceptional success, and ever-present needs are being identified and plans laid for their being met.

In this report you find the statistical reports of the various colleges as well as the nominees for trustee positions and for board membership of Campus Ministries. Each name has been approved by this board and recommendation of approval is requested.

The resurgence of spirituality is again noted among the students on public institutional campuses. Much of this credit is due to the United Methodist Campus Ministers who work vigorously and tirelessly to bring students to a closer walk with Christ. The same can be said for the college chaplains and ministers on the private campuses.

As always, the Board, the Colleges, and the Campus Ministries express genuine thanks to the conference for the support and love displayed in so many ways. Your trust confided in us, we assure you, is well-placed. Together, the Conference, the Board, the Colleges and the Campus Ministries, will continue to strive for the Advancement of the Kingdom here on earth.

Campus Ministry, State Commission On

The State Commission met twice between conferences this year at the Learning Center in Winston-Salem. Campus ministry is growing in a variety of ways. We support our own ministries at UNC-Chapel Hill, N.C. State, Western Carolina, Appalachian, UNC-Greensboro, East Carolina, Winston-Salem (Wake Forest, Salem, NC School of the Arts), Winston-Salem State (half-time), NC A&T, and Duke. We support ecumenical ministries at UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Wilmington, Pembroke State, NC Central, and Central Piedmont Community College.

The campus ministry at Duke will be expanded to full time in June 1990. Space is provided by Duke Chapel so that our funds will be for staffing and programs.

The ministry at UNC-Greensboro is in the process of entering an ecumenical venture as a result of the University's acquiring the land of all ministries within the bounds of that campus. Those ministries which will be housed in a common building are the Presbyterian, Baptist, United Methodist and Lutheran with conversations continuing with the Catholic and Episcopal ministries. In order to provide the space needed United Methodists are being asked for $62,000 ($37,200 WNC, $24,800 NC). The University expects to acquire our property by January 1992.

The ecumenical ministry at UNC-C is looking at the possibility of acquiring property adjoining the campus, a house and lot that may be converted to offices and meeting space.

The commission is also working to provide adequate space for the ministry at Western Carolina University and for badly needed repairs on our facility at East Carolina University.

The Personnel Committee is working on closer ties with the ministries asking local pastors and district superintendents to participate more closely with campus ministries, both to support and evaluate their needs.

At the national and state levels we have one of the highest numbers of students participating of any conference ministries in the nation.

We are grateful for the work and presence of our campus ministers.

The Candler School of Theology

The 1989-90 academic year marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Candler School of Theology. Established in 1914 to train students "not merely as thinkers, but as practical workers in the Kingdom of God," the School of Theology was the first school on the Atlanta campus of the new Emory University. Since then the school has become the largest of the United Methodist seminaries, typically enrolling over 600 students, more than 450 of them in the Master of Divinity program. In addition to the M.Div., the school offers the Master of Theological Studies, the Master of Theology, the Doctor of Ministry, and the Doctor of Sacred Theology degrees. Many of the nearly fifty full time faculty teach in the Ph.D. program of Emory's Graduate Division of Religion.

Candler's resources also include the William R. Cannon Chapel, a distinctive and celebrated modern building designed by Paul Rudolph which serves as a center for worship, instruction, fellowship and performance. Equally distinguished is Pitts Theology Library, housing the second largest theological collection in the United States. A number of special research centers flourish at Candler, and the school enjoys an ongoing dialogue with the larger world of learning represented by Emory University.

A number of special events have commemorated the school's anniversary year, beginning with last April's Ministers' Week celebration. In September we inaugurated the Distinguished Preacher Series welcoming Dr. William Sloane Coffin to campus for this event. October brought Sir David Willcocks, Director of Music at Kings College, Cambridge University, to campus for a Festival Morning Prayer. This spring we continue the celebration through the spring arts event, "With a New Vision: Ministry, Theology and the Arts," and through the fifty-fifth annual Ministers' Week, with the theme "Mission and Ministry for a Global Church."

This fall the school welcomes 148 new students in the Master of Divinity program; the total enrollment in this program is 448. We have also welcomed three new faculty members: Pamela Del Couture, Assistant Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling; Robert Michael Franklin, Assistant Professor of Ethics and Society and Director of the Program of Black Church Studies; and Thomas Schmeller, Assistant Professor of New Testament.

One of the year's most exciting events is the completion of the D. Abbott Turner Village and Conference Center. Residential facilities providing reasonably priced housing for theology students were completed in the summer. The conference center is slated for opening in the spring. The school is already seeing the enrichment this facility can offer the community in the form of the Mission Resource Center of the United Methodist Church. Located in Turner Village, the center's first term of classes began in January.

As the school looks to the future, a high priority is the expansion of resources for student support, and especially for the internationalization of theological education at Candler. Other priorities include the expansion of Bishops Hall and the improvement of Pitts Theology Library's capacity to protect its rare and valued holdings. Given the enthusiastic support Candler has always enjoyed from its graduates and its friends, the school confidently looks forward to meeting these challenges successfully and offers its thanks for the many expressions of support it has received in the past. Most particularly, we are grateful for the support of the Ministerial Education Fund and the support provided for it by the churches. Such support sustains the entire community in its work.

Note: The largest of the United Methodist seminaries, Candler School of Theology, offers a comprehensive program of theological studies designed to enhance the seminarian's understanding of the church and ministry in the modern world and his or her ability to work meaningfully and creatively in a Christian vocation.

Candler School of Theology has: 1) A supervised ministry program integrating academic training with the practice of ministry; 2) An internationally recognized faculty with expertise in a variety of academic disciplines; and 3) A university atmosphere which promotes interdisciplinary dialogue and inquiry.

Degree programs are: Master of Divinity (M.Div.), Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.), Master of Theology (Th.M.), Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.), Doctor of Sacred Theology in Pastoral Counseling (S.T.D.); Joint Degree Programs: Juris Doctor/Master of Divinity (J.D./M.Div.), Juris Doctor/Master of Theological Studies (J.D./M.T.S.), and Master of Business Administration/Master of Divinity (M.B.A./M.Div.).

Centers, institutes and workshops at Candler are: Annual Church Music Workshop, Approved Course of Study School, Candler-Gottingen Exchange, Center for Continuing Education, Center for Ecumenical and Multicultural Education, Center for Religious Research, Center for Research in Faith and Moral Development, Lay Theology Institute, National Institute in Church Finance and Administration, Program in Black Church Studies, Rollins Center for Church Ministries, and World Methodist Evangelism Institute.

Affiliated organizations are: The Aquinas Center of Theology, Atlanta Theological Association, Georgia Association for Pastoral Care, Lutheran Theological Center in Atlanta, Mission Resource Center of the United Methodist Church, Scholars Press, and Urban Training Organization of Atlanta.

Student information for 1989-90 includes: total enrollment - 637, full-time students - 401, part-time students - 236, tuition and fees - $7,040. Approximately 75 percent of all students receive some financial aid, and the average scholarship is $2,698.

The Divinity School of Duke University

Duke University, from its beginning, was meant to stand for the union of education and religion. The Divinity School stands within this tradition. As a school of the Church, it prepares men and women for ministry, and as a school of the university, it trains students through rigorous practice of the academic disciplines. The Divinity School witness to the Gospel of Christ in an age of increasing secularism and materialism.

Fall semester 1989 was marked with the largest number entering degree candidates in the history of Duke Divinity School, bringing our total enrollment to 493 (324 M.Div., 35 M.T.S., 8 M.R.E., 19 Th.M., 17 special students, 90 doctoral students). The two-year Master of Theological Studies program graduated its first class in 1988, and enrollment for this degree is increasing.

The 1989-90 academic year marks the 50th anniversary of endowment support for the Divinity School. The N. Edward Edgerton Fund was established in 1939 by N. Edward Edgerton, of Raleigh, North Carolina, for the support of ministerial education. Mr. Edgerton's gift was the first endowment fund given specifically for the Divinity School. This gift is exemplary of many gifts which subsequently have been given to sustain the future ministry of the Church.

This year the Divinity School also received funding from the Scarritt Foundation for a five-year pilot project in spirituality. The grant derives from the Campbell-Dowse Chair in Spirituality that was established at Scarritt College.

This new program will allow Divinity School students in the Master of Divinity and Master of Theological Studies degree programs to study the classics of Christian spirituality in all Christian traditions. Course work in biblical prayer, the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, medieval spiritual disciplines, and the Lord's Prayer will be offered.

The Campbell-Dowse fund will also enable chaplains and other ministers to complete the continuing education degree, the Master of Theology in Spirituality, and will follow the part-time scheduling format of the newly established Th.M in Wesleyan Studies.

The program will feature noted faculty members John Westerhoff III, Frederick Herzog, Geoffrey Wainwright, James Crenshaw, Ted Campbell, William C. Turner, and Susan A. Keefe.

The Divinity School announces for the spring of 1990, a part-time, two year Master of Theology (Th.M.) program in Wesleyan Studies. In keeping with its long-standing commitment to Methodism, the Divinity School undertakes this degree program as an experiment in continuing education for clergy in the Wesleyan family of denominations. The Th.M. in Wesleyan Studies is a program of eight advanced academic courses taught on Monday of each week, capped by a thesis or comprehensive examination. Classes will be limited to fifteen students.

Among the subjects taught will be the Wesley hymns, the English Church in the 18th century, roots of evangelicalism, issues in the Wesleyan Theological tradition, preaching in the Wesleyan tradition, studies in American Methodism, Black Methodism, and the theology of Pentecostalism.

Faculty participants include Geoffrey Wainwright, Thomas Langford, Teresa Berger, Ted Campbell, Carol Noren, Gayle Felton, Robert Wilson, William Turner and Russell Richey.

A "trial-year seminary grant," part of a program of the Association of the United Methodist Theological Schools and funded in part by the Lilly Endowment, offers a full tuition grant plus living stipend for a student interested in exploring theological education and the ordained ministry. This grant, similar to the Rockefeller grants of the 1960s, is part of our effort to recruit the best and brightest for the ordained ministry.

HUNGER/HUMAN NEED, TASK FORCE ON

Information from the Board of Global Ministries indicates the following from our Conference in 1989:

World Hunger/Poverty	$26,490.25
Church World Service Hunger	2,085.29
CROP	4,329.08
Heifer International Projects (3)	7,673.93
Undesignated	27,484.72
Total	$68,063.23

Once again, the people of the North Carolina Annual Conference have been generous with their love, and have made practical application of that love! With ever-increasing need, these efforts are vital to the success of our overall ministry.

For 1989, the Task Force received 62 applications seeking a total of $158,081.00. Funds in the amount of $50,000.00 were allocated by CFA, who agonized over the reduction in available funds. With an average award of 31%, grants were given to 20+ outlets for food and/or meals, 15 shelters for homeless/abused, 3 hospice activities, and 24 other worthy activities.

While the allocated funds are certainly appreciated, it is with great concern that we note the continued reduction in average award percentage, and that we foresee a continued decline in available funds.

Nevertheless, we praise God for the wonderful opportunity to aid North Carolina Methodists in Hunger and Human Need outreach, and offer you hearty thanks from those to whom you have given love, hope and the comfort of Christ!

LAITY, BOARD OF

The Board of Laity has continued to build upon the firm foundation that had been established over the years. Previous programs were evaluated in an attempt to increase the opportunities for lay ministry and to serve the laity of our conference in a more effective way. Currently, the Board has four standing subcommittees to deal with its main areas of work - January Workshop, Lay Speaking, Lay Shepherding, and Spiritual Formation.

The January Workshops were held on Sunday afternoons this year and were well attended. These workshops continue to provide excellent training for local church leaders. The planning for the 1991 January Workshops is under way and we are utilizing the evaluations from 1990 workshops.

The Lay Speaking Program has continued to furnish additional training at the basic and advanced levels for the laity. The basic training and some of the advanced training has been offered at the district level. Advanced training for Certified Lay Speakers has continued to be included in Conference Summer School.

Conference Summer School provides intensive training for both clergy and laity, as well as a special time of Christian fellowship.

Recognition of Lay Persons of the Year is encouraged in all local churches. District Lay Persons are selected from this group and the Conference Lay Person of the Year is chosen by the Board from the District Lay Persons. This program is to recognize the Christian ministry, witness, and leadership of the Laity and to encourage the active participation of all United Methodist in the ministry of all believers.

District Lay Rallies continue to be well attended, to be moments of inspiration and fellowship, and to be a time to honor the outstanding Laity across the districts.

We give thanks for the commitment and involvement of the Laity and their influence in the life of the Church and the communities in which they live. The Board of Laity will continue to support, encourage, and enable their ministry.

MISSIONS, BOARD OF

The 1989 North Carolina Annual Conference Session emphatically supported the resolution endorsing and honoring the fiftieth anniversary of UMCOR's untiring ministry to suffering people around the world. Increased giving to this program in our conference and throughout Methodism is evidence not only of the integrity of the program but also of the basic desire of all United Methodists to be God's instruments of "Love in Action" in times of crisis.

Little did we know that our area, indeed North Carolina itself, would suffer the ravages of Hurricane Hugo to the degree that we would be receivers as well as givers of aid. As we plan for the 1990 celebration of 50 years of UMCOR ministry, we take pride in the leadership which Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr. gives as President of this vital and caring arm of our church.

Education and Cultivation

In an exciting, humorous, child-filled presentation, the concept of Rainbow Covenant Congregations was presented to the 1989 Annual Conference Session. This new idea with regard to giving to Advance Special causes encourages local churches to contribute to at least one project in each of the five lanes of Advance Special giving: World, National, Missionary Salary Support, UMCOR, and Conference. Each year particular projects in each lane will be given special emphasis by this committee. Those for 1990 are: Andean Rural Health Care, Society of St. Andrew Potato Project, Habitat for Humanity: the Philippines, missionaries Herbert and Mary Zigbuo, and N.C. United Methodist Migrant Ministries.

We rejoice to report that contributions of local churches in our conference to World, National and UMCOR Advance Special projects in 1989 increased 40% over 1988 giving. Our giving for 1989 follows:

World Division	$273,229
National Division	$ 33,903
UMCOR	$263,188
Conference Advance	$116,902

In conjunction with the "Operation Liberia" project of our Volunteers in Mission Committee, textbooks were collected from various school systems within the bounds of this conference to be sent to the Ganta Mission School. Over 100 boxes of books were prepared for shipment along with school and health kits prepared by United Methodist Women of our conference.

Over 850 mission studies were conducted in 1989 in local church, district and sub-district programs on Islam, The Philippines, and The Psalms in Worship.

Volunteers in Mission

Two major emphases emerged as focal points for the VIM program in 1989: Hurricane Hugo and the Liberia Work Team.

Soon after Hurricane Hugo devastated Charleston, S.C. and wrecked havoc in western North Carolina, Volunteers in Mission from our conference set up a soup kitchen for one community for 10 days. Nearly 200 people formed teams to clear away trees and reroof, repair and build houses. A conference truck of food was sent, in addition to many local church trucks, as expressions of help and caring. Five thousand two hundred and eighty dollars was spent in project funds for this relief effort.

A first for the Conference, a work team to the continent of Africa in May, 1990, demanded early and extensive planning. A team of 13 persons from nine districts included teachers and builders as was requested by Herbert and Mary Zigbuo, our Conference missionaries at the Ganta Mission School in Liberia. Appreciation is expressed to the districts that helped with the travel costs to team members, which were understandably high.

Seven out-of-country Conference teams of 89 members were sent with $13,000 being invested in project money. Teams went to Jamaica, Costa Rica and Mexico. We mourn the death of Dr. Elbert Anderson, Wesley Memorial UMC, Wilmington, who, with his wife Martha, made numerous self-funded trips to Kingston, Jamaica to provide glasses and eye care to the needy in the Wesley Church area as an ongoing ministry of the Operation Peace project there.

Other in-country teams included a UNC-CH team to John's Island, S.C., a team to Hinton Rural Life Center and a team to Camp Rockfish. Forty-one people participated in a Caswell Parish project, "Share the Warmth", in which 22 loads of wood were cut and delivered to the needy. Seed money was also given to church work teams which assumed other responsibilities and expenses.

Church and Community

The work of the Church and Community Committee during 1989 was threefold: to be a liaison between the Annual Conference and the three National Division Church and Community Workers within our conference, to receive applications and make grants available to church and community projects in the areas of Urban, Ethnic Minority Local Church, and Rural work, and to select a rural church of the year that showed outstanding progress in the area of mission.

Our three committed and effective Church and Community Workers in this Conference are Richard Connelly and Brenda Connelly of the Robeson County Church and Community Center in Lumberton, and Shirley Townsend-Jones of the Maxton branch of the same center.

Our conference pays a portion of the salary, housing and utilities for these persons.

After a process of receiving applications, conducting on-site visitations when feasible, holding interviews and applying grant guidelines, the following grants were made for the 1990 year: seven urban projects totalling $15,000, six rural projects totalling $11,900, five EMLC projects totalling $19,500 and two grants to the Robeson County Church and Community Center totalling $13,500. These grants are seed monies to enable new mission efforts to get strong beginnings.

The Key Taylor Rural Church Fund grant was presented for the first time in the 1989 Annual Conference session. Banks UMC in the Durham District was chosen to receive the $500 award from the Methodist Foundation because it exemplified a church of small, rural membership that was striving to realize its vision of mission.

The year 1989 began the process of assigning anticipated funds from the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign using the procedures developed by the committee. Even at this early stage, the fund ceilings and initial slow response put restrictions on the desire to be of help to many churches.

Because of increasing requests for funds for site purchases for new churches, this committee worked for the development of a new loan fund to be available through the Board of Missions, Inc. This committee, in conjunction with the Volunteers in Mission Committee, organized and carried out the selection of a Conference Construction Coordinator. We also reviewed possible projects to be built.

We continue to work with new congregations by assisting with salary support during the first years of a church's life. In addition, we continue to maintain the $10 Club fund.

Recipients for the Ten Dollar Club calls for 1989 are:

Resurrection UMC, Durham

Genesis UMC, Cary

Maua Church & Educational Center, Kenya

West Robeson UMC, Pembroke

Board of Missions, Incorporated

A desire for a clear understanding of the status of the Board of Missions, Inc. funds led the Board of Directors (the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions) to authorize an independent audit of its books and a legal statement on its charter. On securing these services from McGladrey and Pullen and Mr. Clyde Smith, attorney, a presentation was made to the Council on Finance and Administration by Elizabeth Watson, president, and other representatives of the Board of Missions, Inc. on December 13, 1989, emphasizing that Board of Missions, Inc. funds must be separated from Conference monies with interest accruing to the Board of Missions, Inc. ("Therefore, the Corporation is entitled to retain all income earned by its loan fund from any source. Action by the Board of Directors to ensure the proper accounting for the earnings of its loan fund is required by their fiduciary duty to the Corporation". Clyde Smith, attorney, November 10, 1989).

Action by the Council included:

1. Establishing a separate checking account for the Board of Missions, Inc. in which receipts would be directly deposited and disbursements made only by check and only upon requisition by the Executive Secretary of the Board of Missions, Inc. without any commingling of such funds with Conference monies.
2. Payment of interest on Board of Missions, Inc. funds held by the Conference treasurer for the year 1989 to the Board of Missions, Inc. account.

Over the last few years the Board of Missions, Inc. has received numerous requests from District Superintendents for help in buying sites for new churches. In response to this increased need, a secured line of credit for $1,000,000.00 was established with Branch Banking and Trust Company to finance the acquisition of such sites. It is possible, also, to utilize some of this money for building loans if the demand on the Board of Missions, Inc. loan fund exceeds our capabilities of meeting those needs. At the meeting of the Board of Missions, Inc. October 27-28, 1989, the status of the loan fund was as follows:

Loans Outstanding	$2,642,729.60
Cash on Hand	$ 913,224.64
Loans Committed - Not Executed	$1,393,000.00

In December, 1989, Gary Smith, a member of First United Methodist Church, Cary, was employed by the Board of Missions, Inc. as Conference Construction Coordinator for the North Carolina Conference. Mr. Smith is a licensed contractor with years of experience in industrial technology and building.

The focus of the Conference program is the building of rural churches, racially ethnic churches, churches with small membership and first units of new churches. Other projects of building and repair may be considered as time and locations allow. Volunteer work teams and sub-contracted work will be utilized in this program.

The coordinator works under the direction of a committee comprised of one representative each from the Church Extension Committee and the Volunteers in Mission Committee, the Executive Secretary, and one at-large member of the Board. We express appreciation to Albert Fisher and The Duke Endowment for contributed input and funds which enabled this program to get underway at this time. The first church building program will begin in January with Jerusalem UMC on the Maxton Charge near Laurinburg.

This report would not be complete without expressing gratitude to Clyde Dunn who leaves the office of Executive Secretary this year. Clyde exemplifies the optimistic, joyous, committed heart of missions, and he will be missed.

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

"Live the Experience, Share the Joy" is our 1990 theme. Experiencing the joy of vigorous and growing camping ministries was also a part of 1989 for the United Methodists of the NC Conference. Over 19,000 people enjoyed our camps during 1989, using Chestnut Ridge, Don-Lee, Kerr Lake, or Rockfish. Our church year-round camps serve as a place to be renewed in body, mind, and spirit: renewal as God's children is the experience that gives people the joy of outdoor ministry.

The year was one of growth and change for the NC Conference's camping program. Robert "Bob" Pryor, manager/director at Camp Rockfish, resigned to accept a new position closer to his family. We thank God for the eleven years of ministry that Bob, his wife Lucy, and their children shared with us, and for the remarkable success of Rockfish under his guidance! Rockfish's ministry has continued under the direction of interim director, Reed Swanson. John Farmer, manager/director at Don-Lee, and Robert Ray, interim manager/director at Chestnut Ridge, complete our leadership team of people on site at each residential camp. Again, we thank God for these individuals' willingness to lead our ministry and for the leadership that Paul Phillips, Associate Director of CCOM for Camping and Children's Ministries, has given to our work.

In the spring of 1990 two new manager/directors are arriving to continue our residential camping program's strong ministry. The Commission excitedly welcomes Bill Howington to Camp Chestnut Ridge and Dennis Tawney to Camp Rockfish. Both persons bring a wealth of experience as camp manager/directors in The United Methodist Church and both have the particular expertise that will enrich our years in ministry together. We invite you to welcome these new friends and their families!

It has been an exciting year as the possibilities of the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign are becoming evident! Architects have been hired for each camp. The Alpha Design Group of Raleigh will work at Kerr Lake and Chestnut Ridge; Sawyer and Associates of Wilmington is at work on a bathhouse at Don-Lee; Goetz and Privette of Fayetteville are designing a project for Rockfish. We thank God for the work that the United Methodists of the NC Conference are accomplishing through their giving. We are eagerly looking forward to the development and use of renovated and new facilities in the next several years.

I personally want to thank The Commission's membership for faithful and spirited participation at each of our meetings, as well as, for such devoted work in all the subsequent sub-committees. We are blessed to have such devoted sisters and brothers who carry out our camping ministry.

Christ spoke to the disciples by the lakeside. Go to camp and again discover the joy of that moment spent in the out-of-doors.

PUBLICATION, METHODIST BOARD OF

I am glad to submit another good report from the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. for the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

The Advocate's endowment fund is growing with a sizable number of contributors each year from across both conferences. Although the size of these contributions may be small, they represent a real interest in the Advocate and its long-term future. As of the writing of this report in late February the total endowment portfolio of the Advocate is $381,451.00 of which $175,095.00 is the Methodist Board Fund and $206,356.00 is in the Finch Fund.

Even though the Board of Publication made the decision to double the subscription price of the Advocate from $5 a year in 1980 to $10 a year in 1985--which normally would cut the circulation in half--circulation has remained well above half of what it was in 1980, and with the passage of time the $10 figure is now a more reasonable figure than it was in 1986 so the Advocate should be poised price-wise to make a solid comeback in cir-ulation. Statistical research reveals that more than 535 churches have excellent subscription lists, providing more than half of the Advocate's circulation. A professional reader survey by KPC Research of Charlotte indicates that over the last tabulated year (see Advocate for 10-3-89, p.2) the Advocate had a weekly readership of 25,710 based on 1.5 readers for the circulation of 17,140. If the rest of the churches had the same number of subscribers--no more, no less--that the 535-plus churches have, the Advocate would have a readership of 49,994 with a circulation of 33,196.

What the Advocate needs is more churches like the 535-plus churches with a good positive approach to the promotion of the Advocate. Time and again it has been proven that a positive approach produces excellent results and yearly follow-up sustains a good list of subscribers. We are encouraged to see large membership churches taking a more positive approach to the Advocate as this will provide a leadership model for smaller membership churches. Of course this works both ways and we might say the larger membership churches are beginning to follow the leadership role set by the smaller membership churches.

We would like to see the two Annual Conferences take one year and make the Advocate one of the top priorities for that year. We believe the results would be amazing, based on what a positive approach produces at the local church level. If the Advocate's circulation were doubled, the Board of Publication would have approximately $40,000 at its disposal through production savings based on fixed overhead; that's $40,000 more each year than it now has. This money could either ease the financial strain on the conferences in their support of the Advocate, or be used to enhance the quality of the Advocate.

We are grateful to be entrusted with this ministry of the printed word and continue fully as enthusiastic, as the day we assumed these responsibilities, of the vital place the Advocate plays in the life of our two annual conferences.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Religion and Race is oftentimes thought of as a thorn in the side of the Church, and I suppose that it is. But there are two ways in which a thorn can be used. In Genesis 3 we see thorns sent as judgements to the people of God because of their sin. But in the Book of 2nd Corinthians Chapter 12, we see that Paul was given a "thorn" in the flesh that he should not be exalted above measure. And that he might recognize his weakness as a human and be reminded that his real strength to become Christlike must come from his God.

In the North Carolina Annual Conference we also have thorns. The thorns of racism, sexism, classism and other "isms," which are the result of our sins. We also have the "thorn" of the Commission on Religion and Race, which is a reminder to us of this sinful weakness of ours, and which is an encouragement to us to call upon the strength of our God to help each of us overcome this weakness and become what God really wants us to be.

And so in fulfillment of our responsibilities to this Annual Conference according to ¶1740 of the 1988 Book of Discipline, we remind you that our goals of eliminating racism, sexism, classism, etc. is not yet accomplished. Our weakness to these "isms" has not yet been totally overcome.

But there is good news. As our monitoring teams completed their tasks, we found that although not much real tangible progress had been made in 1989, the attitudes of many people are changing. The recognition of racism, sexism and classism as being less than Methodist is being acknowledged. And there is a growing moral desire for change within our church.

In addition, we found that while the Church is searching for its empowerment to change, our women and ethnics continue to do excellent jobs under less than desirable conditions. We also found them busy preparing themselves for the opportunities that are to come. They can be found enrolled in our finest educational institutions, taking the same courses as everyone else, measuring up to the same standards as everyone else, and looking for the same opportunities as everyone else. They are also preparing themselves in other ways as well. For example, they can be found serving on many of our Commissions, Boards, and Agencies oftentimes in leadership roles. They are in a state of readiness, they are waiting for the day that the Church opens its door fully to them. They have no desire on that day to be embarrassed or to be embarrassing, so they have determined within themselves to be ready, and ready they are.

How close to becoming an inclusive Church are we? We believe that we are very close to seeing real doors to real opportunities opening to real people. This great event could be as close to happening as this year. What gives us reason to be so optimistic? In 1989 we watched the secular world free Mandela, tear down a much hated wall, replace a communist form of Government with a form of democracy. We hear of talks of peace from the superpowers instead of talks of war. If the world can see the error of its ways and find a way to change, surely we, the Church, the people of God, can be changed by the gentle and loving prodding of our Lord.

May God help us bite the bullet on this Goliath Sin of "isms" within Methodism.

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

The 1989-90 year has ushered in a tide of change and challenge for the Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the NC Conference. We are still faced with problems of the past, yet new problems are emerging. Women clergy are still not appropriately represented in places of leadership on Conference Councils and Commissions, Ethnic women and men are still being thought of as "not qualified" for positions of leadership, solely based on the color of their skin, and the question of who has the "power" is raised again and again. The Commission is aware that some changes are being made in a very positive sense. The fact that the North Carolina Conference has agreed to publicly debate issues of racism and gender discrimination has led many to believe that some sensitivity is experienced.

Members of COSROW are taking active roles in their District Councils on Ministries, and bring reports in regard to their meetings two times a year. It is important that each District COM communicate regularly with their representative so that the connectional system may function as intended. Members are also serving effectively on other conference boards and task groups.

Two members, Rachel Moser and Emily Barwick, attended the Lake Junaluska Workshops on COSROW and Religion and Race in August. They brought back excellent reports and materials for the group to use. John Brooks, Deanie Bowers, Catherine Vick and Bernice Johnson, attended the "Women, Faith, and Housing" Conference held in Durham, April 1989. Reports were given and materials were made available. Albert Shuler and Bernice Johnson attended the "Racism, Poverty, and Economic Justice" Workshop in Winston-Salem. They noted that the meeting was not well attended. Excellent materials were available there to assist COSROW in doing its work.

Nancy Best, Rachel Moser, and Penny Farmer are working on "Inclusive Language Worship Materials" that will be available to every local church, with the challenge that the materials will be helpful in bringing about understanding and love for all people and their contributions to peaceful, prayerful, merciful and joyful worship. "Clergy Women in the Pulpit Sunday" is an emphasis that COSROW really wants implemented. During this past year, we have seen congregations rejecting women clergy as pastor. This emphasis is being monitored very closely to determine how many opportunities have been provided and taken.

COSROW is also continuing the emphasis on "Provisions for child care" at Local, District, and Conference meetings. We are getting some very positive reports from some Districts in this area, but some have not begun to implement this policy. It is our hope that each District COM will give this careful consideration in relation to the situations that exist within its boundaries.

COSROW has made available scholarships for women who are not members of COSROW to attend seminars, conferences, UMW Assembly in Kansas City, Missouri, UN-DC Adult Study Tour, UMW National Seminar, and other meetings. This year the Commission voted to add a $1000.00 line item to the 1992 budget specifically for scholarships and assistance for low income women to attend and participate in pertinent meetings.

Retirement concerns and needs of women have been given lots of thought by the Commission. A brochure is being developed to help bring these concerns to the attention of persons in local churches and districts. We encourage each district to implement the Program Recommendation which asks that a Retirement Seminar on Needs be considered. Such a seminar would assist persons who work with elderly persons, and with those younger, to be able to identify and work through the retirement concerns and needs that will eventually become realities for many women.

The Commission members are grateful for the outstanding and dedicated leadership of our staff person, Reverend Albert Shuler. He has encouraged us in our endeavors and supported us through the trials and tribulations of organizing and beginning, as we have struggled to focus COSROW in an effective manner. Now that it appears we are understanding and taking responsibility for our roles, Reverend Shuler is still guiding us to some very positive realities.

We challenge each member of the NC Annual Conference to consciously search for new ways for us to work together as sisters and brothers, persons of color and persons who are white, old and young, so that God's Kingdom may be fulfilled through us.

STEWARDSHIP, BOARD OF

Stewardship is NOT just raising money. It does not happen just in the fall. Stewardship IS a year-round lifestyle that includes: faithful living, faithful giving, faithful planning and faithful response.

A suggested Year Round Program in Stewardship for your local church might begin with these emphases:

- January - Stewardship For all of Life
- February - Christian Family and Personal Finance
- March & April - Time, Talent, and Gifts Study
- May - Wills and Estate Planning
- June - Environmental Stewardship
- July - Stewardship of Food Resources (Hugo)
- August - Stewardship with Children & Youth
- September - Stewardship of Money
- October & November - Lifestyles & Money Commitment
- December - Proportionate Giving & Tithing

The following resources are available to help you begin and carry out a year-round program in Stewardship:

- 1) Trained Local Church stewardship consultants are available. At a local church's invitation these persons will come to your church and help you plan ways for meeting your specific stewardship/financial needs. There is no cost for this initial meeting. Should additional meetings be needed, the local church will provide travel costs on a mileage basis. Mr. Bill Norton in the CCOM office is the contact person.

- 2) Our Conference has a general Church Stewardship associate, the Reverend Bruce Taylor. A stewardship associate has received extensive training through the Board of Discipleship. He has a broad grasp of resources available.
- 3) In the area of Gifts and Wills we have the Reverend Douglas Byrd with the United Methodist Foundation. He is ready to assist individuals and local churches in setting up Endowment programs, Gifts & Wills seminars, and planning for investments that will benefit the ministry and mission of the United Methodist Church.
- 4) Videos and other media resources are available in the Media Center. Bill Norton or Sarah Brock will help you select.

We close our report by reminding you:

"Stewardship is what happens when Christianity goes through a person's heart and gets into the moving parts of the body. Stewardship leads to the demonstration that God is alive - in you, a perspective from which we see that life is in God's hands - Stewardship results in putting our money (all of our life) where our mouth is ..."

Conclusive proof for the relevance of Christianity lies not in what we SAY about it, but in what we DO because of it."

SYSTEMIC POVERTY, TASK FORCE ON

Perhaps an appropriate way to begin is with a Psalm. Psalm 62:9-12 reads (from our new Hymnal): "Those of low estate are but a breath, those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath. Put no confidence in extortion, set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart on them. Once God has spoken, twice have I heard this; power belongs to God; and to you, O Lord, belongs steadfast love, for you repay all according to their work."

During this past year, it has become clear to us that our task has two different dimensions. One of those dimensions is a prophetic dimension having to do with discerning the truth about societal systems that perpetuate poverty. The second dimension has to do with beckoning our Church and our society to repent of those systems and to invent new life-giving structures for all of us.

It is not easy to discern the truth about poverty systems in which we, ourselves, are complicit. Yet that is what we have challenged ourselves to do. Perhaps a couple of examples will help. (1) A family of four needs $12,500 per year to rise above the poverty level (in economic terms). To earn that much, if one works 50 weeks per year and 40 hours per week, it would be necessary to earn $6.25 per hour. In rural North Carolina, 34% of all jobs pay less than this. Yet those low paying jobs are a cornerstone of the development policy of our state. (2) Another report shows that 90% of all Americans pay more tax now than they would have with the laws of 1977. Yet the very rich are paying up to 36% less than they would have under 1977 tax law. Wage structure and taxes are but two examples of systematic penalties put on the poor.

Speaking at Duke Chapel in November 1989, Jim Wallis of Sojourners made the case that the drug scourge of our day has its roots in poverty. "The combination of the two-a systemic economic injustice and an insatiable lust for possessions-is indeed the formula that is causing death and destruction." This is a current prophecy that describes our task as a church.

We find that the first part of that task is made more difficult by our own very involvement in various systems of poverty, thus we are mostly blind to them. Hardly anyone is readily willing to pay more for goods and services provided by the working poor, (and the vast majority of the poor are working people). Furthermore, how willing are we to have a tax structure that is more favorable to the working poor? The second part of the task described just preceding is hardly any easier. Yet this is perhaps the part to which we have the strongest obligation because of our Biblical teachings against "lust for possessions".

How can we turn about face and demonstrate to the world a diminished lust for possessions and toward a more meaningful life-style? Do we not as a Church depend too much on financial reward as recognition for excellence in service, when excellence in service of God's Kingdom ought be its own reward?

During this past year, we have met five times. We have gathered much socio-economic data and have read the reports of many experts and are thus becoming more confident in our understanding of the poverty systems. We do not want to take the easy way out and only talk about faceless systems. We want to be able to identify "people actions" that are programs to our conference. We do expect to distribute a brochure at annual conference which will begin to raise some questions and point the way toward some remedies.

William L. Bingham, Chairperson

WORSHIP, BOARD OF

Worship is central to the life of the church. The Board of Worship is grateful for all those who week in and week out lead in corporate worship. It is important to note the drop in the average worship attendance across the Annual Conference. While membership figures have show an increase, worship attendance has dropped nearly 3%. Figures from the 1989 Journal indicate that only 32% of United Methodists are in attendance at "principal weekly worship services (p. S-122, 1989 Journal).

Even with that concern, there are many positive signs. The year 1989 will be remembered in United Methodism as the year we began to worship with The United Methodist Hymnal. It is important to once again remember the influence The N.C. Annual Conference had on the new Hymnal. Charles Michael Smith, Helen G. Crotwell, and Harold D. Jacobs made up a part of the National Hymnal Revision Committee. We are deeply indebted and enormously proud of their dedicated work. On May 4, 1989, Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh was the site where this new hymnal was dedicated. It was one of the most thrilling corporate worship experience in the history of United Methodism.

The Board of Worship is working to continue in this spirit as we endeavor to strengthen congregational worship in North Carolina. One event designed with this vision in mind was held on February 10, 11, 17 and 18, of 1990. It was entitled, "Strengthening the United Methodist Church Using The United Methodist Hymnal." This event was held in the spirit of the connecional church as tens of thousands United Methodist participated at hundreds of events across the United States. Workshops were connected via satellite transmission. In the NC Annual Conference five workshops were held with a total participation of 575. Three teams from the Board of Worship conducted workshops in Fayetteville, Rocky Mount, Durham, Wilmington and Greenville. The overall response was very enthusiastic. Hopefully, the enthusiasm generated there was taken back to local church across this Conference.

March 2 and 3, 1990 marked the holding of the annual Handbell Festival at Methodist College in Fayetteville. This annual event was very successful under the leadership of Mark Gourley and the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music, and Other Arts.

Later this year, October 13, 1990, the Board of Worship will hold a Christian Arts Festival at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Goldsboro. It will run from 9 am until 2 pm. General information about this event will come to local churches through the Coordinated Mailing.

The Board of Worship will continue to provide avenues of learning and growth as we work together to strengthen congregational worship throughout the NC Annual Conference. Again, we invite your comments and suggestions.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

Last month one of the superintendents in the East Ohio Conference wrote requesting that I send him copies of the different questionnaires we have been using over the past six years in the Durham District as the agenda for Charge Conferences.

As I gathered them together for Jim, I got a little nostalgic in thinking of: the pastor who always managed to obtain a copy well in advance so that he could prime the laity with answers, and the one pastor who bribed the secretary for copies ahead of time so that his anxiety could be relieved, but basically how responsive the clergy and laity had been to that kind of reporting on the mission and ministry of the church.

It was a fleeting thought that raced through my mind that perhaps the composite report of the superintendents might have the same kind of format. Such questions as these might be asked:...what has been the average attendance over the past year?...what new churches have been built?...what year did the Conference report the largest gain in membership?...who made this report in 1967, and long was it?...who used pictorial slides in making the report?

My first Annual Conference was in 1954 and I sat for what seemed like an entire afternoon as 7 superintendents delivered annual reports on the work of their districts. That number increased the next year to 9 superintendents, and then to 12. And it was a painful experience when time came each year for the reports of the superintendents...painful for the superintendents who made them...and for those of us who tried to listen.

One year must have been more painful than usual, for the idea of a composite report developed two years later, and has been written and delivered since by the cabinet president.

The report today is going to be different from the ones that have been given over the past 19 years. Information regarding membership, new buildings, the Spirit for Tomorrow campaign, the Vitalization Project, and other pertinent matters will be included in the Journal. This information will be denied you until the Journal is published. I urge you to be patient until then, but if you simply must have this information, then I am sure that the cabinet will take the facts I have gathered and relay them to you. So, for the record, let it be noted that I am following in the great tradition of putting on record the number of buildings constructed, the amount of money raised, the support given to the larger church through missions, and a host of other pertinent information.

The prime emphasis of this report is the result of directions given to the cabinet last June by the Annual Conference.

In his episcopal address on Thursday, June 15, 1989, Bishop Minnick made us aware that as we move toward the future, there is an area of special concern...the area of open itineracy, (1989 Journal, page 347)

A resolution was adopted by the Conference regarding this matter. (1989 Journal, pages 190 and 405). The resolution called for the NC Conference to set 1995 as a goal to have implemented an "open itineracy" system for the appointment of its clergy.

In response to that resolution, the cabinet has prepared a document setting forth guidelines for open itineracy. It has been reviewed and revised by clergy and lay representatives from each district. I am now presenting it as the cabinet report to this Conference session.

Membership and Attendance

Although a decrease was reflected in the 1989 membership report (219,033 to 218,281, or 0.34 percent), the average attendance at the principal worship service increased (1.59 percent). Correcting the membership rolls appears to have been the primary cause of this decrease, as reflected in the statistician's report on "removal by charge conference action". (1990 Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, page 138)

There are areas in each district that contribute to changes in membership. The Triangle and Coastal areas, because of population trends, have experienced growth; whereas some of the rural and inner city areas of the Conference find church membership decreasing with population losses. Newly organized churches like Resurrection and Good Shepherd (Durham District), Genesis and St. Francis (Raleigh District), Seaside (Wilmington District) are constantly growing. There are a number of long established churches (Scotts Hill, Bahama, Mt. Sylvan, Epworth, New Hope, Beulaville, Pembroke, Laurinburg, Millbrook, White Plains, Soapstone, Fuquay-Varina) that have made significant gains in membership.

We remain concerned about the continued decline in Church School enrollment and attendance. One bright note is a reported increase of 200 percent in the Hornes Sunday School attendance.

Connectional Ministries

Like the State of NC and a host of institutions, budgets and revenues are not matching. Actual receipts were up for 1989 by over two million dollars. This was due to gifts to the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign and a significant increase in General and Conference Advance Giving. But the Council on Finance and Administration keeps reminding us that the percentage payment on Outreach Ministries has dropped again (2.3 percent).

Response to the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign has been favorable this year. As of May, when forty-four percent of pledges should have been paid, we have realized thirty-four percent ($2,678,845) of the goal. Sixty-seven churches as of May 7 were up-to-date on pledge payments; nine of them reaching a hundred percent or better. Grants for land have been distributed to Resurrection ($100,000), Genesis ($100,000), Morningstar ($100,000), Topsail Island ($75,000), West Robeson ($25,000), and Seaside ($175,000). Duck Church has been granted $100,000 for construction.

The Camping Ministry has received $700,000 from the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign, distributed as follows: Don Lee ($108,000), Chestnut Ridge ($108,000), Rockfish ($108,000), Kerr Lake ($36,000), and Endowment Maintenance Fund ($60,000). The remaining $300,000 is to be assigned in the near future.

Vitalization Project

At the 1989 Charge Conferences, 502 of the 841 churches in the Conference requested consideration for having a consultant come for long-range planning using the twelve keys to an effective church (Kennon Callahan). Twenty-three consultants, working with three churches (35 hours each) in 1990 could not possibly meet the overwhelming requests. Therefore, 81 were selected for this year. At the 1990 Charge Conferences churches will be offered another opportunity to have a consultant come in 1991.

Almost 600 persons attended the District Workshops offered by Dr. Steve Compton, team leader for the Vitalization Project. Help was offered to those churches that wished to pursue long-range planning on their own.

Positive response has come from around the Conference on the valuable assistance that has been provided by those clergy and lay persons serving as consultants.

Facilities

The following churches have improved facilities this past year:

Burlington District: Hillsborough, Orange Church, Saxapahaw, New Sharon, Orange Chapel; Durham District: City Road (Henderson), Stovall; Elizabeth City District: Duck; Fayetteville District: Epworth (Clinton), Culbreth, Salem, Stedman; Cokesbury, Hay Street; Goldsboro District: Benson, Westwood, Centenary (Smithfield), Rose Hill; Greenville District: Salem, Westminster (Kinston); New Bern District: Trenton, Asbury, Stonewall, Oriental, Bridgeton; Raleigh District: Pleasant Grove, Benson, Asbury, Hill King, Spring Valley, Bunn, Millbrook, Avent Ferry, and Louisburg; Rockingham District: West Robeson, East Rockingham, Coharie, Jerusalem and St. George (Maxton), First (Laurinburg), New Philadelphus, Wall's Chapel, St. Paul (Rockingham), Glenwood, First (Rockingham), Gibson, Pineview (Lumberton), Mt. Pleasant (Ellerbe); Rocky Mount Dis- trict: Rosemary, Evansdale, Englewood, Black Creek; Sanford District: First (Mt. Gilead), Mt. Pleasant; and Wilmington District: Wrightsville, Southport, Whiteville.

And a number of improvements have been made in parsonage properties: Burlington: Friendship, Amity; Durham: Granville Charge, Allensville-Trinity, Epworth; Elizabeth City: Mann's Harbor; Goldsboro: Saulston, District Parsonage; New Bern: Core Creek, Salter Path; Raleigh: District Parsonage, Hayes Barton, Trinity; Rockingham: Laurel Hill, First (Pembroke); Rocky Mount: Evansdale, Lucama, Conway; Sanford: Troy Circuit, Silk Hope; Wilmington: Sunset Park, District Parsonage.

New Congregations

Land has been purchased for a new church at Elon College in the Burlington District. Seaside Church (Wilmington District) now has over 100 members, has selected an architect and plans are underway to purchase more land adjacent to the current site. Some new churches need to be born in the Raleigh District: southern Wake County, northeast Cary, and land has been given in North Raleigh from the Wakefield Estate for a new church.

Missional Involvement

One look at the Conference Treasurer's report for 1989 is an indication of the tremendous increase in General and Conference Advance Giving: $687,222 (26 percent increase).

The response to the disaster areas in North and South Carolina after Hurricane Hugo has been overwhelming, not only with monetary contributions but work teams and supplies.

Hospice, Hinton Rural Life Center, Clothing and Food Closets, Prison Ministries, Service for the Mentally Handicapped, Centers for Battered Women and Abused Children, Habitat for Humanity, Contact and Hope Line, Day Care Centers, Mothers' Morning Out, Urban Ministries, Camps for Underprivileged Children, Homes for the Homeless, Workteams to various places locally and in other countries, and Roadside Cleanup are just a few of the ways clergy and laity of the Conference have been involved in ministry.

Wallace H. Kirby, Cabinet President

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

This report is for the Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment, but such a report would be remiss if it did not give some attention to the total work of The Duke Endowment. Established December 11, 1924, when Mr. James B. Duke signed the Indenture, The Duke Endowment became a significant permanent philanthropic foundation; and at the death of Mr. Duke, it became one of the largest.

The Duke Endowment was not the vision of just one man, but the culmination of a family's generosity. The story of the Duke family's rise to political and philanthropic prominence started after the Civil War with Washington Duke. As Washington Duke's fortune grew, he developed a pattern of sharing a part of his wealth for various causes, primarily in North Carolina. This sense of sharing the wealth certainly was instilled in the mind and the heart of his son, James B. Duke, whose creation of The Duke Endowment set up a perpetual trust, the income of which would be used to make grants to educational, health care and other eleemosynary institutions in the two Carolinas.

James B. Duke specified the beneficiaries as not-for profit hospitals and child care institutions in the two Carolinas, rural United Methodist churches in the two annual conferences of The United Methodist Church in North Carolina, together with retired ministers and widows and children of deceased ministers of those conferences, and four named educational institutions - Duke University, Davidson College, Furman University and Johnson C. Smith University. On one occasion, Mr. Duke, talking about the fact that he had rather narrowly defined the beneficiaries, concluded that he might have extended aid to other causes and to other sections of the country, but asserted his belief that, "so doing would probably be productive of less good by reason of attempting too much." History has sustained Mr. Duke's wisdom in defining very specifically the beneficiaries of the trust.

The result of Mr. Duke's decision to focus narrowly the Indenture has had an unprecedented impact on the named institutions in North and South Carolina. Since its inception in December 1924 through December 31, 1989, The Duke Endowment Trustees have granted to the named beneficiaries $893,362,064. It is doubtful that Mr. Duke even dreamed that his vision and generosity would mean so much to so many.

The Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment administers grants to rural United Methodist churches, superannuated pastors and widows and children of deceased pastors in North Carolina. Money set aside for rural United Methodist churches is to be used in two ways. Churches involved in building programs, either for renovation or new construction, are eligible to receive grants if certain guidelines are met. The other category for grants is Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches where a variety of projects are undertaken to strengthen and maintain the churches.

The Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment is always ready to assist rural United Methodist churches as they seek to provide ministry in the state of North Carolina. Listed below are the various programs in which grants are made and the number of churches receiving grants under those programs:

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

Greetings to each of you from the Committee on the Episcopacy. This report perhaps is a little different but hopefully it will tell the story we wish to share. First, we will look at the word - EPISCOPACY. Let's take each letter as we explore its function:

E - Every lay person and pastor in the Conference should know that WE are your committee AND the Bishop's committee!

P - Positive attitude is a must for our committee and for our Conference. If YOU hear a negative remark we ask you to assist us into turning this into a positive remark.

I - Interest in the growth, both spiritually and numerically as we seek to fulfill God's Mission through our Conference.

S - Sharing with the committee is a must if you have needs that we should be aware of - just as we are sharing with you!

C - Caring as a committee just what the climate is in the Conference and what we can do to help strengthen any weakness you alert us to.

O - Open to differing opinions and being willing to listen to each at your convenience.

P - Prayer is a discipline of individual members and of the committee - as we seek God's guidance and strength.

A - Available to anyone who feels need to ask questions or express views.

C - Concerned that we fulfill the functions of this committee as outlined in ¶735 of the Discipline.

Y - Yes, we ARE your committee AND the Bishop's committee!

WE have shared about the committee, our purpose and function, but let us quickly look at our BISHOP:

B - Busy, as elected to serve the General Church as well as serving our NC Conference! He shared 25% of his days related to responsibilities outside our Conference - Council and College of Bishops duties, SEJ Administrative Council, UMCOR, and Board of Global Ministries.

I - Involved in the life of our Conference in so many ways. Plans to be in each district this fall to meet with pastors and laity!

S - Study is an important part of Bishop Minnick's life! As a gifted and much sought after teacher of the Bible, much time for study is a must.

H - Helper is a term perhaps seldom given to bishops, but we feel that our Bishop is willing to help work out any differences...but we must remember that differences must be identified before resolving can begin.

O - Open to new ideas, suggestions, and open to fulfilling the mandate of the church - ministering to all persons!

P - Pastor/Preacher, much time spent in fulfilling these tasks as a bishop - few Sundays away from the pulpit, time available for pastors who need to share concerns.

Bishop Minnick, to you and to Mary Ann, thank you for your leadership, your caring, and your being such a special family to us in the NC Conference!

And to all of you, please keep our committee in your prayers. If you have concerns, contact a member of our committee!

Ruth L. Cade, Chairperson

GENERAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Bishop and members of the Annual Conference, I bring you greetings from the General Council on Ministries. As members of the General Council on Ministries, Dr. Reginald Ponder and I have had the opportunity to participate in the program planning of the General Church, to relate the NC Conference to the various general programs and to serve as liaison between the General Council on Ministries and our own Conference Council on Ministries. It is a rewarding experience to serve in this role. Evaluation is an important task of the General Council on Ministries and we have been busy evaluating the programs of the general agencies and the Annual Conferences' Comprehensive Plans that have been submitted. The on-going work of the General Council on Ministries and other assignments received from the General Conference are progressing well. In fact, as a result the full Council meeting scheduled for this past spring was not held. This was a decision of responsible stewardship of time and money and was not made out of financial necessity. We all appreciate fewer meetings and saving time and money.

The General Council on Ministries has been gathering information from its constituency in order to recommend a missional priority theme or special program for the 1993-1996 quadrennium. Dr. Ponder and I are available to receive and share with the Council on Ministries any comment or concerns that you have about this important decision.

One of the most rewarding experiences for Dr. Ponder and me is to serve on one of GCOM's most important committees, the Advance for Christ and His Church. Many hours of work are involved in review of the applications submitted by the projects requesting funding through the Advance. But in this process, we experience persons of different races, ages, and nations. The Advance brings together their needs for help toward fulfillment, and our response to God's call to share our resources. I trust that the service of all of our representatives to the General boards and agencies will reflect well on the NC Conference. Thank you.

Robby Lowry, Member at Large

LAY PERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

The Conference Lay Person of the Year Award recognizes the high value of dedicated lay service in the church. In their individual calling and ministry, each of these nominees has demonstrated the spirit and image of Christ. Our honoring them is meant to say "thank you" for their inspiring witness and achievements in Christian service. We realize and emphasize that the lay person being honored is certainly most deserving, but also that in honoring one we are symbolically honoring all laity of that local church.

The criteria that the local church committee uses in making the selection should include: 1) That he or she be a member of the local church. 2) That he or she exemplify personally and professionally a commitment to the Christian way of life. 3) That his or her contribution to the life of the church, community, state and nation reflects a devotion of self to the service of others. Activities at all levels (local, district, Conference, general, as well as local community) are considered with no particular emphasis on any level or range of levels.

These Local Church Lay Persons of the Year are then nominees for the District Lay Person of the Year in their district. The district selection committee must struggle with the difficult task of selecting only one person. The Board of Laity is pleased to provide information about these recipients for you and to call their names on the floor of the Annual Conference. Would those present please stand as their name is called.

Burlington - O. Hulon Briggs of First UMC in Graham; Durham - Eleanor Browning Walker of Pleasant Green UMC; Elizabeth City - Martha Edward Capps of Riverside UMC; Fayetteville - Daniel A. Poad of First UMC in Siler City; and Wilmington - Arvel E. Heafner, Jr. of Trinity UMC.

To each of you, on behalf of the NC Annual Conference, I express appreciation and thanksgiving for your faith and commitment that has been an inspiration to your local church, to your district, to the Board of Laity, and to your Annual Conference. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless you in His service and in the building of His kingdom.

This year there are two winners. It is a husband and wife team.

Elizabeth McLamb Norris, whom we know as Beth, has been and continues to be an active churchwoman at Louisburg UMC. Some of the capacities in which she has or is currently serving include chair of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, lay member to the Annual Conference, Youth leader, member of the church's Vitalization Committee, member of the UMW, group leader for the UMW, Sunday School teacher, and an Adult group leader. In the Raleigh District, she has been active in the UMW and served as chair of the District Council on Ministries. At the Conference level, she has been very active in the Youth program, having taught untold numbers of workshops, and has been a part in almost every Youth event for many years. She has served as the chair of the Conference Committee on Camping. In the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign, she has been active in the local church, the district and at the Conference level. She is currently Conference chair for the Follow-Up Committee for the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign. In addition, she finds time to serve as the state president of the American Association of University Women.

Dr. J. Allen Norris, Jr., Allen, is an active churchman in the Louisburg UMC. His service there includes serving on the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, lay member of the Annual Conference, a member of the Finance Committee, and is presently serving as chair of the Administrative Council. He has served as Conference president of the UMM. He has served as a member of the Methodist Foundation and its Executive Committee. Currently he is serving on the SEJ Committee on the Episcopacy, and is a member of the General Council on Ministries of The United Methodist Church. He served as our Conference lay leader for six years. He has served on the last three delegations to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. He led the delegation in 1988 as the first lay person elected. His leadership was highly instrumental in the election of Bishop Joseph Betha in 1988. Dr. Norris served as dean of instruction at Rollins College in Florida prior to becoming president of Louisburg Junior College.

As I wrote these apart, and listed them separately, they may have sounded as if they were accomplished individually. Yet, we know, that this has been a husband and wife team. They have worked jointly and they have supported each other. When we see one in the forefront, the other may be very busy in the background, a true Christian team, motivating and inspiring each other. It is indeed a high privilege for me this year to present to Allen and Beth Norris the NC Conference Lay Person of the Year Award.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: We, the members of the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, are pleased and privileged to present to you, our brothers and sisters of the North Carolina Annual Conference, our report for 1990.

It includes recommendations of fifteen (15) persons to be elected to Probationary Membership and fourteen (14) persons to be ordained as Deacons as well as twenty-five (25) persons to be elected to Full Membership and ordained Elders. The report also includes many other persons covering a wide range of ministerial relationships.

All those being recommended for membership and ordination have submitted extensive written work to and have been interviewed by four committees: The Committee on Call and Disciplined Life, The Committee on Preaching, The Committee on Theology and Doctrine, and The Committee on Worship and the Sacraments. Through these means, the board seeks to make a thorough evaluation of a candidate's commitment to, preparation for, and effectiveness in ministry.

This is a time of great ferment, even foment, in the church. The shape of the church for the next generation will be largely determined by those who are ordained to ministry today. We take this responsibility with utmost seriousness and defend our exacting, if sometimes exasperating process on that basis. Certainly, we recognize that the church's true vitality consists in no process, but rather in the movement of the Holy Spirit. As we open ourselves, board members and candidates alike, to the Spirit's spur and sway, surely Christ's will for his church can be done.

Ordination is a rite of the Church which represents an individual's acceptance of God's call and claim on his/her life for the upbuilding of the Body of Christ through the ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Order and an authentication of the same by the Christian community through prayers and the laying on of hands. The act of ordination is an awesome, transcendent moment when we step into and extend that "endless line of splendor" stretching back almost 2,000 years ago to that genesis day when Jesus stood on the shore of Lake Galilee and called to some fishermen, "Follow me."

Ordination, thus, is that act by which the Church symbolizes a shared relationship between those ordained for sacramental and functional leadership and the Church community from which the person being ordained has come. The community is initiated by God, is given meaning and direction by Christ, and is sustained by the Holy Spirit. (The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 1988)

The duties of the board are varied and far-reaching. They include the following items:

- 1.) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy.
- 2.) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ministry and election as Local Pastor, Associate Member, Probationary Member, or Full Conference Member.
- 3.) To interview and to report recommendations concerning students to be appointed to school, candidates for ordination as Deacon, and candidates for ordination as Elder.
- 4.) To interview applicants and to make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relation: Leave of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leave, Disability Leave, Termination, Less-than-full-time Ministry, or readmission to the effective or Full-time relation.
- 5.) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.
- 6.) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of ministers in the Annual Conference.
- 7.) To recommend to the Full Members of the Annual Conference for validation in special ministries for which members seek appointment.
- 8.) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

The following reports from various committees of the board not only provide further insight into the work of the board, but they also indicate the diligence and commitment which the board members bring to their many tasks.

A special word of appreciation and commendation is expressed to The Reverend Kermit L. Braswell, Robbie Barrett, and Lynn Jefferson of the Office of Ministerial Relations. This report would not be possible apart from their superb administrative skills!

Miscellaneous Requirements: The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind the Annual Conference and the ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the North Carolina Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic step found in The Book of Discipline.

FULL-TIME LOCAL PASTORS not holding the M.Div. degree must complete ONE of the following:

- 1.) Local Pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must complete at least the five-year Course of Study.
- 2.) For Full-time Local Pastors, the Board recommended that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our Full-time Local Pastors (1980).

OR

3.) Complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

For ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP, the Board recommended that the academic requirement be raised to four-year Baccalaureate degree (1974).

For PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP, each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1988.

1.) A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.

2.) A course in public worship that includes the theory and practice of planning and leading public worship.

For FULL CONNECTION, the Board recommended that only those persons who had completed the M.Div. degree (or its equivalent) in seminary be elected to Full Membership (1975). Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶ 424.3c of The 1988 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete the Methodism courses PRIOR to the interview:

- 1.) United Methodist Polity
- 2.) United Methodist Theology and Doctrine, and
- 3.) A History of Methodism

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has the responsibility to assist the clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference in any of the following categories:

1. Discontinuation
2. Leave of Absence
3. Retirement
4. Sabbatical Leave
5. Termination of Conference Membership (Surrender of Credentials)

Upon request, the Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in his/her conference relationship. The committee provides support by posing questions and giving counsel. The committee then acts upon the request and makes recommendations to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In each situation, the person requesting the change must follow the requirements of The Book of Discipline.

The Committee on Conference Relations, through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting, would remind all those in the various categories of conference membership other than effective to adhere carefully to the guidelines that apply to that category. This is particularly true with those on Leave of Absence whose exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is placed. Pastors on Leave of Absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (geographical and membership) of that Charge Conference.

On May 1, 1990, the persons who will be retiring from the North Carolina Conference at its session in June, 1990, along with their spouses, were feted at a luncheon in Goldsboro. Following lunch, the retirees were informed about many matters related to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This event, held annually since 1987, has proven very helpful to those who are retiring.

William W. Sherman Jr., Chairperson

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1988 Book of Discipline, ¶1445.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education throughout their careers, including carefully-developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational activities." The Discipline, ¶1445.2, further states that "in most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education program should allow for Study Leave at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with the charges or other agencies to which they are appointed, as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has recognized this by requiring annual participation in a continuing education program by each ordained minister seeking appointment. (1988 Discipline, ¶1423.2).

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education;" e.g., recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1.) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2.) It establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3.) It seeks to insure their availability.

1.) Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2.) Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a.) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b.) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c.) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3.) Insuring Their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church:

1.) Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2.) Provides "study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium." Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. 1988 Discipline, ¶1445.2

3.) Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Minister: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of conference acceptances. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, conference staff positions, district superintendencies, and conference-related agencies and institutions are eligible for grants from conference funds provided:

2.) The program meets the definitions and conference guidelines described above.

3.) The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4.) The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

In providing grants, the conference will place limits as follows:

1.) The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

2.) For a one-week event, $150.00 will be the maximum grant; for a two-week event, $300.00.

3.) The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.

4.) The Conference may fund no more than 75 percent of the cost of any Continuing Education event.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1.) The District Superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the District Superintendent at the annual consultation.

2.) Ministers shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her District Superintendent.

3.) The District Superintendent will send the pastor's Continuing Education report to the Director of Ministerial Relations on an annual basis so that this report can be placed in the pastor's permanent file (and possibly on computer). This information will include course title and Continuing Education credits.

4.) It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

IDENTIFICATION AND ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

The identification and enlistment of persons for ministry is a primary responsibility of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (§ 733.2a). Identification and enlistment of prospective ministers for the church, including ethnic minorities and women, should be the result of continuous and intentional study of the short-, medium-, and long-term needs of the constituencies of the church. This responsibility constitutes a team effort of the Conference Board with the Cabinet, the Program Council, the District Committee on Ordained Ministry, and the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations in the local congregations. Response from conference ethnic caucuses will prove helpful in addressing the particular needs of the ethnic groups within the life of the conference.

The North Carolina Conference Enlistment Committee will be recruiting persons to attend the national "Exploration '90" event to be held in St. Louis, Missouri, October 19-21. Young persons who are prospects for the ministry are encouraged to explore what ministry is all about.

The intention of the Enlistment Committee is to raise the consciousness of our constituency that identification and enlistment is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church--laity, clergy, pastor-parish relations committees and district superintendents. Therefore, we will be intentional in the next year to seek to maintain and register prospective persons for the ministry.

Lawrence E. Johnson, Chairperson

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The Ministerial Education Fund is the major source of support for theological education in The United Methodist Church. The local church contribution to the Ministerial Education Fund is divided two ways. The larger portion (75%) is sent to the Division of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville to be divided among the United Methodist seminaries for their operating expenses and for scholarship help to minority and special students. These funds are crucial to the life of our seminaries and thus to the training of ordained and diaconal ministers for the life of our church.

The remaining portion (25%) is retained by the Board of Ordained Ministry in the North Carolina Conference.

The Board of Ordained Ministry may use its funds to provide scholarship aid for ministerial education, for continuing education, or for recruitment. The number of needy students preparing for ordained ministry and the amount of funds available mean that the Ministerial Education Fund is used almost exclusively to provide scholarships for ministerial candidates.

The Board of Ordained Ministry thanks the churches in the Annual Conference for their support of the Ministerial Education Fund. These funds insure the training and continuing education for the ministerial leadership in our Annual Conference.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Duke Convocation and North Carolina Pastors' School will be held October 29-31, 1990. The Board of Managers is pleased to announce that Dr. Jean Miller Schmidt, of Iliff School of Theology, Denver, Colorado, is the Gray Lecturer, and the Reverend Doctor Peter Gomes, of The Memorial Church, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, is the Hickman Lecturer. Dr. William Willimon, Dean of the Duke Chapel, will preach on Monday evening and Tuesday morning. Dr. Thomas Long, of Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey, is scheduled to preach Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning.

A full complement of the nine continuing education seminars offering one CEU credit will be available to those who preregister. The continual growth in attendance each year has made it necessary for those who wish to participate in seminars to register early.

The 1989 event, held once again in Page Auditorium, was highlighted by presentations of Walter Brueggemann, of Columbia Theological Seminary, as the Gray Lecturer and William (Billy) J. Abraham, of Perkins School of Theology, as the Hickman Lecturer. The convocation preachers were William K. Quick, senior pastor of Metropolitan United Methodist Church, Detroit, Michigan, and William Turner, of the Duke Divinity School.

The Board of Managers is particularly pleased to see an increasing number of members of the annual conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction and other geographical areas of the Church participating in this annual gathering. Some District Superintendents of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences have provided scholarships for this event, and others have encouraged churches to assist their minister's participation through continuing education funds. We acknowledge this support with gratitude and say to those who have not yet had this vision, "Go thou and do likewise!"

The following nominations are presented for membership on the Board of Managers from the North Carolina Conference:

Class of 1991 - Ernest R. Porter, H. Langill Watson

Class of 1992 - Carol W. Goehring, E. Powell Osteen, Jr.

Class of 1993 - William H. Gattis, Lawrence E. Johnson

Class of 1994 - David A. Banks, W. Joseph Mann

Larry D. Wilkinson, Chairperson
James E. Creech, Vice-chairperson

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Board of Ordained Ministry of the North Carolina Annual Conference requires psychological assessment and evaluation for all persons seeking membership in our Annual Conference. The Committee on Psychological Testing and Evaluation is charged with carrying out this responsibility. Members of the committee during 1989-90 are David Banks, John Harwood, Glenda Johnson, Robert Pullman, and Fred Roberts.

The two-fold purpose of psychological testing and evaluation is to provide nurture for those seeking conference membership; and to assist the Board of Ordained Ministry, acting on behalf of the Annual Conference, in the selection of candidates with optimum psychological adjustment for effective ministry. Our intent is to personally benefit candidates seeking conference membership by providing them information, feedback, and guidance toward psychological health and wholeness. At the same time, we seek to assist the Board of Ordained Ministry in their selection process through the early detection of behavior patterns which may pose potential barriers to effective ministry.

For persons seeking to transfer to the N.C. Annual Conference from denominations other than United Methodist, and for all seeking Probationary Membership, the following tests are required: Strong/Campbell (Interests), Theological School Inventory (Religious Interest), Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and Clinical Analysis Questionnaire (back-up to the M.M.P.I.).

For those persons seeking to transfer into the N. C. Annual Conference from other United Methodist conferences, the following tests are required: Personal Research Form, Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory, and Clinical Analysis Questionnaire.

The cost of psychological testing and evaluation of those United Methodists from within the N. C. Conference seeking Probationary Membership is borne by the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. The cost of the testing and valuation for those seeking transfer will be borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry when such testing is done at the time our candidates are group tested. Those who choose testing other than through the above process will bear the expense themselves.

It was my personal privilege to represent our Conference at the National Consultation on Clergy Assessment held this past April in Chicago. Events and discussions at the consultation confirmed my sense that our conference's testing and evaluation process is "on track," and continues to provide a valuable service to this Annual Conference. It is encouraging to hear that, on a national level, psychological testing and evaluation of United Methodist Ministerial Candidates is increasingly coming to be seen as ONE part of an overall process of discernment of those persons' readiness for ordination and ministry.

During 1989 fourteen candidates were tested through our conference program of Psychological Testing and Evaluation.

Frederick E. Roberts, Chairperson

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

In ¶417.3 of The Book of Discipline, 1988, we read: "each Probationary Member shall have an Elder in Full Connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation." This Residency in Ordained Ministry Program has served to meet this guideline plus it has also served the purpose of providing collegiality and support for each one who has been involved in the program. The participants have been meeting in clusters and we endeavor to keep them in the same cluster for the duration of their Probationary period and we also try to keep them with the same leader. This really does provide quite a bit of support. The leaders this past year have been: The Reverends Tom Holtsclaw, Gray Southern, Hope Morgan Ward, Bill Presnell, Steve Compton, Bob Wallace, and Albert Shuler. My thanks to each of these for their splendid leadership!

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Thank you for your support of the SEJ Conference Administrative Council during the 1989-90 conference year. You have played a very important role in the success of our first year of operation as an Administrative Council. You have supported the Council through your excellent attendance at the numerous program events planned by the Council and the affiliated associations, fellowships, agencies, and organizations. Attendance in 1989 was the best in more than five years. Your payments to the SEJ Administration Fund are another expression of your support. The percentage of payments to this fund was down again this year, but it is encouraging to me that some of the annual conferences actually increased their giving for the jurisdictional apportionment. As I thank you for your help during this past year, I encourage you to continue to uphold your jurisdictional council this year and in the future.

This past fiscal year (1989) was the first full year of operation as the Administrative Council, and it proved to be a very positive one. A net operating fund surplus of nearly $350,000 was realized. This was due to three primary factors: each of the divisions and most of the departments reduced expenditures; revenues were higher than expected; and several executive positions were not filled. Mr. C. David Snipes of Columbus, GA, was employed as business manager/treasurer and was given astute direction to the financial affairs of the Council. All funds are now separated into specific accounts and are administered in accordance with accepted accounting procedures and The Book of Discipline. By the end of 1990, the Foundation (Endowment Funds) will total more than $2,000,000. This represents a 150 percent increase in just two years. We need your help to strengthen the endowment in order to provide continuous support for our non-revenue producing buildings. You may do this by making your own gift, including the Administrative Council or Lake Junaluska in your will, or identifying a person(s) who can make such a gift. At the end of 1988 there were no maintenance reserve funds. In addition to the Endowment Funds, it is anticipated that we will accrue an additional $1,000,000 in maintenance reserve funds for the revenue-producing buildings by the end of 1992. These two measures will help to provide long-range fiscal stability for the Administrative Council and Lake Junaluska Assembly.

The Agency Division continues to provide support and guidance for the six agencies with the jurisdiction. Each of these agencies is directed by a person who is considered to be a leader in her/his area of responsibility. These respective directors are providing significant service to the Southeastern Jurisdiction and The United Methodist Church. Through the SEJ Missional Fund (an asking of $.50/member/year), you undergird the ministries of these agencies. The agencies related to the SEJ are the Commission on Archives and History, the Commission on Communications (The United Methodist Series of The Protestant Hour), the Hinton Rural Life Center, the Intentional Growth Center, the Southeastern Methodist Agency for Rehabilitation (SEMAR), and the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission.

The Lake Junaluska Division will be administered by the Rev. Glenn E. Martin, who has been chosen to serve as the Associate Executive Director. Mr. Martin, from the MS Annual Conference, will begin June 1. During the past year, the following improvements have been made to the facilities: Memorial Chapel has been refurbished (made possible by funds from the Junaluska Associates); a new roof has been added to Stuart Auditorium; enhancements have been made to the Kern Youth Center; new ramps have been constructed at the Children's Building and air conditioning added to the crib nursery (with financial assistance from the Junaluska Woman's Club); and bathrooms have been added to ten rooms in Mountainview Lodge. The service charges for residential services have been increased to provide adequate funds for delivering municipal services for the private homes. A modest portion of these funds has been budgeted for reserves. Conversations are currently taking place between the administration and leaders of the Junaluska property owners' organizations about the most equitable manner for determining and collecting these funds. The dredging of the lake was begun this spring and will be an on-going operation by our maintenance staff. The hydroelectric project has been delayed yet another time because the project contractor and lessee filed for bankruptcy. The future of this project is indefinite at this time.

The Program Division continues to develop creative and well-attended programs for persons of all ages. We are especially excited about the expansion of the WELLTH ministry to include environmental wellness. "Breakthrough in Earth Literacy" is an opportunity offered to our summer staff to earn three hours of college credit in a course on Christian stewardship of the earth.

The Paul B. Kern Youth Center is the site of renovations which enhance both the physical fitness equipment and recreation opportunities, under the leadership of a year-round coordinator of Recreation and Leisure Ministries.

In addition to the staff-developed programs, the division staff provides resources and planning support for the many programs sponsored and designed by the associations, organizations, and fellowships related to the Administrative Council. Distinguished preachers, noted teachers, and gifted seminar leaders provide inspiration for these events. Dr. Israel L. Rucker serves as the Associate Executive Director for the Program Division. Let me highlight just a few of the new programs or new approaches in the summer schedule.

- the combining of Youth-in-Mission Conference with Youth Week II, July 2-6, which enables both youth groups and individual youth to participate. Response has been most encouraging.

- the inclusion of Girl Scouts, in addition to the Boy Scouts, in the Asbury Scouting Fellowship Encampment, meeting in conjunction with the United Methodist Men Recharge, June 22-24,

- a special event, called the Lake Junaluska Spiritual Life Retreat, July 20-22, featuring preaching by Walter Kimbrough and Bible study by Evelyn Laycock.

- two specialized workshops sponsored by the SEJ Association of Stewardship and Finance Leaders during Ministers Conference/Leader Development Center.

An interpreter for the deaf and hearing impaired will interpret at each Sunday morning and evening worship service in the summer.

In conclusion, I would be remiss if I did not remind you of the ways in which you can support the ministry of your jurisdictional Administrative Council.

1. You can support this ministry by attending and promoting the many program events.
2. You can support this ministry by your continued support of the Jurisdictional Administration Fund (apportionment).
3. You can support this ministry by your increased contributions to the Missional Fund (an asking).
4. You can support this ministry by giving to the Endowment Fund or the Endowment Trees.
5. You can support this ministry by remembering the Council, Lake Junaluska, or one of the agencies in your will.
6. You can support this ministry with your suggestions for improvement and by telling us how we can better serve you.

7. You can support this ministry with your prayers and good will.

We appreciate your support of the SEJ Administrative Council.

Reginald W. Ponder, Executive Director

SPRIT FOR TOMORROW CAMPAIGN, COMMITTEE ON

The Spirit for Tomorrow Capital Funds effort is enabling exciting progress to take place in the areas of Outdoor and Camping Ministries and Church Extension.

With nearly $2 million paid by the end of December, several major developments have taken place.

In the area of church extension:

- 1) A grant to Genesis Church has allowed them to purchase a site.
- 2) A grant to Resurrection Church is allowing them to plan the first unit of their building.
- 3) Another grant to Soapstone Church is enabling them to plan their building during 1990-91.
- 4) West Robeson Church has already completed the first unit of their building.

AND requests from other churches are currently being reviewed by the committee.

In Outdoor and Camping Ministries the three architectural firms are completing plans for renovations and new buildings at each of the four sites.

All of you who have ever spent the night at Don-Lee will be happy to know that a contract has been received for a new bathhouse there. It is under construction and is expected to be ready sometime this summer. The architects and engineers are also working on the water system at Don-Lee which must be replaced. Much of the water system study and replacement plans were made possible through a major gift of services from Larry Sneed of Siteworks in Wilmington.

The Plans are being completed for new cabins at Don-Lee, a new multi-purpose dining hall and kitchen at Rockfish, a new dining hall at Chestnut Ridge and our long awaited adult retreat center at Chestnut Ridge.

In addition to these physical improvements, in both the area of church extension and camping, a percentage of the monies received by the campaign has been invested with the Methodist Foundation for endowment purposes.

On March 11 we celebrated Spirit for Tomorrow Sunday. Churches were provided with bulletin inserts, highlighting the campaign. This special emphasis gives every member the opportunity to contribute to these causes. Churches are urged to plan some special event to highlight the progress of the campaign. Slides and persons are available to share this good news with your members. Please continue to support this effort so that we can give the United Methodists of eastern North Carolina the facilities we need to carry on God's work.

* The 1988 Statistical Tables contained an error on lines 8 (Removed by death) and 9 (Total full members at the close of 1988) for Saint Frances UMC (403.4). This accounts for the discrepancy between the 1988 ending total membership and the 1989 beginning total membership reported here.

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

At the 1989 Annual Conference, the Board of Trustees was authorized to amend the Articles of Incorporation of the board to effect a name change - The Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, Inc.. We were 20 years out of date. This has been accomplished.

You also asked us to sell a church and property in Kinston. During the year, we secured an appraisal, listed the property for sale, and are now in receipt of an offer, accompanied by a deposit. The offer will be considered by the board and I trust that before the contract expires in September, this task will be completed.

Staff parsonages in Raleigh are a responsibility of the board. I am informed by Bill Gattis, chairperson of the Parsonage Committee of the board and by Bob McKenzie, CCOM executive director, that these homes continue to be properly maintained. Three are presently being readied for new occupants. The Methodist Building continues to represent both a challenge and an opportunity. During 1989 and 1990, challenges have continued to dominate.

The building is at last fully leased, at rates which are consistent with the Raleigh market. Due to the overbuilt condition of the Raleigh market, this means that substantial pressure on rental rates has been experienced which has had the effect of limiting the cash flow that we have been able to generate from the building. The result is that there are sufficient revenues for operating the building assuming that no unusual or unexpected expenditures are encountered. Unfortunately, our experience, particularly with air-conditioning, has been that the unexpected is the norm.

The result is that we are presently operating the building at a loss. According to the Financial Report, just received, we experienced a deficit of $19,000 during 1989 in the operating fund. In order to place the building in a sounder financial basis, we have recommended to CF&A that budget support be increased from $22,000 to $72,000 per annum, which represents $4 per square foot for the space occupied by the Conference. This amounts to somewhat less than 1/2 of the rental charges we obtain from leased space, and will enable us to provide for contingencies, redevelop a small reserve (now a minus $15,000) and repay CF&A for funds advanced to enable us to upfit the building for rental.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

On December 31, 1989, the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. completed its 35th year of service to the NC Conference. In 1955, the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was chartered to serve as an Investment Pool and Trustee for any agency of the Conference when requested. The Foundation also, from time to time receives gifts and bequests on behalf of individuals or organizations and acts as Trustee according to the wishes of the donor. Our Foundation is the oldest Conference Foundation in Methodism. Also, according to a recent survey, we rank third in the value of assets. We should all be proud of the foresight that members and delegates of the NC Conference had when they granted our charter, thirty-five years ago.

I am pleased to report that 1989 also proved to be another milestone in the history of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Our net income from dividends and interest exceeded $2,000,000 for the first time. We distributed net dividends of $2,013,918 to our unit holders. This was an increase of $115,225 or 6.1%. The total net assets at year end had a market value of $29,100,035, an increase of $2,048,679 or 7.5%. This increase came from $1,069,345 in security transactions and $979,334 in new investments.

There were two significant projects undertaken by the Methodist Foundation, Inc. during 1989. One, was a complete review of our charter and by-laws. There had been several changes since our original charter in 1955 and these had not been updated. The charter has now been upgraded to reflect these changes and to provide the guidelines to operate the Foundation during the next thirty-five years. The re-stated charter is printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations, and Reports 1990. You will be asked to vote on this later in today's schedule.

Secondly, with the help of our auditors, McGladrey & Pullen, a new software package for the computer has been designed and is in place. This will help us to provide more information on a more timely basis for our unit holders. Both of these changes will help us to be more efficient in the future.

First Union National Bank continues to manage the investment portfolio (exclusive of mortgage loans) and has exceeded the guidelines as set forth by the Investment Committee. Oxford Mortgage Corporation of Raleigh is our investment counselor for mortgage loans, and we continue to like their services.

The unqualified audit by McGladrey & Pullen for the year ending December 31, 1989 is on file in the Conference Treasurer's Office for review by any member of this Conference.

The causes of Christ and His Church are being advanced in a significant way through the planned giving work of United Methodist Foundation under the direction of Douglas Byrd, executive director. We are deeply grateful for the contribution Douglas is making to the stewardship program of this Conference through the United Methodist Foundation. At the close of 1989 there were 115 gift and investment accounts in the Foundation.

Seventy-eight of these accounts are endowment funds with total assets in excess of $2 million. Nine of these were established and 17 others received additional contributions during 1989. These endowment funds represent present and future support for the Church at all levels including special local church programs and ministries; church property care and maintenance; scholarships for college, camping, and child care; clergy pensions; church extension; camping and outdoor ministries; services to children, youth, and families; world missions; ministries to older adults; and other institutional and program support.

Seven life income gifts are held by the Foundation with assets of approximately $700,000. These gifts will benefit causes of the Church designated by the donors.

The remaining 30 accounts represent investments managed by the Foundation on behalf of local churches, institutions, and organizations (with assets over $2 1/4 million) and accounts of Conference boards and agencies (with assets of approximately $25 million).

Not reflected in the above facts are over $1 million in gifts through life insurance which are now in place and 33 files which contain information relating to persons who have drawn their wills to benefit various causes of the Church.

Through its planned giving program the Foundation continues to offer leadership and resources in support of the broader concept of stewardship that includes giving from accumulated and accumulating resources as well as from current income. Long-range planning and funding (vital to present and future ministries of the Church) are emphasized through workshops, seminars, and group and individual consultations.

The commitment of United Methodist Foundation remains firm:...to provide wise and prudent investment of long-term and permanent funds of the Church and its many and varied missions and ministries;...to offer creative stewardship education and opportunities that focus not only on giving from current income but also from accumulated and accumulating assets;...to provide competent assistance to donors who want to benefit the Church and its causes;...to offer informed consultation and resources for churches and institutions as they seek to create an environment conducive to generous giving through sound Christian stewardship procedures.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Prior to my election, plans were already underway for the training of the new 1990 officers. In the months of September, October, and November 1989, sites were chosen to conduct Bi-district Executive Board Training Breakfasts - to inform, to inspire, and to implement our new Conference and District administration.

The training included 1) local fellowship descriptions and duties, 2) basic resources needed to accomplish the job, programming strategies, operations and performing functions, and 3) current programs being offered by the Conference and General Church. We thought these training breakfasts would go over well, but when they didn't, we decided to plan something different next year.

Next came the January workshops. Attendance was about the same as last year, averaging about 12 men per district. Those officers that missed the earlier training participated in this workshop. One comment about the workshop that I heard made it all worthwhile - it was, "I learned something today".

In order to organize our new directions and emphases, committees were defined to accomplish that area of concern: training, nominating, newsletter, membership and charters, programs, fund-raising, spiritual emphasis, Scouts, 4-H and Campfire Girls, Interclub, Annual Meeting, Youth, special project and disaster teams. Each district president was asked to chair a committee and work to carry out that responsibility. There are four committees I would like to lift to you.

First, you may be aware that UMM have accepted the Scouting, 4-H and Campfire programs as part of our responsibility. I have appointed a UM coordinator in each district, and asked that he appoint a committee to coordinate all of those activities; to contact and work with 4-H Agents and the Campfire Girl organization, and to select a Conference Executive Board to oversee this committee. The chairman of this committee is Burton King from the Durham District.

Second, under the Special Projects Committee, chaired by Howard Harrell of the Wilmington District, there are two outreach projects that deal with hunger: the Potato Project and the Heifer Project. The Potato Project salvages potatoes that is normally wasted and delivers it to the needy. Over 3 million pounds of potatoes have been delivered to NC poor. It costs about four cents to salvage, bag and deliver a pound of potatoes. The Heifer Project provides food-producing animals, such as cattle, goats, chickens, rabbits, and bees, and related assistance to families in need world-wide. Those who receive animals will become givers, by "passing a gift" of the first offspring to another in need. We felt so strongly about the Heifer Project, a representative was chosen to travel to Ecuador last March to see the project first hand and return to get it off the ground. Tom Traylor of Norlina will be organizing the Conference Heifer Project, and you will hear more about it in the near future.

Third, UMM disaster response teams, because of recent and past disasters, will be organized in each district (a minimum of 15 men) to respond to an area within 24 hours - mainly to clear, clean-up, operate soup kitchens, and work with the Conference Volunteers-in-Mission Committee, the Red Cross, the Conference Disaster Relief Committee, and IMCOR. Once organized, these teams could be trained to deal with a community, the conditions to be faced in any area, the type of work to be accomplished, and working with other agencies.

And fourth, the most urgent need is a communication tool. The Conference level feels separated from the local groups because of the lack of reporting and informing. The local groups need a means to report their accomplishments and victories. Two methods seem to rise to the top: 1) reprinting the UMM Handbook on training and information of seven years ago, and 2) a newsletter on a regular basis.

Most of our 13 committees require some help on financing. So, a new means of financing has been offered. Working with our Conference UMM treasurer, James Toney, it was approved to ask each fellowship to support our year's efforts with a support of $20 to finance the Conference work - travel, printing, and ministries. This asking has been slow in coming but we will continue until the Conference UMM organization is self-supporting. If your UMM fellowship has not sent your 1990 support in, please do so, in order that we can move forward in our work and ministries.

Today, I can honestly share with you that our UMM organization is trying. I can tell you that most participate in some Conference suggestions. I hear of so many fellowships that seem to be decreasing in numbers, the same leaders doing the work, the same officers year after year, and the lack of support from church staff. I can offer help through the Conference UMM. We have dedicated men who are working to assist in new fellowships, to encourage struggling clubs, to share ideas to revive the inactive groups, put some enjoyment in UMM, and create a supportive fellowship of men who seek to know Jesus Christ.

A word of appreciation to a number of men who were dedicated to UMM this past year; were always present at the quarterly meetings and training sessions; led the January workshops; have worked very hard to see that our new organizational plan succeeds; have kept me in their prayers and continue to encourage me - the Executive Board - Glenn Stevens, vice-president; Mike Register, secretary; James Toney, treasurer; and Cliff Shoaf, our staff support who is retiring. Cliff, you will be missed. May your retirement bring you well deserved joy and happiness. We are looking forward to working with Carol Strange who will be our new staff representative.

Thanks to the district superintendents for their work this year, without them, nothing would happen. We also appreciate the support of those district superintendents who attended and advised us.

In closing, the words of Allen Norris, the 1989 Conference UMM president, "As we look ahead, we will continue to emphasize strengthening existing bonds, and forming new ones, by having men on the move. The life of our church will be better by this increasing momentum."

Thank you and God bless.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Since the Annual conference of 1989, UMW of the NC Conference have been busy implementing our PURPOSE for being. Methodist women are involved women! Caring and sharing, seeking to give life and expression to God's love in many, many parts of this hurting world. Methodist women have a story to tell to others of their many activities, and I will endeavor to give you a glimpse of that story here today.

At our September Executive Committee meeting, we began the process of evaluation and planning for a new year. Then at our January Executive Committee meeting, we adopted a new theme to support our quadrennial emphasis on Faithful Disciples - Joyful Servants. The theme for this year is "Living Our Faith". This theme is in keeping with who we are as United Methodist women and with how we live out our PURPOSE through UMW.

"Living Our Faith" means sharing our knowledge with others, so in November, we had our annual District Officers in Training Day. It was held at Mebane Church with approximately 175 in-coming and returning officers participating.

"Living Our Faith" means preparing for our responsibilities on the Conference Mission Team. Four of our newly elected officers attended a New Officer Training Event (NOTE), sponsored by Women's Division in NYC during the first week in December. They came back inspired, full of information and ready to go to work.

Our Annual Meeting was held here at the college the first week-end in October and was attended by approximately 600 people. The Fayetteville District was hostess for the meeting.

As an example of "Living Our Faith", the love offering which was presented at the Annual Meeting was $14,932.08; $7,000 of which was sent to Cape Flats Methodist Pre-School Center in South Africa and $7,932.08 was sent to the Methodist Mission School of Ghanta, Liberia, where Herbert Zigbuo is principal.

"Living Our Faith" was making a PLEDGE TO MISSION in 1989 of $350,499. The total sent to Women's Division for mission was $378,291.03. Our pledges to mission, the undesignated giving, the designated giving and our gifts were given in gratitude for God's daily blessings and we are grateful that our gifts can be used in mission and ministry to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

"Living Our Faith" is being a member of UMW and inviting other women to become members. Our membership figure at the end of 1989 shows 26,191 members, which is a GAIN of 1,036 over 1988. The number of units in 1989 was 673, but only 608 of those units reported, which means that 10% of the units did not report. What a difference it would have made if all our units had reported! There are still members out there unaccounted for!

Numbers may be deceptive and only approximate, but used properly, they can spur us on to greater effort. We can turn them into flesh and blood women, young, middle-aged, and older - all of whom we need and who, themselves, need to be a part of a "community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church."

"Living Our Faith" means thoughtfully seeking ways to broaden the inclusiveness of both the membership and leadership in the Conference. The Committee on the Charter for Racial Justice Policies meets twice each year to review goals and to consider future recommendations. The goals of the committee are: to help each woman learn about racism, and to help each woman to see people as human rather than emphasize the races as "they". As an effort to implement the Charter, we have actively sought to recruit women of different racial and ethnic backgrounds for leadership on the Conference Mission Team; provided a plenary for the Conference Executive Committee; used the video "Racism: the Church's Unfinished Agenda", and are working on providing resources for the local units in our Conference. The Charter is an effort to create a structure for change and wholeness.

Two hundred forty one of the local units participated in the 1989 READING PROGRAM. This is a very popular program with the women and recognition is given to those who participate and complete the 3 plans.

"Living Our Faith" means a long-standing commitment to the education of its membership, therefore, our commitment to Conference Summer School continues. The school will be held August 2 - 5 at Methodist College. The mission studies for 1991 and basic interpretation course for UMW will be included in the curriculum.

"Living Our Faith" was planning and implementing a Conference-wide Christian Personhood Retreat at Louisburg College during May that enabled about 250 women to have an opportunity for spiritual enrichment. Each district and many local units have retreats or Days Apart during the year as an opportunity for further spiritual enrichment.

"Living Our Faith" is the 39 and Under Event. If only all of you could have been present to see the enthusiasm and energy displayed at this event held at Methodist College in March. It was our biggest attendance ever, with about 150 young women attending.

"Living Our Faith" is having many units involved in the CAMPAIGN FOR CHILDREN in various ways and with many programs. I could give you a list of the many, many activities which local units are involved in advocating for children, but the list is too long. Just suffice it to say that the UMW of the Conference are STRONG advocates for children and will continue to be for the remainder of the quadrennium.

"Living Our Faith" was one hundred thirteen women from our Conference, along with 10,100 others, attending the National Assembly in Kansas City, MO, May 3 - 6. This was the largest single gathering in the 8.9 million-member United Methodist Church. It brought together women from nearly 30,000 UMW groups based in local churches. Every district in our Conference was represented, with Rockingham District leading the delegation with fourteen people going. Among our delegation was 16 black women and 8 Native American women. Approximately 56 local units were represented from our Conference.

The Executive Committee plus the new dean of Conference Summer School will be attending the South Atlantic Regional School of Mission at Spartanburg College in SC, beginning June 18.

"Living Our Faith" was 801 local units participating in the three mission studies in 1989.

"Living Our Faith" is participating in a scholarship program. For the 1989-90 academic year, scholarships totalling $6,500 were awarded to 17 students. The scholarships for the academic year 1990-91 have recently been awarded.

"Living Our Faith" was many, many programs in the area of human rights and social justice being given in the local units. Units have also been involved in action projects as the result of those programs. They have written letters to city, State, and US Government agencies; participated in action network groups; worked in coalition with other churches and community groups; visited mission projects related to National and Women's Division; planned intergenerational activities; and promoted IMPACT, the Church's nationwide legislative action network.

As United Methodist Women, we choose to be a community that has a very important PURPOSE. We give freely of ourselves to build a community which requires a loving, caring, and sharing fellowship. If we are to actively participate in the fullness of this community, we must be open to new experiences of personal growth and challenge. The opportunities to "be in mission" during this past year have been many and each local unit, each district, and the Conference as a whole has been constantly striving to implement the PURPOSE of our organization as set forth in the Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

As time passes for me as president of the NC Conference, UMW, I am keenly aware of the joy and enrichment which has been mine through the work of UMW. My life has been blessed! And I am grateful for the opportunity of serving my God through UMW.

Jane H. Johnson, President

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

A sailboat is nothing without wind. Youth Ministry of the NC Conference is that sailboat, and it needs a strong wind to keep it going. Our sailboat has been sailing successfully for years and it makes an unbelievable impact on the lives of hundreds of young men and women each year. Our Conference has made the difference for many young people - perhaps many of you - by introducing the winds of God into their lives.

This year our sailboat has gone through many transitions. Winds change direction and sails shift to accommodate the wind. This year, after the resignation of our coordinator - Youth Ministries operated with an interim coordinator and a management team of five adults. Sailing was difficult at the beginning of this transition, but because of the determination of the Youth Council, the management team, and the interim coordinator, we continued to sail.

A few weeks ago our boat was given a big gust of wind. Ray Warren became our youth coordinator - full of many exciting ideas and with a concept of sailing like no one has had before. We look forward to working and sailing with Ray in the years ahead.

Though there were many struggles during this past year, the youth of this Conference have achieved many things. Our Youth Service Fund has continued to uphold its National standings by raising over $19,000. This is a commendable task, for 12 years ago, the youth of this Conference struggled to raise $3,000. Over the past few years we have maintained raising at least six times that amount.

While 30% of these funds were sent to the National Youth Ministry Organization, 70% of this money benefited projects designated by the YSF Task Force 1989. Projects funded include Boys Harbor in East Harlem of which I had the pleasure of visiting these past two years, Mountain Top in Tennessee, and many local projects, such as the White Plains Children's Outreach Center that gives scholarships to enable youth to attend our Annual Conference Session for Youth.

I could go on and on about how the Youth of this Conference have achieved great things and how our Youth programs are so spiritually beneficial, as well as for giving the youth of our Conference a sense of what The United Methodist Church has to offer them.

Please remember that our sailboat is nothing without wind, without YOU. Each and every one of you, has the power to keep that wind a gust, and also you have the power to cause that wind to stop blowing and make it impossible for our sailboat to continue sailing to uphold that standard of excellence our programs have upheld for years.

It saddens me to see how participation in summer events is decreasing. One event this year, one dear to my heart, has already been cancelled for this summer. Youth Music Worship, an event that is special for all those who attend, was cancelled because of a lack of registrants. Some members of UMY '89 will be singing for you on Saturday Morning...listen to them sing and think about the youth in your own church.

Our only form of communication with you is through the coordinated mailings. Please read our YMY mail. It makes me very frustrated after hearing many ministers talk jokingly about throwing away coordinated mailings because they are the only vital link we have to the youth of this Conference. If the youth of your own church had been aware of this event, don't you think they would have wanted to participate in Music Workshop? Perhaps if every single minister promoted the UMY events, this event would have had enough participation and would not have been cancelled. It is not too late to start. We need your wind, or we cannot continue sailing with great magnitude as in the past. I would hate to hear in a few years, "Yes, that NC Conference used to have a great Youth program, but LATELY..."

We have come so far and I would hate for that to change. We need you to give us your support. After all, would a sailboat be a sailboat without wind?

C. RESOLUTIONS

Child Pornography

WHEREAS, in the report to the attorney-general on child pornography, the California attorney-general's advisory committee on obscenity and pornography noted: In interviews with a great many police officers, the committee was frequently told, "I never arrested a child molester who didn't have pornography in his possession".

WHEREAS, a Los Angeles police department investigation studied over 40 child molestation cases during a five month period and interviewed more than 100 victims and suspects. Pornography was found to be present in every case. Child sexual abuse has increased as adult pornography has increased.

WHEREAS, Human Development Specialist, Dr. Shirley O'Brien of the University of Arizona, says that child pornography victimizes as many as 600,000 children annually in the US from ages 3 to 18. Her book, Child Pornography was published in 1983.

WHEREAS, according to Newsweek, the pornography industry in America is estimated to be a $6-8 billion a year business. Law enforcement officials contend that it provides the third largest income for organized crime.

WHEREAS, the FBI estimates that last year in the US recreational killers murdered 5,000 people. Most of them, say FBI officials, feed on pornography.

WHEREAS, according to Women Against Pornography, an estimated 1.2 million children are annually exploited in commercial sex, that is, prostitution and child pornography.

WHEREAS, law enforcement officers routinely find pornographic material when they investigate sex crimes against children. (Shirley O'Brien - Child Pornography)

WHEREAS, 70% of adult pornography magazines sold end up in the hands of minors, according to Henry Boatwright, chairman of US Advisory Board of Social Concern.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church, deems it necessary to act upon the problem of pornography, based on these facts.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that every United Methodist pastor serving a local church be encouraged to address from the pulpit the issue of pornography.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that each United Methodist in the NC Conference identify those businesses which sell such pornographic materials. After identifying these businesses, take the following actions:

- 1) Write letters of objection to owners of such businesses of both the display and sale of such material;
- 2) Boycott such businesses until pornographic material is removed from stores;
- 3) Ask the city council of our local municipalities to pass ordinances which will prohibit the operation of adult book stores; and
- 4) Write to our representatives in State government to pass laws with enough bite to discourage adult book stores from operating in the State of NC.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this program be included as a permanent priority of the Board of Church and Society of the NC Annual Conference and included in the Book of Recommendations of each Annual Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that each local church consider ways in which it may actively support measures to combat the existence and spread of pornography in their community.

(EDITORIAL NOTE: The Conference secretary reminded the Conference that guidelines have been established that are found in The Book of Resolutions of the 1988 General Conference which delineate the reasons and methods to be followed by both United Methodist individuals and local churches in instituting or joining a boycott.)

Clean Air and Clean Water

WHEREAS, God has provided the earth with sufficient clean water and pure air to sustain life, and

WHEREAS, our lives are dependent on clean water and pure air,

WHEREAS, clean life-giving liquid and air are being depleted across the world by man-made pollutants coming primarily from the frequently inept and sometimes criminal, spilling and dumping and burning of municipal, hazardous, medical and radioactive waste,

WHEREAS, we as consumers are directly linked to the problem of pollution production,

WHEREAS, in North Carolina our ground water aquifers are in danger of contamination and clean surface water in short supply,

WHEREAS, all radioactive waste, municipal solid waste, and hazardous vast landfills and other ground "disposal sites" eventually leak,

WHEREAS, incinerators seem to "dispose" of waste but in reality only change its form blasting unhealthy particles into the air and producing large proportions of toxic ash as well as sludge from scrubbers,

THEREFORE, we urgently recommend local, state and national policies that:

- 1) require conservation of energy,
- 2) require development of renewable energy sources while preparing to minimize the use of non-renewable energy sources,
- 3) require achievable prevention of hazardous waste at the source of generations as part of the permitting process and on-site management of all nuclear reactor waste, and
- 4) continue to regulate all nuclear waste to avoid its ending up in local landfills, incinerators, etc.,
- 5) outlaw hazardous and low level radioactive waste landfills, and substitute retrievable storage, preferably above ground,
- 6) recognize that incineration is frequently an undesirable alternative for the disposal of waste because of toxic emissions and,

FURTHER, we urgently recommend that every child of God consider analyzing personal patterns of consumption in the light of the knowledge that we are polluting God's earth and burying ourselves in the process. Everywhere is "somewhere", and there is no "away". We are God's hands and feet to protect GOD'S CREATION.

Death Penalty

WHEREAS, the death penalty still is permitted in North Carolina, even though it already has been abolished in 14 states and in almost every western democracy except the U.S.; and

WHEREAS, careful comparisons of murder rates in similar states, and also in the same state, with and without the death penalty, have found as many or slightly more murders with the use of the death penalty; and

WHEREAS, the death penalty falls unfairly and unequally upon an outcast minority too poor to secure adequate legal representation, and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Supreme Court, in Gregg v. Georgia, concluded the lack of evidence that the death penalty reduced violent crime, but permitted its use for purposes of sheer retribution; and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church, in a resolution adopted by the General Conference in 1980, affirmed its belief, rooted in the teachings of both the old and new testaments of the Bible, that retribution or social vengeance are unacceptable reasons for taking human life;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church actively support the repeal of the death penalty in North Carolina; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that local church members be actively encouraged to contact their appropriate elected and appointed officials to express their support for repealing the death penalty in North Carolina; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to the North Carolina Governor and State and U.S. senators and representatives.

Drug Trafficking and Covert Operations

WHEREAS, the current drug crisis has condemned many people to lives of violence and despair, destroyed families and communities nationwide, and become a national priority; and

WHEREAS, the availability of cocaine has increased 1000% nationwide since 1980,

WHEREAS, all current administration anti-drug programs overlook a critical component of the drug crisis - specifically, that the influx of drugs into our country has often been fueled by government agency relationships with drug traffickers in the name of national security and under the cover of covert operations; and

WHEREAS, a recent report by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Narcotics, Terrorism, and International Operations, and other reputable independent investigations have established the following to be true:

- 1) U.S. government officials have frequently turned a blind eye to drug trafficking by allies - including the contras in Nicaragua, the rebels in Afghanistan, government officials in the Bahamas, and until recently, General Manuel Noriega of Panama - in exchange for support of U.S. foreign policy goals.
- 2) Drug money has become an integral financial component of covert military operations for the past twenty years, funding covert activities from the Vietnam War in the 1960's to the contra war in the 1980's.
- 3) Drug traffickers have been employed to carry out covert operations on behalf of our government; many of the pilots who smuggled for the major cocaine cartels also transported arms for the contras, often landing drug shipments at U.S. airports with government protection.
- 4) Federal officials have protected drug smugglers and undermined drug investigations for foreign policy purposes; in Mena, Arkansas, a local law enforcement investigation of drug running from a near-by airport was frustrated by federal agencies in order to protect a drug trafficker who was also a transporter of contra supplies.
- 5) The State Department paid over $800,000 in U.S. tax dollars to companies owned by known drug kingpins in return for their support of the contras; one of these companies was owned by Juan Ramon Matta who, at the time of the payments, was under investigation by the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) for his key role in the assassination of a DEA agent; and

WHEREAS, these relationships with drug dealers have led to a significant increase in the flow of drugs into the United States, opening our borders to traffickers who come and go with little fear of detection or prosecution; and

WHEREAS, these relationships have made it difficult, if not impossible, for U.S. officials to reign in members of drug cartels and drug-corrupted foreign government officials with whom they have been involved in the past; and

WHEREAS, government collusion with drug dealers could indeed be continuing today, given the length and depth of these relationships and the consistent failure to prosecute known criminal activity;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, call on the President, the Congress of the United States, and all appropriate federal agencies to pledge publicly to end all support of individuals engaged in drug trafficking, and to end support for drug-corrupted military allies; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that The NC Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church call on the House and Senate Judiciary Committees to investigate and support the prosecution of government officials who have worked with drug traffickers or have obstructed the prosecution of drug traffickers; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that through our Conference Secretary we communicate this resolution directly to our lawmakers and public officials in Washington, D.C. and, by passing this resolution, to educate our membership about the connection between drugs and covert operations.

Evangelism

WHEREAS, we of the NC Conference acting as good stewards are becoming more and more concerned about the environment; and

WHEREAS, God is the creator of our world and the first to recycle his creation; and

WHEREAS, God took "dust from the ground" and recycled it into man, and "blew the breathe of life into man and man became a living being"; and

WHEREAS, sin entered in and corrupted God's creation, "for all have sinned and fallen short"; and

WHEREAS, "while we were yet sinners Christ died for us"; and

WHEREAS, "by grace through faith" we as Christians are recycled sinners; and

WHEREAS, this recycling process is none other than the gift of salvation which is given to all who believe and trust in Christ's death and resurrection; and

WHEREAS, we are called to proclaim this gift, "to make disciples of all nations"

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church adopt as its top priority the making of disciples; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference Council on Ministries place evangelism as one of the priority considerations in the program recommendations presented by boards and agencies at the 1991 Annual Conference.

The Lottery

WHEREAS, United Methodist people have historically stood together against gambling (games where "chance" outweighs "skill") including "lotteries" (The Book of Discipline, 1988, ¶173G);

WHEREAS, a number of states, including NC, in response to their financial crises, are considering legalizing "public lotteries;"

WHEREAS, a number of states have already adopted such lotteries;

WHEREAS, we United Methodists have long held that lotteries are not an easy way to make everyone a winner but are rather a heavy tax which hits hardest those who can ill afford to pay;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church assert its opposition to the establishment of a lottery in NC;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Conference call upon its Board of Church and Society to undertake further study and action;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that these assertions be communicated with the governor of NC, the lieutenant governor, and the state legislators.

(Suggested resource: Selling Hope: State Lotteries in America, Charles Clotfelter and Phillip Cook of Duke University, Harvard University Press, 1989)

Our Environment and the Christian Lifestyle

WHEREAS, the natural world is God's handiwork; and

WHEREAS, God's children are to be stewards of one of God's creative gifts - the natural world; and

WHEREAS, those of us within the church are called by Christ to a mission of social redemption which fully supports and compliments the calling to share the Good News of Christ through evangelism; and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has a goodly heritage of concern for social justice; and

WHEREAS, as United Methodist Christians, we have a deep and abiding concern for humanity and the social justice issue of the stewardship of God's creation; and

WHEREAS, we stewards of the earth must recognize the physical limits of our God-given resources, and

WHEREAS, individual and family lifestyle changes represent one way in which we can be better stewards; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, strongly support education of all God's children on the issues of energy consumption, finding ways to conserve and recycle our limited resources, the elimination of waste, and the simplification of our lifestyles; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that local churches within the North Carolina Conference address these important lifestyle issues within the life of the church "family" to the end that United Methodist Christians in the eastern portion of North Carolina will be advocates for fundamental lifestyle changes in the lives of all of God's children.

Reforestation

WHEREAS, almost every aspect of environmental quality (especially atmospheric, water, and soil) is affected by the presence or the absence of sufficient plant life, and this fact eventually affects all animal and human life,

WHEREAS, this is a global concern, not just affecting areas of dense forestation, but the lives of the billions of people that live on planet Earth,

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of Christ's Church as well as all persons to take dominion over the gift of planet Earth without slowly destroying it and ourselves and we are to be excellent stewards of our temporary home, Earth,

WHEREAS, reforestation along with responsible land development is our God given privilege and burden,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the NC Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church actively support legislation and practices that encourage the planting of trees to replace trees that are cut by public and private land owners and stewards.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we lead the way by being ecologically responsible with our own land holdings; we will continue to reforest the timber lands that are cut at our conference camps and retreat centers where trees will best grow; we will properly stabilize all our lands that come under new development to prevent unnecessary damage to soil, water, air, and life itself.

FINALLY BE IT RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be sent to President George Bush, Governor Jim Martin, and to our NC state and US senators and representatives.

Using at Least 5% Recycled Paper

WHEREAS, we in the North Carolina Conference are a segment of the family of God and are called in Scripture to be caring stewards of God's gifts,

WHEREAS, one of God's loveliest and most useful gifts is our forests, which help cool and purify the air for use by humans and other living things, and which provide habitat for a fascinating diversity of birds, animals and vegetation,

WHEREAS, in the U.S., the forest service has encouraged excessive tax subsidized timber harvesting in national forests, including the Pisgah and Nantahala forests in N.C., while forests across the world are being cut faster than they grow,

WHEREAS, the purpose of at least 35% of the harvesting is to produce paper products,

WHEREAS, recycled paper requires no cutting of timber, and producing one ton of paper from discarded waste paper uses half the energy, half the water, results in 74% less air pollution and 35% less water pollution, saves 17 pulp trees, reduces solid waste going into landfills and creates 5 times more jobs than producing a ton of paper from virgin wood pulp,

WHEREAS, the recycling of paper can be successful only if there is a growing market for the product produced from this paper,

THEREFORE, we recommend :

- 1) that Conference offices and agencies, District offices and agencies, local churches and individuals set a goal of buying products with recycled content for at least 10% by 1991, and with a goal of 33% by 1995,
- 2) that the Conference office provide to ministers a list of companies that sell recycled paper products,
- 3) that ministers and other conference leaders encourage parishioners to commit to use recycled products in their businesses.

Wesley Foundation of the University Of North Carolina at Greensboro, Inc.

WHEREAS, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro has indicated the desire and plan to acquire the property of all the denominational student religious ministries now located on the UNC Greensboro campus, namely, the United Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, and Lutheran; and,

WHEREAS, appropriate representatives of the affected judicatories, including the WNC Conference and the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church, with the concurrence of the Wesley Foundation of the UNC at Greensboro, Inc., have agreed to form an ecumenical corporation, Associated Campus Ministries of UNC Greensboro, to deal with the UNC at Greensboro in the matter of exchange of the individual campus ministry properties for a new common property to be located within the bounds of the UNC at Greensboro campus,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the NC State Commission on Campus Ministry, an agency of the WNC and NC Conferences be and is hereby designated as the United Methodist member of Associated Campus Ministries of UNC Greensboro, Inc. The NC State Commission is hereby authorized and directed to elect the United Methodist members of the Board of Directors of the Associated Campus Ministries of UNC Greensboro, Inc., to serve terms of offices as designated by the said NC State Commission on Campus Ministry.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern
Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying fund balance sheet of Herb Stout, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1989, and the related statement of revenue, expense or distribution and fund balances for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Herb Stout, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1989, and the revenue, expense or distribution and fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business:

The Conference was established to handle transactions for the operations and programs sponsored by approximately 840 churches in Eastern North Carolina. The Conference also administers the Annual Conference and collects funds from the general and jurisdictional conferences and forwards these funds to the designated recipients. Fund transactions included within this report represent all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting:

To ensure observance of limitations placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes.

The assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Conference are reported in two Board-designated self-balancing fund groups:

- Annual Budget Funds, which are represented by various annual funds, are determined by the Annual Conference, and all funds are raised by member churches.
- Special Funds, are funds created by the Conference for special purposes.

Other accounting policies:

Real estate, major additions to real estate, and major purchases of furniture and equipment are stated at cost. The Conference does not record depreciation.

Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is based on specific-identification basis.

Funds for investment are combined into one investment pool for marketable securities and cash equivalents. Earnings are allocated to funds specifically approved by the Council on Finance and Administration based on average ownership interest in the pooled funds. Earnings for all other investments are recorded in the fund owning the assets.

The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from outreach ministries of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue from outreach ministries shown in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Fund Balances will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $50,000 to be maintained as a compensating balance. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds invested in this program each business day are available for immediate withdrawal the next business day. Invested cash in this program at December 31, 1989 is $1,011,000 and is included in cash in the accompanying fund balance sheet.

Note 3. Investments

Investment cost and market values are summarized as follows:

	Cost	Market

Inventory	17,962
Other	100
	$2,505,873

Note 5. Supplemental Appropriations and Other Revenue

Supplemental Appropriations and Other Revenue includes appropriations received by each fund and revenue received by each fund.

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981 the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide pension benefits as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a jurisdictional conference, ministerial members of an annual conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1989 is based on 11% of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan and who receive plan compensation equal to the lesser of 60 percent of Conference Average Salary or 60 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation. Funding is based on 4.1% of actual plan compensation.

The Conference collects the required contributions for defined contribution plans described above from the employers of plan participants and remits all collections to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1981. On January 1, 1990 the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of 26% was approximately $23,915,098. Current expense for prior service liability was $1,650,357. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 7. Fund Balance

Certain funds represent amounts raised and expended during the current year. As a result, these funds have no assets, liabilities or fund balance.

Note 8. Related Party Transactions

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church. Accounts receivable of $441,061 from the Foundation represent dividends due to various funds of the Conference for 1989. Accounts payable of $1,540,750 to the Foundation represent payments of 1989 pension expense by the Foundation on behalf of the Board of Pensions. Transfers for these balances are to be made according to the unit investment policies of the Foundation.

Note 9. Commitments

The Conference provides group health, life and dental plans for Conference employees and local church pastors and lay employees. The Conference has elected to self-insure the health and dental plans with a modified minimum premium contract. Under this program the Conference paid claims of $2,656,732 in 1989. As of December 31, 1989, the Insurance Fund has reserved fund balance in the amount of approximately $538,000 for incurred but unreported claims.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON THE SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern
Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Unitholders of United Methodist Foundation, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1989 and 1988, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1989 and 1988, and the results of its operations and changes in its net assets for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations:

United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. The Foundation also receives gifts and bequests on behalf of the member organizations.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities:

Investments are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities.

General:

The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for 1989 and 1988 were as follows:

	1989	1988
Cost of purchases:
U. S. Government securities	$ 7,599,199	$ 2,908,215
Short-term investments	11,070,280	9,559,900
Other securities	3,009,782	5,510,890
	$21,679,261	$17,979,005
Proceeds from sales:
U. S. Government securities	$ 6,484,607	$ 2,557,969
Short-term investments	8,393,035	9,668,900
Other securities	6,197,748	4,570,793
	$21,075,390	$16,797,662

Note 3. Subsequent Events

Subsequent to December 31, 1989 the Foundation acquired an additional mortgage loan in the amount of $700,000 with a term of ten (10) years, interest at the rate of 10%, payable in monthly installments. This investment was funded by liquidation of equity securities.

Also, the market value of common stock and fixed income securities declined by approximately $135,000 as of March 31, 1990 from December 31, 1989 amounts.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees
Board of Missions, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying fund balance sheet of the Board of Missions, Inc., as of December 31, 1989, and the related statement of revenue, expense or distribution and fund balance for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Board of Missions, Inc., at December 31, 1989, and the revenue, expense or distribution and fund balance for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTSNote 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies*Nature of operations:

The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting:

The accounts of the Board of Missions, Inc. are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting.

Other accounting policies:

Investments:

Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is based on a specific-identification basis.

Property:

Property is capitalized at cost or at fair market value as of the date acquired when received by gift. All property consists of undeveloped land and depreciation is not recorded.

Note 2. Investments

All investments are deposited with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and market value as of December 31, 1989 was $670,011 and $742,560, respectively.

Note 3. Restatement of Fund Balance

The beginning fund balance has been restated as follows:

Fund balance, January 1, 1989, as originally reported	$3,471,308
Adjustment for the net fair market value of property acquired by gift and disposals not previously recorded	$ 2,092
Adjustment for accrued interest on mortgage loans not previously recorded	48,875
Fund balance, January 1, 1989, as restated	$3,522,275

Note 4. Donated Services

The Board of Missions receives all management and administrative services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. Because of the difficulty in placing a value on such services, no contribution revenue or related expense has been recorded.

Note 5. Commitments

As of December 31, 1989, the Board of Missions had approved approximately $1,140,000 in new loans to churches which had not been disbursed.
